THE DANCE:

Once again the Bumgardner Partnership will open its doors to the Eastlake Community Council and Friends for a celebration in dance of Saint Valentine.

Turn on to Verno'n's Disco Delights with Mark's Musical Magic. Get on down to Bumgardner's at 2021 Minor - the whole neighborhood will be waiting for your act.

Drinks will be served and the donation at the door will be a mere $1.50.

BAKE SALE AT VALENTINES DANCE

Gayle will have a sale of your beautiful bakery goods. You may call one of the people on the front if further information is needed; or just bring what you have prepared and await the sighs of appreciation.

THE DRAFT:

Besides culminating the Eastlake Community Council's 1975 Membership Drive, the Valentine's Dance may be an excuse to celebrate the completion of the draft Seattle City Charter, a copy of which will be shown at the dance. Personalized copies may be obtained at room 611, Alaska building (583-6330).

THE STREET:

Some idea of how Fairview will look in the future will be unveiled at the Valentine's Dance, February 15th. There will be trees, parks, or room for people. Seeing is believing.

THE SCHOOL:

The PTS and the student planners have come up with some fine ideas on the playground improvements at Seward. Their work will be on display downstairs at Bumgardner's during the dance.

THE NEIGHBORHOOD:

Getting a better idea of who is where and why he/she is there may be visualized in Bumgardner's basement on the evening of February 15th, coincidentally, the night of the Eastlake Community Valentine's Dance. See your apartment through a zoning overlay!

THE LAKE:

Lanky but lovely Mr. Miller has passed his rubber tipped pointer to Paul Kraabel who will now be the head of the Planning & Urban Development Committee. Mr. Miller knew how Eastlake felt about the shoreline. Please note the Shorelines Master Program hearing dates and let our appointed representative know where you stand.

GENERAL MEETING:

The February meeting of the Eastlake Community Council will be held Tuesday, February 18th in the Reading Development Center of the Seward School. The meeting will begin at 7:30 p.m. Additions to the agenda should be forwarded to Mark Rasmussen not later than the Annual Valentine's Dance and Bake Sale, Saturday, February 15th, from 8:30 p.m. at Bumgardner Partnership, 2021 Minor East.

"Towards a Sense of Community" is a major objective of the Eastlake Community Council. With Lake Union at our feet and the freeway at our backs, the Eastlake area is conveniently located between downtown and the University District. It's a nice place to live. The Eastlake Community Council works against those things which tend to break down our community and for those which lend to its development. This questionnaire was prepared to get a better idea of our direction for this year. The questions that follow are general. Please feel free to add your comments.

1. Do you feel a survey such as this is an invasion of privacy? Yes, no

2. Should the community have a meeting hall, as at Seward School?

3. Should programs for the elderly be developed in this community?

4. Does the community have satisfactory police protection?

5. Is animal control a problem here?

6. Is the street lighting satisfactory?
