B. REPORTS

CEO Report

i. CEO discussed Public Hearing Feedback and informed the Board about the Charter petition submission. The Official Voting Hearing will be held on January 13th, 2021 and will be available on the Fresno Unified School District Website, along with the Public Hearing.

ii. Community Outreach

   a. Toy Drive in collaboration with the Fresno Chaffee Zoo and Toys for Tots will be held December 23rd, 2020 starting at 12 PM. Families are to present flyers for free entrance into the park and to participate in the event. Each family is to receive 2 admission tickets to the zoo and a toy for their registered student.

   b. Pending Charter approval, CEO would like to hold regular public webinars to provide registered families and others the opportunity to learn more about Golden Charter Academy. In these webinars, present an informational slideshow and answer any questions they may have.

iii. Website update

   a. Total of 178 student registration forms submitted, post-inspection of existing applications and including new applicants.

   b. GCA Store is available to purchase official school uniforms.

C. FACILITIES REPORT (Dr. Ed Gonzalez)

Invite the architect to the next Board Meeting. It would be a good idea for the architect to explain to the Board certain delivery methods and to clarify the best way to propose new ideas.
The Board is encouraged to start thinking about ideas – specific questions about the facility and design should be presented to the architect.

D. TREASURER REPORT (Martha Arellano)

Numbers shown reflect projected revenue versus expenses for one year of Golden Charter Academy being open.
Fresno Unified School District will ask for a proposed/preliminary budget of the upcoming year around May or June. Once the Grant Program application is submitted and feedback is received from the state, that expense will then be incorporated into the budget.
