

The November 2022 update of Olsberg•SPI's Global Incentives Index is now available!

The Global Incentives Index is our detailed overview of all automatic national, state, and province-level production incentives globally. It is updated twice a year, and published in Screen International and KFTV's World of Locations magazine.

CLICK HERE TO DOWNLOAD

Map of Global Automatic Incentives, November 2022

New: 25% cash rebate in Sweden

New: 40% cash rebate in Saudi Arabia

New: 40% cash rebate in Mongolia

Increased: 35% incentive now available for high-impact productions in Iceland

Source: Olsberg•SPI. Not all changes are marked on the map above, only selected highlights.

Spotlight on Regions and Cities

Highlighting the recent increase in regional and city-based incentives:

AIUla and NEOM in Saudi Arabia have both launched incentives. NEOM will offer a standalone 40%+ film incentive, while AIUla will offer incentives worth up to 7% of spend on top of the national 40% Saudi incentive.

In Latin America, incentives have been launched in three municipalities: Rio de Janeiro and São Paulo in Brazil, and Buenos Aires in Argentina.

Automatic Incentives Count, 2017-2022

Source: Olsberg•SPI

For more information, contact our incentives experts

Leon Forde
Managing Director
leon@o-spi.com

Joe Stirling Lee
Senior Research Analyst
joe@o-spi.com