To All Our Relations

- 6/30, The San Francisco Department of Public Health (SFDPH) announced it has further defined the eligibility criteria for a Jynneos vaccine to prevent monkeypox infections to San Franciscans who are at high risk. For more updates and guidance on monkeypox and vaccine eligibility, visit https://sf.gov/information/monkeypox.

- 7/10, Livable City's Sunday Streets program will take place on Valencia Street 11am-4pm in the American Indian Cultural District. Stop by to learn more about Native-serving organizations and shop Native vendors! Sunday Streets is San Francisco's open streets program providing fun, free activities by local nonprofits, community groups and small businesses in car-free spaces. For more info about Sunday Streets: https://www.sundaystreetssf.com/.

- 7/10, Join Native American Health Center (NAHC) for the summer Indigenous Red Market July 10th from 11am-5pm at 3050 International Blvd, Oakland, CA 94601. Proof of vaccination is required. Event features GRIZZ, Twice As Good - 2XG, Los Bahianatos, Paiute Dancers and All Nations Drum. Follow the Indigenous Red Market on social media for more updates @Indigenousredmarket.

- 7/16, Join the American Indian Cultural District's Native American Community Coalition (NACC) for a day of community gardening at Black Point Historic Gardens from 12-3pm. Materials, supplies, lunch and snacks will be provided to volunteers. Free and open to all ages! Limited spots available so sign up today! RSVP to palomaf@americanindianculturaldistrict.org.

- 7/16, Good Medicine returns to the gorgeous Bruns Amphitheater at Cal Shakes, 100 California Shakespeare Theatre Way Orinda, CA 94563. Doors open at 6pm and the show begins at 8pm. Tickets on sale for $25 at calshakes.org/good-medicine.

- 7/17, As an active partner to help promote American Indian programming in the Presidio activations efforts, AICD is happy to share the announcement of the Presidio Tunnel Tops Public Grand Opening! For more info regarding the Tunnel Tops and its new attractions, visit https://www.presidiotunneltops.gov/.

- 7/17, Join the Native American Health Center's (NAHC) Team for the Aids Walk San Francisco. Sign up online at https://sf.aidswalk.net/teamnahc or call (415) 237-3254.

- 7/20 - 7/21, 7/25, CA State Water Board is looking for input and hosting multiple Racial Equity Action Plan Public Workshops to develop the State Water Board Racial Equity Action Plan to better inform their work to preserve, protect, and restore water resources in CA. For more information, email racialequity@waterboards.ca.gov or visit https://www.waterboards.ca.gov/racial_equity/.
7/22, Deadline to submit applications for the Native Power Building Fellowship at California Native Vote Project. For more information about the fellowship and how to apply, visit: https://canativevote.org/native-power-building-fellowship/.

7/22, Deadline to submit survey for PG&E’s Resilient Together https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/TDXLXLM. For each completed survey you have the chance to win a prize. Please email palomaf@americanindianculturaldistrict.org proof of submission to be entered into an AICD swag raffle. 3 winners will be announced at the end of the month!

7/29, The San Francisco Arts Commission (SFAC) needs your feedback! The Native American Arts & Cultural Traditions (NAACT) grants program was created in 2008 with the advice of members of Native communities. SFAC is asking for input and insight to help determine eligibility for the NAACT grant category. Take and share the survey below so SFAC can continue investing in Native American artists and arts organizations! The survey will be open from June 29-July 29, 2022. https://bit.ly/3udI3mB

8/2-8/4, Youth and families are invited to a virtual Youth GONA (Gathering of Native Americans) focused on learning self-reliance, self-empowerment, and healthy lifestyles. Learn more and register at bit.ly/YouthGONA. For questions, call 415-417-3507.

8/6, Save the date! Friendship House Association of American Indians is hosting the Boys with Braids gathering focused on empowering youth and men while providing education about the sacredness of our hair. The gathering will be at 56 Julian Ave, San Francisco, CA 94103. For questions, contact AuroraM@nativehealth.org or (415) 503-1046.

8/13, Join AICD, Calle24, and community for the Calle Limpia, Corazón Contento (Clean Street, Happy Heart) quarterly event, focused on 16th Street in the heart of the American Indian Cultural District! Follow @aicd.sf and @calle24sf on social media for more details coming soon.

AICD News Highlights

6/28, California lawmakers propose ‘Feather Alert’ for missing or endangered Native Americans via KRON4.com.

6/29, Supreme Court hands defeat to Native American Tribes in Oklahoma via npr.org.

The AICD Team