GEOGRAPHY 2050: THE CHANGING MAP OF RISK, HAZARDS, & FINANCE

Sponsorship Opportunities

To underwrite the Friday Breakfast for the American Geographical Society's 2023 Fall Symposium

Geography 2050 is a multi-year strategic dialog about the vital trends that will reshape the geography of our planet over the coming decades. First launched in 2014, the American Geographical Society will convene this tenth installment of the Geography 2050 Symposium, bringing together thought leaders from government, business, academia, not-for-profit, and educators from across our nation who understand geography as a geospatial science and the impact on our future economy, environment, and geopolitical state of affairs.

Contribution to underwrite the Friday Breakfast is $5,000

Underwriter will receive:

- 2 complimentary Symposium registrations
- 1 invitation to Chairman’s Dinner (Thursday, 16 November 2023)
- primary recognition in all marketing materials (digital announcements, directional posters, printed materials)
- specific recognition in Conclusion Remarks
- logo placement and link to corporate homepage on Geography 2050 website
- logo placement and link to corporate homepage on AGS main website
- logo and name placement on program
- logo and/or slides/video for main screen during Breakfast

For more information, contact:

Dr. John Konarski III  Dr. Christopher Tucker  Dr. Marie Price
Chief Executive Officer  Chairman    President
American Geographical Society  American Geographical Society  American Geographical Society jkonarski@americangeo.org  tucker@americangeo.org  mprice@gwu.edu

geography2050.org
americangeo.org