The garden was so busy and the sky was so sunny but sooner enough the seasons change. And the badgers and the bees and birds and beavers and bunnies need a home, a place to stay.
But the hedgehog lived in a hedge, all by himself, and he liked it that way.
And the grasshopper lived alone, shared her home when they heard them say Ding Dong.

Hedgehog Song
a collaboration inspired by the book "Hedgehog" by Ashlyn Anstee (Tundra Books)
Hedgehog Song

Grass-hopper says the grass-hopper says come on in-side and (Come on in come a-long)

(Come on in come a-long)

The foxes and the squirrels e-ven the mouse need a house there's one place left they have-n't checked But the hedge-hog lived in a hedge all by him-self and he liked it that way But the grass-hopper lived a-lone shared her home when they heard them say Ding Dong The hedge-hog hogs the hedge-hog hogs the hedge But the grass-hopper said the Grass-hopper said come on in-side and (Come on in__ come a-long)___

(Come on in__ come a-long)___ Mine mine mine__ said the hedge-hog

Hands off ab-so-lute-ly not Mine mine mine__ said the hedge-hog

Slam-ing the door__ and__ turn-ing the lock Mine mine mine__ said the hedge-hog

Hands off ab-so-lute-ly not Mine mine mine__ said the hedge-hog

Slam-ing the door but then the door fell off The hedge-hog ru-ined his hedge__ no where to go___

Where would he stay But the grass-hop-per down be-low__ shared her home
Hedgehog Song

when they heard him say Ding Dong There's always room for one more friend so hedge-hog went inside And they settled down snow on the ground and then they shared some pie Cause it's better together that's why

then they shared some pie Cause it's better together that's why