HYMNS FOR THE SMALL ENTRANCE

Apolytikion of The Feast: Mode 4th
You ascended in glory, O Christ our God, after You filled the Disciples with joy, by promising to send them the Holy Spirit, and You blessed them and established their faith, that You are the Son of God, the Redeemer of the world.

Entrance Hymn: Mode 2nd Come, let us worship and bow down before Christ. Save us, O Son of God, Who is risen from the dead. We sing to You, Alleluia.

Resurrectional Apolytikion: Mode pl. 2nd
When the angelic powers appeared at Your grave,* the soldiers guarding it feared and became as dead.* And standing by the sepulcher was Mary who was seeking Your immaculate body.* You devastated Hades, not afflicted by it.* You went to meet the Virgin, and granted eternal life. You resurrected from the dead. O Lord, glory to You.

Apolytikion of The Feast: Repeat

For the Fathers: Mode pl. 4th Supremely blessed are You, O Christ our God.* You established the holy Fathers upon the earth as beacons,* and through them You have guided us all to the true Faith,* O greatly merciful One, glory be to You.

Church Hymn: Mode pl. 4th Blessed are You, O Christ our God,* who made fishermen all wise,* by sending down upon them the Holy Spirit,* and through them,* drawing all the world into Your net.* O Lover of mankind, glory to You.

Kontakion of The Feast: Mode pl. 2nd
When You had fulfilled the dispensation for our sake, * and united things on earth with the things in heaven, * You were taken up thither in glory, O Christ our God, * going not away from any place, * but continuing inseparable,* and to them that love You crying out: * “I am with you, and there is, therefore, none against you.”

IN THOSE DAYS, Paul had decided to sail past Ephesos, so that he might not have to spend time in Asia; for he was hastening to be at Jerusalem, if possible, on the day of Pentecost. And from Miletos he sent to Ephesos and called to him the elders of the church. And when they came to him, he said to them: “Take heed to yourselves and to all the flock, in which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers, to care for the church of God which he obtained with the blood of his own Son. I know that after my departure fierce wolves will come in among you, not sparing the flock; and from among your own selves will arise men speaking perverse things, to draw away the disciples after them. Therefore be alert, remembering that for three years I did not cease night or day to admonish every one with tears. And now I commend you to God and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up and to give you the inheritance among all those who are sanctified. I coveted no one’s silver or gold or apparel. You yourselves know that these hands ministered to my necessities, and to those who were with me. In all things I have shown you that by so toiling one must help the weak, remembering the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, ‘it is more blessed to give than to receive.’ “ And when he had spoken thus, he knelt down and prayed with them all.
At that time, Jesus lifted up his eyes to heaven and said, “Father, the hour has come; glorify your Son that the Son may glorify you, since you have given him power over all flesh, to give eternal life to all whom you have given him. And this is eternal life, that they know you the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom you have sent. I glorified you on earth, having accomplished the work which you gave me to do; and now, Father, you glorify me in your own presence with the glory which I had with you before the world was made.

“I have manifested your name to the men whom you gave me out of the world; yours they were, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word. Now they know that everything that you have given me is from you; for I have given them the words which you gave me, and they have received them and know in truth that I came from you; and they have believed that you did send me. I am praying for them; I am not praying for the world but for those whom you have given me, for they are mine, all mine are yours, and yours are mine, and I am glorified in them. And now I am no more in the world, but they are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, keep them in your name, which you have given me, that they may be one, even as we are one. While I was with them, I kept them in your name, which you have given me; I have guarded them, and none of them is lost but the son of perdition, that the scripture might be fulfilled. But now I am coming to you; and these things I speak in the world, that they may have my joy fulfilled in themselves.”

To Our Visitors and Guests

We welcome you to worship with us this morning! Thank you for joining us!

Unfortunately, one of the sad consequences of the divisions among Christians is that we cannot offer the Eucharist (Holy Communion) to anyone except Orthodox Christians in good moral standing with beliefs and practices of the Orthodox Church. Orthodox Christians believe that the Eucharist is a final sign of unity among all Christians and not a means by which unity is achieved. We invite you to share in the Antidoron (Blessed Bread) that is distributed at the conclusion of the Divine Liturgy.
