Thousands of kids across our community rely on breakfasts and lunches offered through the free or reduced price lunch program at their schools for their daily meals. Now that schools are closed and many parents have lost their jobs or been furloughed due to the COVID-19 pandemic, kids and families are struggling to access food.

Though many OC school districts are having sites where families can pick up breakfasts/lunches, they may be far away and difficult for some families to get to. This is costly and difficult and puts families at risk of exposure to the Coronavirus.

Nana’s Kidz volunteers distribute food bags to sites in Orange, Santa Ana, Anaheim, Tustin and Fullerton. Each bag provides a child with enough food for 14 meals.

But we NEED YOUR HELP by holding a food drive for our most needed items listed below.
