

Bellis

A sisterhood for mothers who are no longer parenting.

Bellis hosts weekly conversations exclusively for women who have experienced permanent termination of parental rights.

DETAILS

- Free, safe & confidential.
- What to expect? Friendship & acceptance.
- Why? Women with shared experiences support each other in managing grief & learning how to walk through life as mothers whose children are parented by others.
- No shame. No judgment.
- Transportation can usually be provided.

Every Tuesday

10 a.m., In Person

3249 Hennepin Ave. S.,
Suite 103, Minneapolis
{Metro Transit stop directly outside building}

7 p.m., Virtually via Zoom. Link at mybellis.org/find-support

Need more info?

952.944.0866

info@mybellis.org

Bellis is a neutral resource that builds community among those affected by adoption & foster care. It works independently from agencies and organizations involved with CPS, TPR or child-placement.

Free to attend. Learn more at mybellis.org/find-support