Our mission is to protect, advance, and restore the rights of women & girls using legal arguments, policy advocacy, and public education
Hi! My name is Mahri, and I’m WoLF’s Executive Director. Years ago, I became a WoLF member, and in 2021, I joined WoLF in my leadership position. I’ve always loved WoLF because this organization brings light to our dark world. No matter how dire the circumstances may seem, WoLF’s relentless courage and optimism has been a guiding light for women resisting patriarchy in all its insidious forms.

WoLF focuses on legal change – we introduce radical feminist values into the records of state and federal government. Our volunteers, staff, and board do amazing work – but we need your help to keep WoLF moving forward! Hosting a “Party with a Purpose” will help us keep fighting for women’s rights in many different ways. By hosting this type of an event, you can accomplish so many things: educate people in your community about the urgent issues affecting women and girls; mobilize your community members to contact their elected officials; and raise money to support WoLF.

Your event can be a fundraising effort—but it’s more than that. It’s an opportunity to raise consciousness about how women’s rights are being eroded and a chance to empower people to take action! Parties are an easy and fun way to create and strengthen connections in your community as we all work to protect, advance, and restore women’s rights.

Thank you for joining with women across our country – we’re all in this together!

What is a Party with a Purpose?

A ‘Party with a Purpose’ is exactly what it sounds like: a chance for you to host a party, have fun with family, friends, and community members, and support a good cause by raising money for WoLF.

Parties can be as traditional or outrageous as you like! Consider hosting in your home or choosing a special venue for the event.

Every dollar you raise will make a tremendous impact on our ability to mobilize and take action to protect, advance, and restore the rights of women and girls.

For example, your donations can support the time and energy that staff members invest in our CDCR lawsuit, writing amicus briefs, preparing testimony, talking with lawmakers, producing public education events, and doing the administrative work that keeps WoLF legally viable as a nonprofit agency.

Don’t forget to set a goal — we find that our most successful hosts have a fundraising goal in mind.
YOU’RE NOT ALONE

WoLF is here to help!

Our team is dedicated to making your party a great success. Use these best practices to help guide your party planning, and feel free to reach out with any questions or creative ideas. We’re in this together!

WE CAN SUPPORT YOU BY:

➔ Designing templates for print and digital invitations
➔ Tracking and collecting your donations online
➔ Helping you set an agenda or brainstorm ideas for activities
➔ Sending a (virtual) representative to speak to your group
➔ Providing promotional giveaways, informational materials, and videos

You could do an outdoor event at a park, or an indoor event at a church, community center, or anywhere else that feels right to you.

If you prefer a virtual event: Consider mailing out treats ahead of time, providing instructions on how to join, or watching a feminist movie together!
Here are some tips and party planning tricks that work well — and don’t be afraid to get creative:

참고: 풍성한 테마를 정해보세요.

Birthday. Why not make your next birthday celebration a benefit for WoLF? In lieu of gifts, ask your guests to make a donation in your honor!

Affinity Groups. Are you a member of a book club? Knitting group? Local church group? Do you host a rotating dinner party? Use an existing event as an opportunity to engage your friends with an issue that matters to you! Incorporate WoLF into your next meeting to increase awareness and raise funds.

Mother-Daughter Events. Partner with your mom, or your daughter, to share why WoLF’s work matters to you. Every woman and girl has a stake in this fight for sex-based rights — safety, privacy, and boundaries!

Pick an Action. After making a donation, you can encourage your guests to take action and fight back! Help guests apply to volunteer or workshop testimony on an upcoming issue or piece of legislation. Make rally signs together. We can even help you train your guests on how to give public testimony!
INVITING YOUR GUESTS

Parties with 10 to 30 guests tend to be the most successful, but do what works for you. Decide how many guests you can host – and then invite a few extra in case of cancellations.

What’s the best way to get the word out? Printed invitations work well for more formal events – or to provide an extra-personal touch – but emails and virtual invitations are just as thoughtful and give your guests a chance to RSVP immediately.

If you’re comfortable, use your social media channels to spread the word, and tag WoLF on socials!

You can find WoLF on Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, and YouTube!

Set an RSVP deadline so your guests know when to respond. This will help you plan food and activities in advance.

You can expand your network by appointing a co-host. Ask a friend or two to help coordinate the party and invite their friends, too!
FOOD AND DRINK

Consider a signature cocktail or mocktail for your party! Plus, we included two WoLF Fest dessert recipes at the end of this guide!

You can center your party around the food: how about inviting your guests to a cooking class? Or open up your kitchen for a chili cook-off or brownie bake-off?

ASKING MADE EASY

Asking for donations might seem daunting, but it’s easier than you think. Your guests care about you, so they probably care about causes important to you - now, you’re giving them the opportunity to give back in a meaningful way.

What’s the number one reason someone hasn’t donated? They’ve never been asked! Here are a few helpful tips:

Share your goal. When inviting your guests, let them know that you’re hosting a party to raise money to support the Women’s Liberation Front. That way, they know what to expect! (If asked, you can let people know whether they can donate by cash, check, or credit card at the event). If you share your goal in advance, everyone becomes part of the success!
Make it specific. The ask is easier if you have a clear target in mind. Some ideas including asking everyone to donate their age, or to commemorate a specific year or date.

Make the donation accessible. One might spend more than $100 on a night out, for example. Why not put that money to good use at WoLF, fighting for sex-based rights in the courts?

Share your story. A personal story goes a long way in inspiring your guests and encouraging donations. Why did you decide to host this party? What does WoLF mean to you?

Make your donation public. Tell your guests that you’re planning to donate because you are so passionate about this cause. Ask them to join you - or maybe even match your gift!

Think creatively. You and your guests can donate in honor of someone who inspires you, or in memory of a loved one. We can even help send out notes to let your honoree know a gift was made in their name!

Thank your guests. Thank everyone for their support and remind your guests that any dollar amount makes a big difference. If you shared your goal, make a gentle reminder: “I know with your generosity we can raise $XX tonight!”

We’re here to help.

If you need talking points on what to say or how to make the ask, please let us know! No one expects you to be an expert - tell your guests why the Women’s Liberation Front matters to you, and why it should matter to them, too!
A HANDY GUIDE FOR PARTY PLANNING

Need a to-do list or want a guide to help plan your party? We’ve got you covered.

5–4 WEEKS OUT

- Confirm date, time, and location
- Create a guest list and set an RSVP goal
- Send out invitations or e-invites with a deadline (don’t forget directions and parking information!)
- Start planning your menu
- Confirm you have the WoLF materials you’ll need: donation forms, envelopes, promotional and informational materials
- Reach out and ask for a WoLF representative to (virtually) attend or present, if appropriate

3–2 WEEKS OUT

- Review RSVPs and reach out to anyone who hasn’t responded. Finalize your guest list.
- Finalize the menu and create a shopping list
- Plan the agenda for the evening: when do you start serving food? When do activities begin? When will you make your ask?
- Think through logistics: will everyone know each other, or do you need nametags? What will you do with coats and umbrellas if the weather is bad?
- Assign co-hosts any specific duties: maybe they love to do something you don’t love doing!
ONE WEEK OUT

- Check-in with your co-hosts and make sure all logistics are covered
- Confirm everything with the venue if you’re hosting outside of a home. Make sure you have the proper seating, equipment, tables, etc.
- Plan for decorations, as appropriate

ON THE DAY OF YOUR EVENT

- Greet guests, ask them to sign-in, and give them time to mingle
- Encourage and welcome guests’ questions and distribute Women’s Liberation Front materials
- Take pictures! (Confirm that everyone is comfortable with photos)
- Now’s the moment: Don’t forget to make the ask!
- Thank everyone for attending and let them know how they can get involved with WoLF

AFTER YOUR EVENT

- Send thank you notes or emails to guests (if appropriate, consider asking them to host a party!)
- Send your pictures to WoLF at events@womensliberationfront.org
- Enclose sign-in sheets and donations, then mail them to:

THANK YOU!

We are so grateful for your commitment to the Women’s Liberation Front and the front line of feminism.

Your support advances our vision – the total liberation of women and girls from all forms of sex-based oppressions including gender ideology, male violence, commercial sexual exploitation, and reproductive coercion.

Let us know how we can help make your event a huge success – and thank you for introducing us to new women’s rights supporters to defend sex-based rights!

ABOUT US

Women’s Liberation Front, WoLF, is a nonpartisan 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization (EIN: 81-3249020) dedicated to protect, advance, and restore the rights of women and girls. In this charitable role, WoLF aims to:

Abolish Gender Ideology
- We educate the public and political leaders about the harms of gender ideology and its centrality to male domination.
- We oppose enshrining into law the concepts of “gender identity” and “transgender.”
- We facilitate a cultural shift away from sex stereotypes (aka gender roles) and gender ideology.
- We defend sex segregation of spaces such as domestic violence shelters, rape crisis centers, prisons, bathrooms, and sports.
- We support the needs of lesbian and bisexual women.

Abolish Male Violence
- We combat the epidemic of male violence; We organize visible resistance to rape and pedophile culture.
- We support policies for legal justice for female survivors of sexual violence, intimate partner violence, and stalking perpetrated by males.
- We fight against the normalization of violent or degrading sexual practices, the eroticization of women’s pain, coercive relationships, and toxic relationships.
- We support legislation that takes a broad view of self-defense, to include the impact of physical, sexual, and/or psychological abuse of women and girls who harm and/or kill their abusers, traffickers, etc.

Abolish Commercial Sexual Exploitation
- We promote civil remedies for the harms caused by the pornography industry.
- We believe that commercial sexual exploitation, including prostitution, pornography, stripping, and "camming" are forms of sexual violence. We work to abolish all forms of commercial sexual exploitation.
- We provide education and support for the Equality Model of legislation.
- We seek to end commercial sexual exploitation.

Achieve Women’s Reproductive Autonomy
- We defend women’s bodily sovereignty.
- We unapologetically support women’s reproductive freedom.
- We fight against surrogacy and the commodification of women’s reproductive systems.
- We speak out against women’s mistreatment and lack of adequate treatment in healthcare systems.
