The Risen Lord appears and stands in the midst of his disciples saying, "Peace be with you." These words of greeting are far more than a familiar Jewish greeting, because the peace that he gives now is the fruit of the salvation that he has won on the Cross for us! Moreover, this greeting of peace entails a mission: "Peace be with you! As the Father has sent me, I also send you." But they cannot begin this mission of healing and peace without the help of the Spirit. So, Jesus breathes on his disciples saying "Receive the Holy Spirit." As God had breathed His life into that first man and he became a living soul, so now His Son shares the intimacy of his own life with his disciples that they may be a new humanity, recreated and empowered for their mission. Thus, Jesus establishes them as the new messianic community in anticipation of the outpouring of the Holy Spirit subsequent to his ascension." Today is Pentecost Sunday. Do we experience the outpouring of the Holy Spirit in our life? What are the manifestations of the Spirit in our Life?

"The Church is a hospital, and not a courtroom, for souls. She does not condemn on behalf of sins, but grants remission of sins." ~St. John Chrysostom

The month of June is traditionally dedicated to the Sacred Heart. Devotion to the Sacred Heart has been present since the time of the early Church. The Church Fathers considered Jesus' Heart to be the source of the sacraments of Baptism, symbolized by the blood and water that flowed from Jesus' side at the Crucifixion. The devotion continued into the Middle Ages when Pope Innocent VI instituted a Mass for the Sacred Heart.

Sacred Heart of Jesus, have mercy on us.

The weekend of June 3/4, I will be at the Church of St. Raphael in Springfield and the Church of St. Joseph in Lambertton for mission appeal through the Mission Co-op. Father Garrett Ahlers will celebrate Mass with you in my absence.

Please earnestly pray for more vocations to the priesthood!

I encourage you to listen to Liturgy Matters and learn more about the mysteries of the sacred liturgy. Visit the Diocese of New Ulm website, www.dnu.org/liturgy-matters where the series is available in both audio and text.

Fr. Bruno OSB

MASS INTENTIONS can be offered for a variety of reasons: thanksgiving, birthday or anniversaries of the living and most commonly for the repose of the soul of a deceased loved one. If you have been thinking you would like to have a Mass intention offered, you can put the request in the collection basket with the name of the person/persons to be prayed for and make a note of whether the person is deceased or living. If you have a specific date in mind, please make note of that as well. Include your financial gift (typically $10 per Mass) or call the All Saints AFC office or email the office and get the intention scheduled and send in your donation. Thank you!

KNOW A SAINT - June 3 – St. Clotilda was born the daughter of the King of Burgundy. As a young girl she married King Clovis of the Franks. She converted her husband to Christianity after their marriage but following Clovis death her life was marked by sorrow as her three sons fought with each other for their inheritance. Overcome with grief by their greed, she left Paris for Tours where she remained the rest of her life devoting herself to the service of the sick and poor. We see in St. Clotilda a woman of virtue and piety who was ever faithful to God in prayer and good works.

Liturgy Matters #30

After the priest has genuflected in adoration before the blood of Christ present in the consecrated cup, he sings or says solemnly the words, "The Mystery of Faith!" This is not so much a rubrical instruction like, "Stand up now" or "Start singing." It is an exclamation of awe and wonder and is the supreme moment in the liturgy for using this word Mystery. Something is hidden in the bread and wine. Faith perceives it. As if in answer to the priest's exclamation, the voice of the assembly rings out declaring what is perceived: "Save us, Savior of the world, for by your Cross and Resurrection you have set us free."

There are other possible responses with which the assembly may answer the priest's exclamation. In all of them we are announcing what is hidden in the bread and wine. We should be aware that each of the possible formulas is a condensed expression of the center of our salvation and mentions the past event of Jesus' death, the present reality of his Resurrection, and his future coming in glory. All of that—past, present, and future—is hidden in what lies on the altar, and faith perceives it and proclaims it.

What the people express in the condensed formula of the Mystery of Faith anticipates what the priest says and does next. The last words of Jesus, which he pronounced over the cup of wine were, "Do this in memory of me." The Greek word in this text is anamnesis, and, similar to the word epiclesis, it has long been used as a technical liturgical term designating a particular part of the Eucharistic prayer. The anamnesis is this part that we are beginning now, and the word literally means "a memorial." Insofar as the whole Eucharistic prayer has a narrative strand that runs through it, it is all memorial or anamnesis. In a stricter sense, the anamnesis is this prayer that follows the proclamation of the Mystery of Faith.
