STEVENSON’S SPEAKER SERIES
CO-HOSTED BY YORK PREP

SAVE THE DATES!

The Robert Louis Stevenson School embraces internal and external knowledge. As a mental health connector, our speaker series celebrates expertise from beyond our walls. Co-hosted by York Prep, our second annual series is designed with an overarching focus on the intersection of diversity and clinical issues. We look forward to learning with our guest experts about the intersection of:

LGBTQ+ ISSUES AND MENTAL HEALTH
Thursday, April 28, 2022, 6:00pm
Dr. Bridget Hagood

Dr. Hagood is an outpatient psychologist at Cincinnati Children’s Hospital Medical Center. As a generalist, she treats several mental health disorders including generalized worry, obsessive-compulsive disorder (OCD), phobias, social anxiety, depression, adjustment disorders, body image disorders and more. She particularly enjoys working with teens. Dr. Hagood also works closely with the Cincinnati Children’s Transgender Clinic to provide team-based, gender-affirming care to transgender and gender diverse youth and their families.

RACE AND MENTAL HEALTH
Thursday, May 5th, 2022, 6:30pm
Dr. Matthew Whitaker

Matthew C. Whitaker, Ph.D. is the founder and CEO of Diamond Strategies, LLC., a full service justice, equity, diversity, and inclusion firm. He is also an award-winning educator, author, DEI and community engagement specialist, motivational speaker, and founder of the Arizona State University Center for the Study of Race and Democracy, where he was a professor of history for 15 years. He is the winner of the 2014 Arizona Diversity Leadership Alliance (DLA) Inclusive Workplace Award.

NEURODIVERSITY AND MENTAL HEALTH
Thursday, May 12th, 2022, 6:00 pm
Dr. Stan Royzman

Dr. Stan Royzman, Psy.D., M.S.Ed., established Pediatric and Young Adult Psychological Services of New York (PYAPS) for the purpose of empowering children, adolescents, and young adults. His second goal was to ensure that families had the tools and resources they required in order to navigate the complex systems of education and mental health. Dr. Royzman has been working in the field of mental health for fifteen years.
