ONE DAY, THE END Song

Capo 3: D A D A

F C F C

Ba da ba ba ba  doo doo! Ba da ba ba ba  doo doo!

D A G A

F C B♭ C

Ba da ba ba ba   doo doo! Ba da ba ba ba!

D F

F

One day,  ooo,  the end I lost my dog,  ooo,  I found him

G B♭ D

F

One  day,  one day,  the end. But what happens in the middle? What happens in-between?

G B♭ A G

C B♭ C

G D G D G D D

B♭ F B♭ F B♭ F

One day outside we played Then he snuck away So I looked all day But that's

A G D G D G D A

C B♭ F B♭ F B♭ F

not the end I tracked his paws, Which was good because I found my friend again

G D D A

B♭ F F B♭ F B♭ F

And that's the end. Ba da ba ba ba  doo doo! Ba da ba ba ba

Written by Emily Arrow, Rebecca Kai Dotlich, and Nick Goldston

Based on the book by Rebecca Kai Dotlich, illustrated by Fred Koehler

Transcribed by Karina Keating

Storytime Singalong, Volume 1 ©2016 Emily Arrow, produced by Nick Goldston
ONE DAY, THE END Song

---

One day, I ran away, One day, one day, the end.

But what happens in the middle, What happens in-between?

One day I had enough so I packed my stuff, Climbed around and up.

But that's not the end, From a tree, a bird showed me, The way back home again.

And that's the end. Ba da ba ba ba doo doo doo!
You can be one too, See what you can do.

One day, ooo, I wanted to write a book, Ooo, so I wrote it, One day, one day, the end.

What happens in the middle, What happens in-between?

One day I thought and thought And I couldn't stop, So I wrote a lot, But that's not the end. Word by word, ev'ry page I turned, I scribbled with my pen And that's the end. And that's the end.

And that's the end. And that's the end. And that's the end.