Kiwanis, Aktion Club pair up to pick up highway

Apr 23, 2019

Kiwanis and Aktion Club members gathered at Just Goods before heading out to complete the Adopt-a-Highway clean-up event April 20. Right to left: Patty MacDonald, Tiffany Vanderwall (Aktion Club), Alishia Terrill, Karen Meads, Robert Thompson (Aktion Club), Rick Meads, Amy Urick, John Queen and Grace Stanton.

Members of the Tri-Cities Kiwanis Club and the Aktion Club participated in the Michigan Department
Kiwanis members participate in the clean-up at least twice a year. This is the first time that the Aktion Club members have joined in.

The Adopt-a-Highway program provides an opportunity for service groups to pick up areas of Michigan’s highways on a semi-annual basis.

Kiwanis provides services and programs for children — including food banks, medical care, Santa House, swim programs and educational opportunities. Membership is open to community-minded individuals and the club meets at the Eagles lodge in Grand Haven every Wednesday at noon. For more information, visit www.TriCitiesKiwanis.org.

Aktion Club is a Kiwanis-sponsored service club for adults with disabilities; the aim is to provide such individuals an opportunity to develop initiative, leadership skills and to serve their communities. The club meets at The Momentum Center in Grand Haven every Thursday at 4 p.m. For more information, visit www.TriCitiesKiwanis.org/aktion.