Church Hill Activities & Tutoring (CHAT) is committed to protecting and respecting the privacy of its donors of any amount or kind. Any personal information you provide is voluntary. When you donate to CHAT or sign up for our newsletter, we collect personal information, including your name, mailing address, email address, and/or phone number. If you choose to provide this information, you may receive physical mail or electronic communication from CHAT. All donor information is used for the purpose of development and stewardship efforts at CHAT. Furthermore, we will not send mailings of any kind to donors on behalf of other organizations.

Donor records and other information about our donors are considered confidential to CHAT and will never be traded or sold. There may be reason for information to be shared internally between CHAT employees or third-party vendors. This information is only shared on a need-to-know basis. Additionally, access to the donor database is strictly limited to approved staff. The ability to change or add data to this database is limited to members of the Development team.

We secure our websites and any information we collect with physical, electronic, and managerial procedures that safeguard against unauthorized access and ensure the correct use of personal information. Our donor databases encrypt all data that are transferred and stored in their systems on our behalf.

For questions or to request to be removed from our mailing list, please email us at info@chatrichmond.org.
