

RED HOT 2020

JUNE - SEPTEMBER

From a two-day festival
to a four-month
experience
of community and art!

DISCOVER

THE NEIGHBORHOOD

Lady with the flowing blue hair

Tree stumps seating arrangement

Bike wheel on a stick

A bee hotel

The Mauna Loa plaque

A street sign showing where Native American activist Emily Peake lived

A pergola

The building where Uncle Hugo's & Uncle Edgar's bookstores were located, from the 1970s to 1984

The business now occupying the former location of Piggly Wiggly grocery store

A Black Lives Matter sign

Take a picture in the garden

Find a Mansion in the neighborhood

Take a picture of any neighborhood Mural of your choice

Have fun rediscovering your Stevens Square Neighborhood!

Email photos of your findings to redhot@stevenssquare.org for a chance to win a local business gift card!