Updated: 8/12/24

Provider Name	Avondale Samaritan Place
Provider Description	The work of ASP focuses particularly on helping people who are on the margins. ASP offers ... food assistance to food-insecure individuals and families in the area ... social workers who help with healthcare support and utility assistance ... home repair and yard maintenance for those who are unable to do the work themselves ... after school activities ... care and support for the homeless in our neighborhood ... job creation for those whom we serve. As the community continues to grow, be revitalized, and transform, ASP's work is essential in helping everyone in Avondale to experience the love of God in Christ and to understand that all are welcome at God's table.

Provider Name	Community Food Bank of Central Alabama
Provider Description	The Community Food Bank of Central Alabama operates as a food distribution center. We purchase food from industry sources, and we receive surplus food reclaimed from local grocery stores. (We also welcome food donations from the community!) In turn, we distribute that food to over 230 nonprofits in the community who act as our agency partners. The agencies receive food from the Community Food Bank and distribute that food to those in need, free of charge. We partner with over 260 food pantries, churches, and nonprofits across our 12-county service area. We provide those partner agencies with food that they distribute free of charge. Times and days are subject to change, so be sure to call before attending.
