Crafting Connections

A creative writing workshop

Oide Creativity, in collaboration with poet and writer Colm Keegan, presents a one-day workshop, open to all teachers. This workshop will take place in the Museum of Literature Ireland (MoLI).

This workshop offers participants an opportunity to:

- explore the Museum of Literature Ireland (MoLI) and use it as a stimulus and source of inspiration
- engage in an active listening process as a means to discussing the relationship between teachers and students in the classroom
- consider the written word and Joyce's use of language
- discuss how words are mediated through multi-modal texts in the world today
- enjoy time and space to develop their own writing.
