David Valles (January 1, 1957 – July 7, 2020)
David was born in 1957 in Durango, México. Don David passed away on July 7, 2020. He worked at Chihén Itzá Restaurant at Mercado La Paloma for 14 years, and his former manager, Fabiola remembers him as the sweetest, most energetic, and responsible man she has ever met. Their nickname for Don David was, “El Viejito”, the old man. He enjoyed listening to music, dancing, and would love to make his coworkers laugh. The mercado public remembers Don David mostly as the excellent cook and server of the exquisite tacos and tortas de lechoncito asado at Chichén Itza’s food cart every Sunday.
