GEOGRAPHY 2050: THE CHANGING MAP OF RISK, HAZARDS, & FINANCE

Sponsorship Opportunities

in partnership with

COLUMBIA CLIMATE SCHOOL

Geography 2050 is a multi-year strategic dialog about the vital trends that will reshape the geography of our planet over the coming decades. First launched in 2014, the American Geographical Society will convene this tenth installment of the Geography 2050 Symposium, bringing together thought leaders from government, business, academia, not-for-profit, and educators from across our nation who understand geography as a geospatial science and the impact on our future economy, environment, and geopolitical state of affairs.

Contribution to underwrite the Friday Lunch is $10,000

Underwriter will receive:

- 3 complimentary Symposium registrations
- 2 invitations to the Chairman’s Dinner (Thursday, 16 November 2023)
- primary recognition in all marketing materials (digital announcements, directional posters, printed materials)
- specific recognition in Conclusion Remarks
- logo placement and link to corporate homepage on Geography 2050 website
- logo placement and link to corporate homepage on AGS main website
- logo and name placement on program
- logo and/or slides/video for main screen during Lunch
