

EFFA presents:

SOVEREIGN CINEMA.

Saturday 10 December 2022

ACMI, Fed Square, Naarm (Melbourne)

15:00

SOVEREIGN SHORTS #1

A powerful collection reflecting on myth, storytelling, and the interconnection between ancestral knowledge and the present day. Featuring: Háldi (Sámpí, Norway), Kii Nche Ndutsa (Mexico), Pili Ka Mo'o (United States), The Fourfold (Canada), Premonition On the Eve of Signing Treaty 6 (Canada), Warburdar Bununu: Water Shield (Australia) and Veins of the Country (Gooniyandi, and Bunuba, Walmajarri, Nyikina, Warrwa).

17:10

SOVEREIGN SHORTS #2

A striking package centring on cultural connection and Indigenous identity, interrogating impacts of modernity and progress through snapshots of real lived experience. Featuring: L'Innu du futur (Canada), TAIAO (Aotearoa), In the Shadow of the Tugtupite (Greenland), Wind Song and Rain (Aotearoa), EALÁT (Sámpí, Norway) and Swimming Yesterday (Australia).

19:20

DƏNE YI'INJETL | THE SCATTERING OF MAN

This breathtaking directorial debut by Tsay Keh Dene First Nation member Luke Gleeson tells the story of Gleeson's community and their role as unwilling participants in a wave of developments that led to the creation of the largest hydroelectric project in the history of British Columbia.

You're invited to a one-day cinema event celebrating Indigenous perspectives on climate, ecology, culture and custodianship.

Location

ACMI, Fed Square, Naarm (Melbourne)

Tickets

Single: $18 | $14 con | $12 ACMI Members

Day pass: $39 | $30 con | $27 ACMI Members

5% of all ticket income goes to Pay The Rent

Team

Environmental Film Festival Australia

is 100% volunteer run. Thanks to: Sonja Hammer, Charlie Macfarlane, Freyja Gillard, Bruno Catalan, Chi Ngo, Darren Saffin, Dominique Marconi, Ellie Gemmell, Jennifer McAuliffe, Katherine Lee, Sophie Clarke and Tyson Wils.

effa.org.au

Scan to purchase tickets

