Geography 2050 is a multi-year strategic dialog about the vital trends that will reshape the geography of our planet over the coming decades. First launched in 2014, the American Geographical Society will convene this ninth installment of the Geography 2050 Symposium, bringing together thought leaders from government, business, academia, not-for-profit, and educators from across our nation who understand geography as a geospatial science and the impact on our future economy, environment, and geopolitical state of affairs.

Contribution to underwrite the Thursday Afternoon Break/Caucus is $5,000

Underwriter will receive:

- 2 complimentary Symposium registrations
- 1 invitation to Chairman’s Dinner (Thursday, 17 November 2022)
