Thank you for helping to promote our upcoming winter PSAP events to post-secondary students.

PSAP is designed to help students meet employers and professionals, give them the skills that are in-demand, and provide industry insights and practice. As the work environment evolves, soft skills are crucial to be successful in the world of business and our aim is to give student a place to develop and use these skills.

Here are our events for the winter semester for you to share with your students:
