6. Native 8(a) Program
The 8(a) Program is a business development program—its Purpose is to assist eligible disadvantaged small businesses compete in the American economy through business development.

Available to small businesses owned by socially and economically disadvantaged individuals as well as Tribes, Alaska Native Corporations (ANCs) and Native Hawaiian Organizations (NHOs)
Federal acquisition (purchasing) policies encourage federal agencies to award a certain percentage of their contracts to small business including 8(a) firms. The Federal Government's goal is to award at least 5% of Prime Contracts to small disadvantaged business which include 8(a) program participants. The government issues billions of dollars of awards annually to 8(a) participants through sole-source awards and set asides.

Update: December 2021, President Biden asked agencies to increase their goals so that governmentwide spending results in 11 percent of contracting dollars being awarded to small disadvantaged businesses, up from the current statutory goal of 5 percent.
ELIGIBILITY

In general, a business must be small under its primary NAICS code, and be unconditionally owned and controlled by one or more socially and economically disadvantaged individuals who are of good character.

There are separate requirements for businesses owned by Indian Tribes, Alaska Native Corporations (ANCs), Native Hawaiian Organizations (NHOs), and Community Development Corporations (CDCs).

8(a) Program participation is a one-time program. If your business has previously participated in the 8(a) Program, or if you’re a disadvantaged individual that has already participated, the SBA will not allow you to participate again—although Tribes, ANCs, NHOs and CDCs have some different rules.
PROGRAM TERM

A business concern may participate in the SBA 8(a) Program for no more than 9 years. But this term can be shortened by the participant or the SBA—if, for example, the concern is successful enough to graduate from the Program (sized out) or fails to maintain its eligibility. SBA can initiate this or the concern can (a strategic consideration). The term cannot be lengthened.

APPLICATION

Applications must be submitted electronically to the SBA at certify.sba.gov and must include any supporting information requested by the SBA (like corporate organization documents and personal and business tax returns).
