"COME FOR THE BOOKS, STAY FOR THE BANDS!"
THE NATIONAL TOUR FEATURING READINGS AND '90s CHATS WITH JESSAMYN VIOLET + PERFORMANCES BY MOVIE CLUB + MORE

When it comes to nostalgia, nothing's rating higher than the 1990s right now. The Reading Rocking Rainbow Tour is a culmination of years of hard work and hustle, kicking delightfully into action at the best time possible and probably coming to a city near you. This event features readings, pop quizzes, games like "Were You a 90s Rockstar?" - with live music by Movie Club, special guests, and more. Bringing books and bands together in one epic occasion has been a lifelong dream of Movie Club's drummer Jessamyn Violet. Her debut punk rock novel set in the 90s, Secret Rules to Being a Rockstar, comes out April 18th through Three Rooms Press. To celebrate, the band has booked twelve iconic venues in cities across the country at which they will host a mixed media performance of book readings, interactive games, conversations with outstanding authors and rocking out. To kick off each night, Jessamyn will dive into a reading from the book from behind the drum kit. In the manner of a late night TV show host, she will bring up an in-conversation partner, sometimes drawing people from the audience to participate in fun quizzes and chats about the totally weird, fun and messed-up '90s. When the book discussion portion is over, Movie Club will lay down a set featuring instrumentalists along with local bands in some cities. Jessamyn and supporting authors will also be doing book signings. Each event will be a little different and tailored to the location. This is a one-of-a-kind show aimed at pumping fresh energy into the reading and live indie music scenes.
