A black and white photograph of a landscape. In the foreground, there is a dense field of plants, possibly a tea plantation, with many small, rounded leaves. In the middle ground, there are rolling hills and a valley. In the background, a prominent mountain peak rises against a light sky. The overall scene is misty or hazy, giving it a serene and atmospheric feel.

Week 1: The Journey Continues

Unit Memory Verse:

"Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good. His faithful love endures forever."
Psalm 136:1

Today's Lesson:

The children reviewed some of the major events of Moses and the Israelites' journey in the desert, from crossing the Red Sea to the budding of Aaron's rod.

Today I learned:

It is important to know true stories about God and His people.

Conversation Starters:

1. What happened with Moses and his brother and sister?
2. How can I learn true stories about God?

Then Moses raised his hand and struck the rock twice with his staff, so that abundant water gushed out, and the community and their livestock drank.

Numbers 20:11

But the Lord said to Moses and Aaron, "Because you did not trust me to demonstrate my holiness in the sight of the Israelites, you will not bring this assembly into the land I have given them."

Numbers 20:12

Week 2: A Demonstration of Holiness

Unit Memory Verse:

"Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good. His faithful love endures forever."
Psalm 136:1

Today's Lesson:

When the Israelites complained about not having water, God told Moses to gather the people and speak to a rock. Instead, he disobeyed God and struck the rock. Because he disobeyed God, he would not get to go into the Promised Land.

Today I learned:

God wants me to obey Him.

Conversation Starters:

1. What did Moses do to the rock?
2. How can we obey God?

Then they set out from Mount Hor by way of the Red Sea to bypass the land of Edom, but the people became impatient because of the journey.

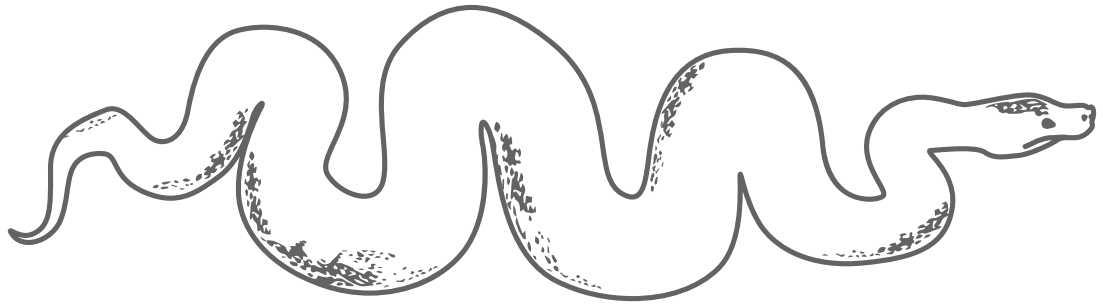

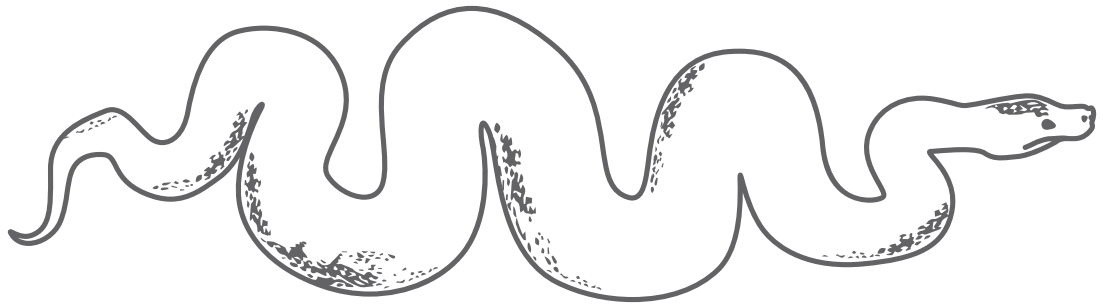

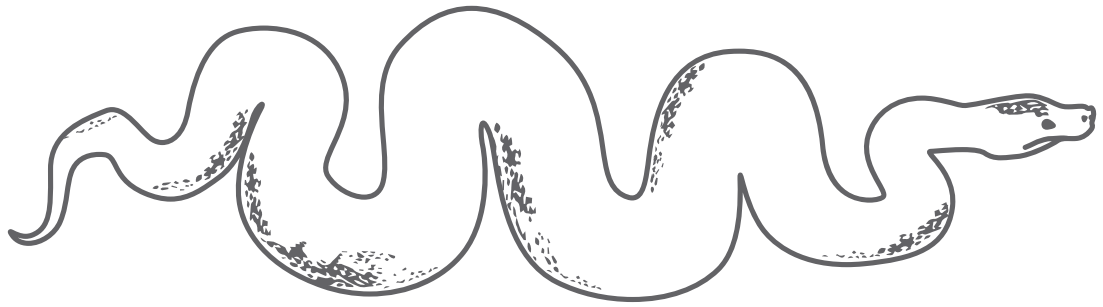

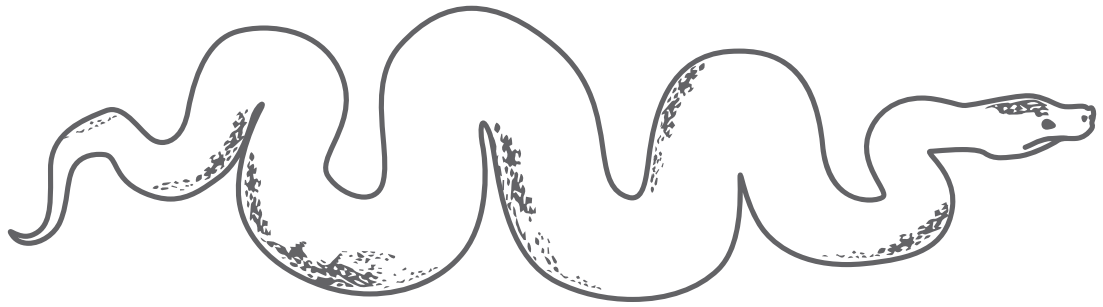

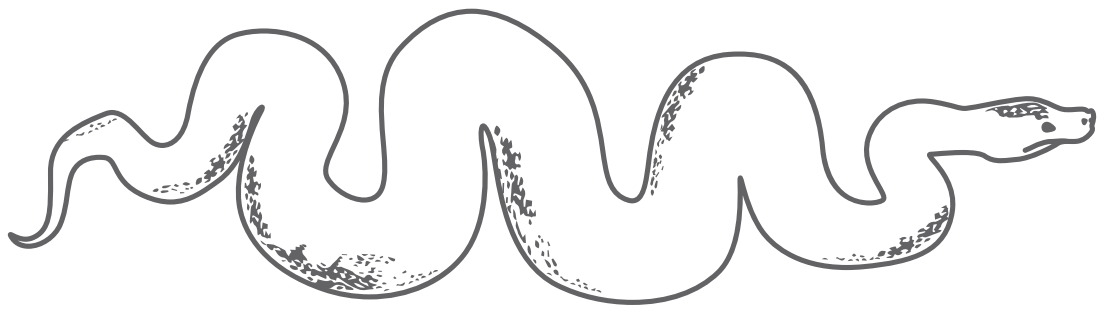

Numbers 21:4

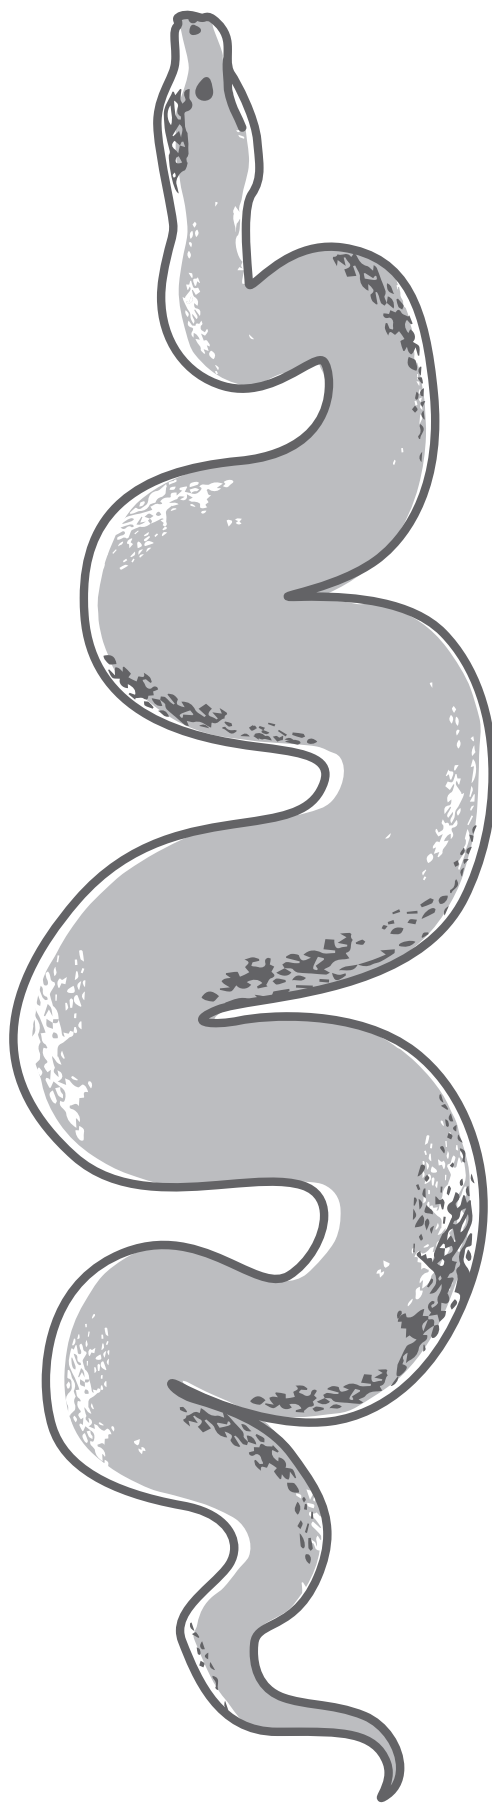

Then the Lord said to Moses, "Make a snake image and mount it on a pole. When anyone who is bitten looks at it, he will recover."

Numbers 21:8

Just as Moses lifted up the snake in the wilderness, so the Son of Man must be lifted up, so that everyone who believes in him may have eternal life.

Week 3: The Salvation of God

Unit Memory Verse:

"Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good. His faithful love endures forever."
Psalm 136:1

Today's Lesson:

The Israelites got impatient and grumbled. God sent snakes to bite them. God told Moses to make a bronze snake and hang it on a pole. When the Israelites looked on the bronze snake, they were saved. God sent Jesus to be our Savior.

Today I learned:

God wants me to be patient.

Conversation Starters:

1. Why did Moses hang a snake on a stick?
2. Who did God send to save us?

Then the Lord opened the donkey's mouth, and she asked Balaam, "What have I done to you that you have beaten me these three times?" Balaam answered the donkey, "You made me look like a fool. If I had a sword in my hand, I'd kill you now!"

Numbers 22:28-29

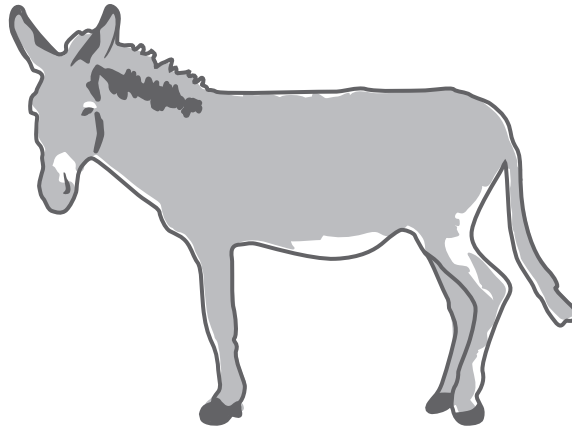

Then the Lord opened Balaam's eyes, and he saw the angel of the Lord standing in the path with a drawn sword in his hand. Balaam knelt low and bowed in worship on his face.

Week 4: The Sovereignty of God

Unit Memory Verse:

"Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good. His faithful love endures forever."
Psalm 136:1

Today's Lesson:

Balaam was asked to curse God's people. The donkey he was riding on saw the angel of God and would not go forward. This made Balaam mad and he hit his donkey. Then the donkey started to talk to him. Balaam realized God is sovereign and he would only say to the people what God told him to say.

Today I learned:

God speaks in different ways.

Conversation Starters:

1. What happened with Balaam and the talking donkey?
2. How does God speak to us today?

Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever.

Hebrew 13:8

Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good. His faithful love endures forever.

Psalm 136:1

If we confess our sins, he is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

Week 5: Blessings and Curses

Unit Memory Verse:

"Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good. His faithful love endures forever."
Psalm 136:1

Today's Lesson:

After Balaam's encounter with the Angel of the Lord, he continued on to speak to the Moabites. He was only able to bless the Israelites and tell true things about God. Several verses were read that tell us about God's character.

Today I learned:

We can learn true things about God in His Word.

Conversation Starters:

1. What happened when Balaam spoke to the people?
2. How can we share true stories about God?

When the community quarreled in the Wilderness of Zin, both of you rebelled against my command to demonstrate my holiness in their sight at the waters.

Numbers 27:14a

The Lord replied to Moses, "Take Joshua son of Nun, a man who has the Spirit in him, and lay your hands on him."

Week 6: An Inheritance from the Lord

Unit Memory Verse:

"Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good. His faithful love endures forever."
Psalm 136:1

Today's Lesson:

God is Holy and because He is Holy we should respect and obey Him. Because of Moses' disobedience at the rock, Joshua would be the one to lead the people into the Promised Land.

Today I learned:

It is important to obey God.

Conversation Starters:

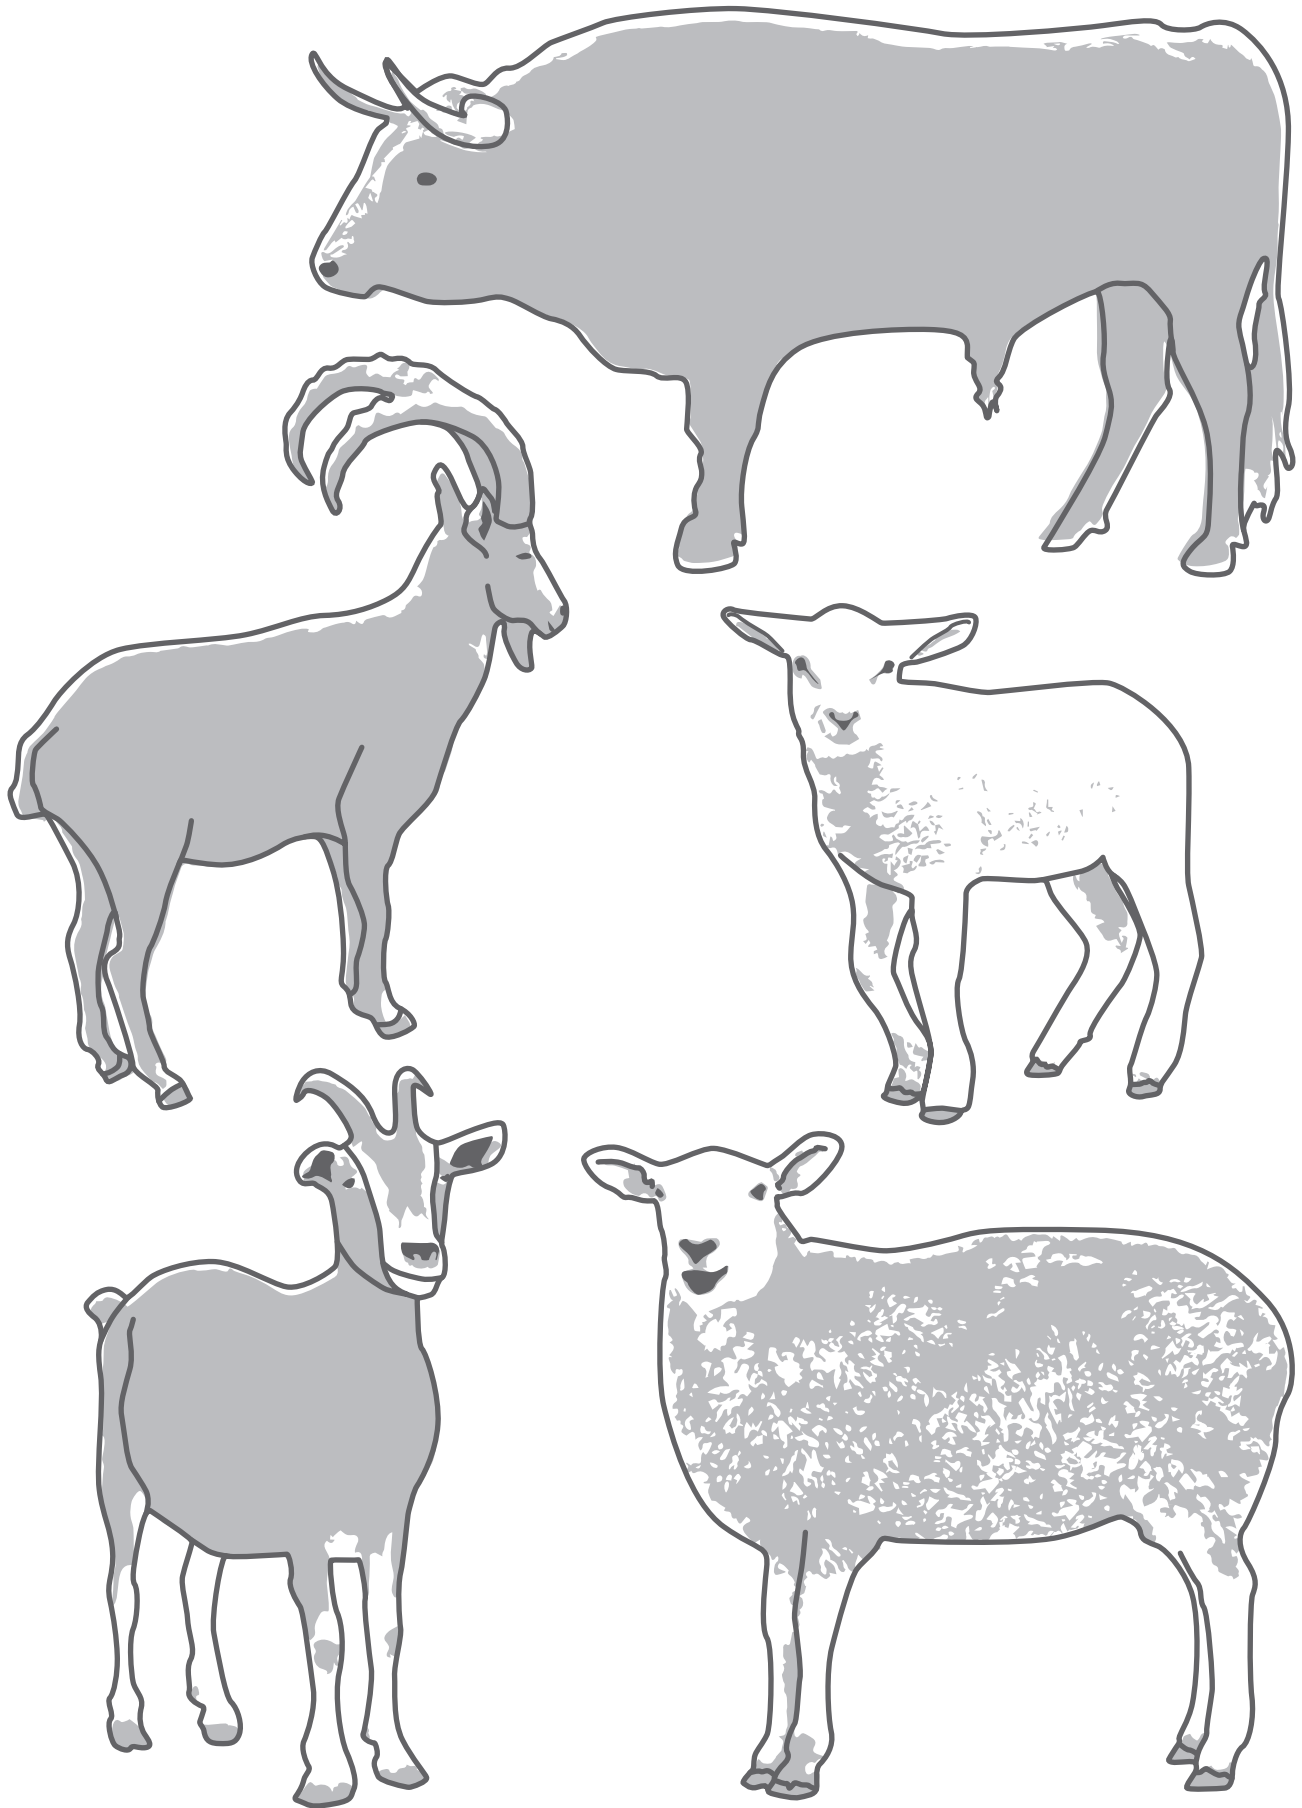

1. What happened between Moses and Joshua?
2. How can we obey God?

The Lord spoke to Moses, “Command the Israelites and say to them: Be sure to present to me at its appointed time my offering and my food as my food offering, a pleasing aroma to me.”

Numbers 28:1-2

And say to them: This is the food offering you are to present to the Lord: “Each day present two unblemished year-old male lambs as a regular burnt offering.”

Week 7: At the Appointed Times

Unit Memory Verse:

"Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good. His faithful love endures forever."
Psalm 136:1

Today's Lesson:

The Israelites were given specific days, times, ways, and things to sacrifice and give as offerings to God. Many animals were sacrificed. Just like God told the Israelites, giving Him offerings are a way we show God we love Him.

Today I learned:

I can give offerings to God, in ways that are different from the Israelites' offerings, to show Him I love Him.

Conversation Starters:

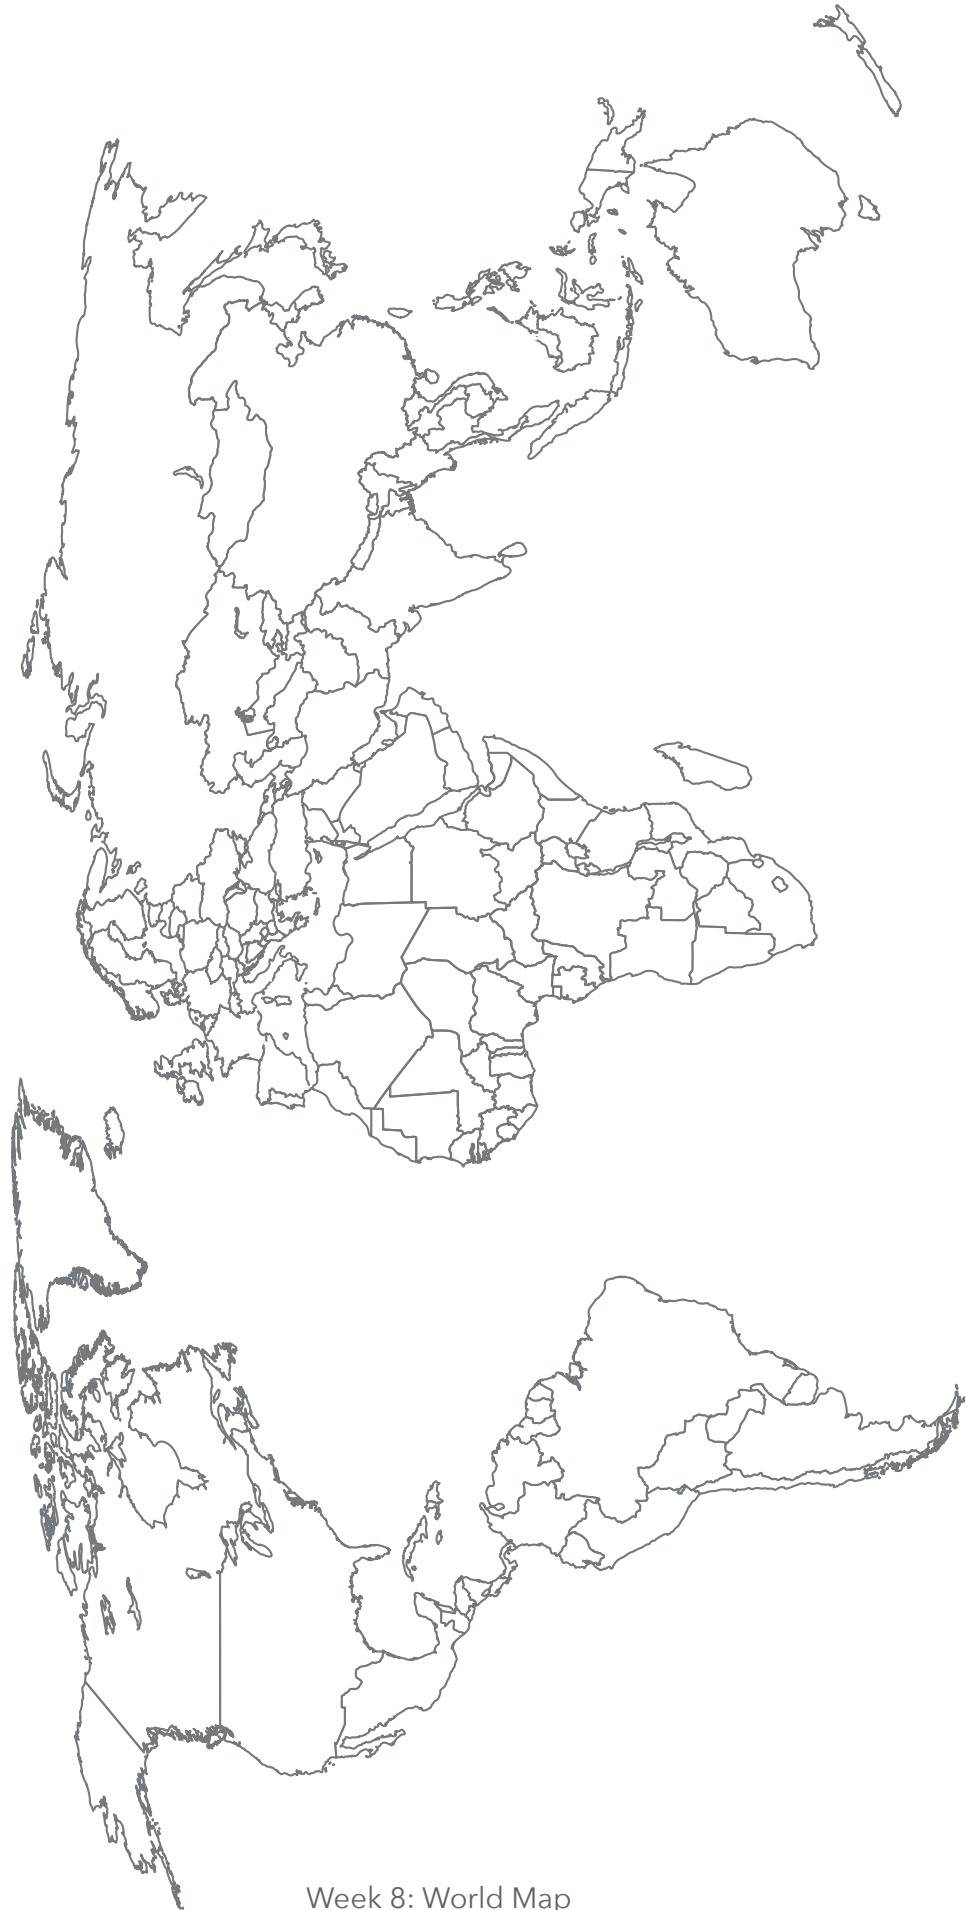

1. What did God tell the Israelites to give as offerings to Him?
2. What are some ways we can give offerings to God?

They said, "If we have found favor with you, let this land be given to your servants as a possession. Don't make us cross the Jordan."

Numbers 32:5

But we will arm ourselves and be ready to go ahead of the Israelites until we have brought them into their place.

Week 8: Lord Over All

Unit Memory Verse:

"Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good. His faithful love endures forever."
Psalm 136:1

Today's Lesson:

God sent the Israelites into battle against a group of people who didn't love Him. He told them exactly what to do with all the things they brought back. Two and a half tribes asked to stay outside the Promised Land. God is Lord over all and He has the best plan for our lives.

Today I learned:

I want God's best for my life because He is Lord over all.

Conversation Starters:

1. What did the two and a half tribes want to do?
2. How can we know what God wants us to do?

You are to take possession of the land and settle in it because I have given you the land to possess.

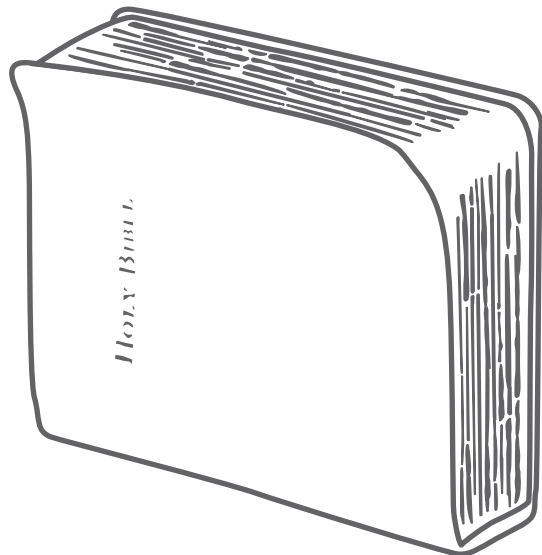

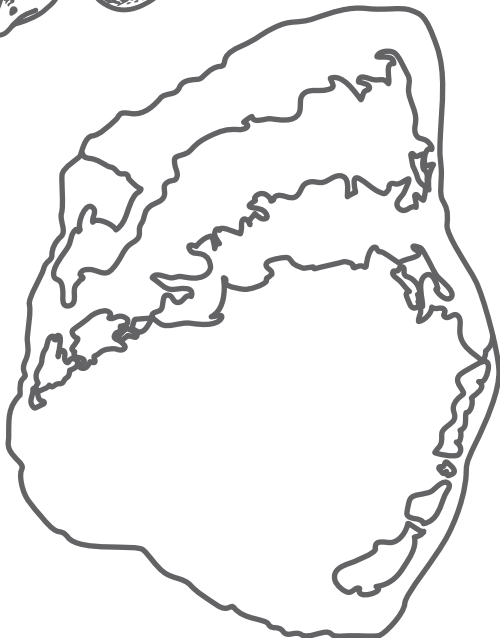

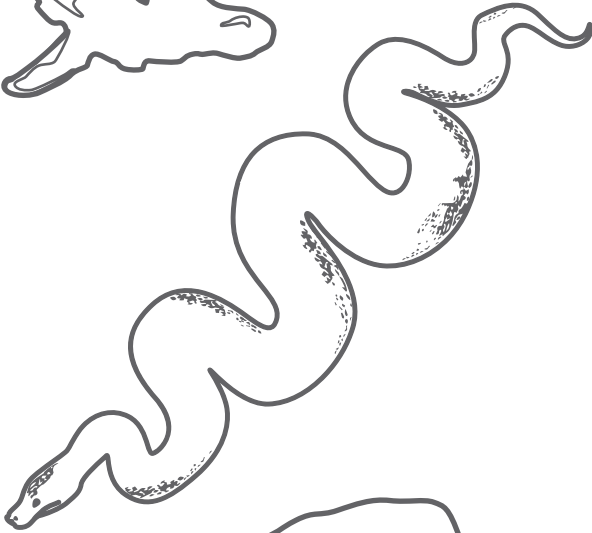

Numbers 33:53

These are the commands and ordinances the Lord commanded the Israelites through Moses in the plains of Moab by the Jordan across from Jericho.

Week 9: Looking Back and Moving Ahead

Unit Memory Verse:

"Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good. His faithful love endures forever."
Psalm 136:1

Today's Lesson:

We looked back at the stories previously taught: Moses and the rock, the snake on the pole, the talking donkey, God's character in the Bible, giving offerings, and that God is Lord over all. Before Moses died, God gave him all the instructions the Israelites would need to go into the Promised Land.

Today I learned:

I can look back in my life and see what God has done.

Conversation Starters:

1. Looking at your review sheet, which story was your favorite?
2. What is something we learned about God? He is ...
