THE CURIOUS GARDEN Song

based on the book by Peter Brown

Feel in 1

A city with no trees, a dreary place to be, oh, oh.

Til one boy decides to plant something green, oh, oh.

And he sings to the flowers for hours, and he gives them power, It's a curious garden, growing on the railway. A curious garden wanting to explore, A curious garden blossoming, blossoming, blossoming on forgotten things. Interupted by snow as he waits for the spring, oh, oh.

And when it finally

Written by Emily Arrow

Transcribed by Karina Keating

Storytime Singalong, Volume 1 ©2016 Emily Arrow, produced by Nick Goldston comes with a little help from the sun more grows.

And he sings to the flowers for hours. And he gives them power.

It's a curious garden growing on the railway. A curious garden wanting to explore. A curious garden blossoming, blossoming, blossoming, on forgotten things.

Most gardens stay in only one place but this one keeps growing!

It's a curious garden growing on the railway. A curious, curious garden ohh A curious garden,
THE CURIOUS GARDEN Song

109  growing on the railway A curious garden, wanting to explore. A curious garden, blossoming, blossoming, blossoming, on forgotten things.

115  B♭ F B♭

122  B♭

A curious garden, A curious, curious garden.

130  B♭ F B♭

A curious garden, blossoming, blossoming, on forgotten things.