Missing Morning Bzzzzz

Without pesticides, 35% of coffee beans could be lost due to the coffee berry borer. In fact, researchers estimate that the coffee berry borer causes more than $500 million in damages each year.

Through the use of Integrated Pest Management approaches, including the responsible use of pesticides, farmers can significantly reduce coffee berry borer damage.