An Inclusive Language Psalter

Based on the Psalms from the 1979 Book of Common Prayer
Concerning the Psalter

The Psalter is a body of liturgical poetry. It is designed for vocal, congregational use, whether by singing or reading. There are several traditional methods of psalmody. The exclusive use of a single method makes the recitation of the Psalter needlessly monotonous. The traditional methods, each of which can be elaborate or simple, are the following:

Direct recitation denotes the reading or chanting of a whole psalm, or portion of a psalm, in unison. It is particularly appropriate for the psalm verses suggested in the lectionary for use between the Lessons at the Eucharist, when the verses are recited rather than sung, and may often be found a satisfactory method of chanting them.

Antiphonal recitation is the verse-by-verse alternation between groups of singers or readers; e.g., between choir and congregation, or between one side of the congregation and the other. The alternate recitation concludes either with the Gloria Patri, or with a refrain (called the antiphon) recited in unison. This is probably the most satisfying method for reciting the psalms in the Daily Office.

Responsorial recitation is the name given to a method of psalmody in which the verses of a psalm are sung by a solo voice, with the choir and congregation singing a refrain after each verse or group of verses. This was the traditional method of singing the Venite, and the restoration of Invitatory Antiphons for the Venite makes possible a recovery of this form of sacred song in the Daily Office. It was also a traditional manner of chanting the psalms between the Lessons at the Eucharist, and it is increasingly favored by modern composers.

The version of the Psalms which follows is set out in lines of poetry. The lines correspond to Hebrew versification, which is not based on meter or rhyme, but on parallelism of clauses, a symmetry of form and sense. The parallelism can take the form of similarity (The waters have lifted up, O Lord / the waters have lifted up their voice; / the waters have lifted up their pounding waves. Psalm 93:4), or of contrast (The Lord knows the ways of the righteous; / but the way of the wicked is doomed. Psalm 1:6), or of logical expansion (Our eyes look to the Lord our God, / until he show us his mercy. Psalm 123:3).

The most common verse is a couplet, but triplets are very frequent, and quatrains are not unknown; although quatrains are usually distributed over two verses.

An asterisk divides each verse into two parts for reading or chanting. In reading, a distinct pause should be made at the asterisk.

Three terms are used in the Psalms with reference to God: Elohim (“God”), Adonai (“Lord”) and the personal name YHWH. The “Four-letter Name” (Tetragrammaton) is probably to be vocalized Yahweh; but this is by no means certain, because from very ancient times it has been considered too sacred to be pronounced; and, whenever it occurred, Adonai was substituted for it. In the oldest manuscripts, the Divine Name was written in antique and obsolete letters; in more recent manuscripts and in printed Bibles, after the invention of vowel points, the Name was provided with the vowels of the word Adonai. This produced a hybrid form which has been transliterated “Jehovah.”

The Hebrew reverence and reticence with regard to the Name of God has been carried over into the classical English versions, the Prayer Book Psalter and the King James Old Testament, where it is regularly rendered “Lord”. In order to distinguish it, however, from “Lord” as a translation of Adonai, YHWH is represented in capital and small capital letters: LORD.

From time to time, the Hebrew text has Adonai and YHWH in conjunction. Then, the Hebrew custom is to substitute Elohim for YHWH, and our English tradition follows suit, rendering the combined title as “Lord GOD.”
In two passages (Psalm 68:4 and Psalm 83:18), the context requires that the Divine Name be spelled out, and it appears as YAHWEH. A similar construction occurs in the Canticle, “The Song of Moses.”

The ancient praise-shout, “Hallelujah,” has been restored, in place of its English equivalent, “Praise the Lord.” The Hebrew form has been used, rather than the Latin form “Alleluia,” as being more appropriate to this context; but also to regain for our liturgy a form of the word that is familiar from its use in many well-known anthems. The word may, if desired, be omitted during the season of Lent.
Beatus vir qui non abiit

Happy are they who have not walked in the counsel of the wicked, * nor lingered in the way of sinners, nor sat in the seats of the scornful!

Their delight is in the law of the LORD, *
and they meditate on the law day and night.

They are like trees planted by streams of water, bearing fruit in due season, with leaves that do not wither; *
everything they do shall prosper.

It is not so with the wicked; *
they are like chaff which the wind blows away.

Therefore the wicked shall not stand upright when judgment comes, *
nor the sinner in the council of the righteous.

For the LORD knows the way of the righteous, *
but the way of the wicked is doomed.
2  Quare fremuerunt gentes?

1  Why are the nations in an uproar? *
   Why do the peoples mutter empty threats?

2  Why do the kings of the earth rise up in revolt,
   and the princes plot together, *
   against the LORD and against the Anointed?

3  “Let us break their yoke,” they say; *
   “let us cast off their bonds from us.”

4  God whose throne is in heaven is laughing; *
   the Lord has them in derision.

5  Then God speaks to them wrathfully, *
   and the Lord’s rage fills them with terror.

6  “I myself have set my king *
   upon my holy hill of Zion.”

7  Let me announce the decree of the LORD: *
   who said to me, “You are my Son;
   this day have I begotten you.

8  Ask of me, and I will give you the nations for your inheritance *
   and the ends of the earth for your possession.

9  You shall crush them with an iron rod * and shatter them like a piece of pottery.”

10  And now, you kings, be wise; *
    be warned, you rulers of the earth.

11  Submit to the LORD with fear, *
    and with trembling bow down;

12  Lest God be angry and you perish; *
    for the wrath of the Lord is quickly kindled.
Happy are they all * who take refuge in our God!

Domine, quid multiplicati

1 LORD, how many adversaries I have! *
   how many there are who rise up against me!

2 How many there are who say of me, *
   “There is no help in God.”

3 But you, O LORD, are a shield about me; *
   you are my glory, the one who lifts up my head.

4 I call aloud upon the LORD, *
   who answers me from the holy hill;

5 I lie down and go to sleep; *
   I wake again, because the LORD sustains me.

6 I do not fear the multitudes of people * who set themselves against me all around.

7 Rise up, O LORD; set me free, O my God; *
   surely, you will strike all my enemies across the face,
   you will break the teeth of the wicked.

8 Deliverance belongs to the LORD. *
   Your blessing be upon your people!

Cum invocarem

1 Answer me when I call, O God, defender of my cause; *
   you set me free when I am hard-pressed;
   have mercy on me and hear my prayer.
2 “You mortals, how long will you dishonor my glory; * how long will you worship dumb idols and run after false gods?”

3 Know that the LORD does wonders for the faithful; * the Lord hears me when I call.

4 Tremble, then, and do not sin; * speak to your heart in silence upon your bed.

5 Offer the appointed sacrifices * and put your trust in the LORD.

6 Many are saying, “Oh, that we might see better times!” * Lift up the light of your countenance upon us, O LORD.

7 You have put gladness in my heart, * more than when grain and wine and oil increase.

8 I lie down in peace; at once I fall asleep; * for only you, LORD, make me dwell in safety.

5 Verba mea auribus

1 Give ear to my words, O LORD; * consider my meditation.

2 Hearken to my cry for help, my King and my God, * for I make my prayer to you.

3 In the morning, LORD, you hear my voice; * early in the morning I make my appeal and watch for you.

4 For you are not a God who takes pleasure in wickedness, * and evil cannot dwell with you.

5 Braggarts cannot stand in your sight; * you hate all those who work wickedness.
6 You destroy those who speak lies; *
the bloodthirsty and deceitful, O LORD, you abhor.

7 But as for me, through the greatness of your mercy I will go into your house; *
I will bow down toward your holy temple in awe of you.

8 Lead me, O LORD, in your righteousness, because of those who lie in wait for me; *
make your way straight before me.

9 For there is no truth in their mouth; *
there is destruction in their heart;

10 Their throat is an open grave; *
they flatter with their tongue.

11 Declare them guilty, O God; *
let them fall, because of their schemes.

12 Because of their many transgressions cast them out, *
for they have rebelled against you.

13 But all who take refuge in you will be glad; *
they will sing out their joy for ever.

14 You will shelter them, *
so that those who love your Name may exult in you.

15 For you, O LORD, will bless the righteous; *
you will defend them with your favor as with a shield.

First Day: Evening Prayer

6 Domine, ne in furore

1 LORD, do not rebuke me in your anger; *
do not punish me in your wrath.
2 Have pity on me, LORD, for I am weak; *
   heal me, LORD, for my bones are racked.

3 My spirit shakes with terror; *
   how long, O LORD, how long?

4 Turn, O LORD, and deliver me; *
   save me for your mercy’s sake.

5 For in death no one remembers you; *
   and who will give you thanks in the grave?

6 I grow weary because of my groaning; *
   every night I drench my bed
   and flood my couch with tears.

7 My eyes are wasted with grief *
   and worn away because of all my enemies.

8 Depart from me, all evildoers, *
   for the LORD has heard the sound of my weeping.

9 The LORD has heard my supplication; *
   the LORD accepts my prayer.

10 All my enemies shall be confounded and quake with fear; *
    they shall turn back and suddenly be put to shame.

Domine, Deus meus

1 O LORD my God, I take refuge in you; *
   save and deliver me from all who pursue me;

2 Lest like a lion they tear me in pieces *
   and snatch me away with none to deliver me.

3 O LORD my God, if I have done these things: *
   if there is any wickedness in my hands,
4 If I have repaid my friend with evil, *
or plundered anyone who without cause is my enemy;

5 Then let my enemy pursue and overtake me, *
trample my life into the ground,
and lay my honor in the dust.

6 Stand up, O LORD, in your wrath; *
rise up against the fury of my enemies.

7 Awake, O my God, decree justice; *
let the assembly of the peoples gather round you.

8 Be seated on your lofty throne, O Most High; *
O LORD, judge the nations.

9 Give judgment for me according to my righteousness, O LORD, *
and according to my innocence, O Most High.

10 Let the malice of the wicked come to an end,
but establish the righteous; *
for you test the mind and heart, O righteous God.

11 God is my shield and defense; *
the savior of the true in heart.

12 God is a righteous judge; *
God sits in judgment every day.

13 If they will not repent, God will whet a sword; *
And will bend a bow and make it ready.

14 God has prepared weapons of death; *
and makes arrows as shafts of fire.

15 Look at those who are in labor with wickedness, *
who conceive evil, and give birth to a lie.
16 They dig a pit and make it deep *
   and fall into the hole that they have made.
17 Their malice turns back upon their own head; *
   their violence falls on their own scalp.
18 I will bear witness that the LORD is righteous; *
   I will praise the Name of the LORD Most High.

8 Domine, Dominus noster

1 O LORD our Governor, *
   how exalted is your Name in all the world!
2 Out of the mouths of infants and children *
   your majesty is praised above the heavens.
3 You have set up a stronghold against your adversaries, *
   to quell the enemy and the avenger.
4 When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers, *
   the moon and the stars you have set in their courses,
5 What are people that you should be mindful of them? *
   Human beings that you should care for them?
6 You have made us a little lower than the angels; *
   you adorn us with glory and honor;
7 You give us mastery over the works of your hands; *
   you put all things under our feet:
8 All sheep and oxen, *
   even the wild beasts of the field,
9 The birds of the air, the fish of the sea, *
   and whatsoever walks in the paths of the sea.
10 O LORD our Governor, *
   how exalted is your Name in all the world!
9 Confitebor tibi

1 I will give thanks to you, O LORD, with my whole heart; *
   I will tell of all your marvelous works.

2 I will be glad and rejoice in you; *
   I will sing to your Name, O Most High.

3 When my enemies are driven back, *
   they will stumble and perish at your presence.

4 For you have maintained my right and my cause; *
   you sit upon your throne judging right.

5 You have rebuked the ungodly and destroyed the wicked; *
   you have blotted out their name for ever and ever.

6 As for the enemy, they are finished, in perpetual ruin, *
   their cities ploughed under, the memory of them perished;

7 But the LORD is enthroned for ever; *
   and has set up a throne for judgment.

8 It is the Lord who rules the world with righteousness; *
   God judges the peoples with equity.

9 The LORD will be a refuge for the oppressed, *
   a refuge in time of trouble.

10 Those who know your Name will put their trust in you, *
    for you never forsake those who seek you, O LORD.

11 Sing praise to the LORD who dwells in Zion; *
    proclaim to the peoples the things God has done.

12 The Avenger of blood will remember them; *
    The Lord will not forget the cry of the afflicted.
13 Have pity on me, O LORD; *
   see the misery I suffer from those who hate me,
   O you who lift me up from the gate of death;
14 So that I may tell of all your praises
   and rejoice in your salvation *
   in the gates of the city of Zion.
15 The ungodly have fallen into the pit they dug, *
   and in the snare they set is their own foot caught.
16 The LORD is known by acts of justice; *
   the wicked are trapped in the works of their own hands.
17 The wicked shall be given over to the grave, *
   and also all the peoples that forget God.
18 For the needy shall not always be forgotten, *
   and the hope of the poor shall not perish for ever.
19 Rise up, O LORD, let not the ungodly have the upper hand; *
   let them be judged before you.
20 Put fear upon them, O LORD; *
   let the ungodly know they are but mortal.

10 _Ut quid, Domine?_

1 Why do you stand so far off, O LORD, *
   and hide yourself in time of trouble?
2 The wicked arrogantly persecute the poor, *
   but they are trapped in the schemes they have devised.
3 The wicked boast of their heart’s desire; *
   the covetous curse and revile the LORD.
4 The wicked are so proud that they care not for God; *
   their only thought is, “God does not matter.”
Their ways are devious at all times; your judgments are far above out of their sight; * they defy all their enemies.

They say in their heart, “I shall not be shaken; * no harm shall happen to me ever.”

Their mouth is full of cursing, deceit, and oppression; * under their tongue are mischief and wrong.

They lurk in ambush in public squares and in secret places they murder the innocent; * they spy out the helpless.

They lie in wait, like a lion in a covert; they lie in wait to seize upon the lowly; * they seize the lowly and drag them away in their net.

The innocent are broken and humbled before them; * the helpless fall before their power.

They say in their heart, “God has forgotten; * The Lord’s face is hidden; and God will never notice.”

Rise up, O LORD; lift up your hand, O God; * do not forget the afflicted.

Why should the wicked revile God? * why should they say in their heart, “You do not care”? Surely, you behold trouble and misery; * you see it and take it into your own hand.

The helpless commit themselves to you, * for you are the helper of orphans.

Break the power of the wicked and evil; * search out their wickedness until you find none.
17 The LORD is King for ever and ever; *
the ungodly shall perish from the land.

18 The LORD will hear the desire of the humble; *
you will strengthen their heart and your ears shall hear;

19 To give justice to the orphan and oppressed, *
so that mere mortals may strike terror no more.

11 In Domino confido

1 In the LORD have I taken refuge; *
how then can you say to me,
“Fly away like a bird to the hilltop;

2 For see how the wicked bend the bow and fit their arrows to the string, *
to shoot from ambush at the true of heart.

3 When the foundations are being destroyed, *
what can the righteous do?”

4 The LORD is in the holy temple; *
the LORD’S throne is in heaven.

5 The Lord’s eyes behold the inhabited world; *
God’s piercing eye weighs our worth.

6 The LORD weighs the righteous as well as the wicked, *
but abhors those who delight in violence.

7 Upon the wicked God shall rain coals of fire and burning sulphur; *
a scorching wind shall be their lot.

8 For the LORD is righteous;
delighting in righteous deeds; *
the just shall see God’s face.
Second Day: Evening Prayer

12 Salvum me fac

1 Help me, LORD, for there is no godly one left; *
   the faithful have vanished from among us.

2 Everyone speaks falsely with their neighbor; *
   with a smooth tongue they speak from a double heart.

3 Oh, that the LORD would cut off all smooth tongues, *
   and close the lips that utter proud boasts!

4 Those who say, “With our tongue will we prevail; *
   our lips are our own; who is lord over us?”

5 “Because the needy are oppressed,
and the poor cry out in misery, *
   I will rise up,” says the LORD,
   “and give them the help they long for.”

6 The words of the LORD are pure words, *
   like silver refined from ore
   and purified seven times in the fire.

7 O LORD, watch over us *
   and save us from this generation for ever.

8 The wicked prowl on every side, *
   and that which is worthless is highly prized by everyone.

13 Usquequo, Domine?

1 How long, O LORD?
will you forget me for ever? *
   how long will you hide your face from me?
2 How long shall I have perplexity in my mind, and grief in my heart, day after day? * how long shall my enemy triumph over me?

3 Look upon me and answer me, O LORD my God; * give light to my eyes, lest I sleep in death;

4 Lest my enemy say, “I have prevailed,” * and my foes rejoice that I have fallen.

5 But I put my trust in your mercy; * my heart is joyful because of your saving help.

6 I will sing to the LORD, who has dealt with me richly; * I will praise the Name of the Lord Most High.

14 Dixit insipiens

1 The fool has said, “There is no God.” * All are corrupt and commit abominable acts; there is none who does any good.

2 The LORD looks down from heaven upon us all, * to see if there is any who is wise, if there is one who seeks after God.

3 Every one has proved faithless; all alike have turned bad; * there is none who does good; no, not one.

4 Have they no knowledge, all those evildoers * who eat up my people like bread and do not call upon the LORD?

5 See how they tremble with fear, * because God is in the company of the righteous.

6 Their aim is to confound the plans of the afflicted, * but the LORD is their refuge.
Oh, that Israel’s deliverance would come out of Zion! * when the LORD restores the people’s fortune, Jacob will rejoice and Israel be glad.

Third Day: Morning Prayer

15 Domine, quis habitabit?

1 LORD, who may dwell in your tabernacle? * who may abide upon your holy hill?

2 Whoever leads a blameless life and does what is right, * who speaks the truth from their heart.

3 There is no guile upon their tongue; They do no evil to their friend; * and do not heap contempt upon their neighbor.

4 In their sight the wicked are rejected, * but they honor those who fear the LORD.

5 They have sworn to do no wrong * and do not take back their word.

6 They do not give money in hope of gain, * nor take a bribe against the innocent.

7 Whoever does these things * shall never be overthrown.

16 Conserva me, Domine

1 Protect me, O God, for I take refuge in you; * I have said to the LORD, “You are my Lord, my good above all other.”
2 All my delight is upon the godly that are in the land, *
   upon those who are noble among the people.
3 But those who run after other gods *
   shall have their troubles multiplied.
4 Their libations of blood I will not offer, *
   nor take the names of their gods upon my lips.
5 O LORD, you are my portion and my cup; *
   it is you who uphold my lot.
6 My boundaries enclose a pleasant land; *
   indeed, I have a goodly heritage.
7 I will bless the LORD who gives me counsel; *
   my heart teaches me, night after night.
8 I have set the LORD always before me; *
   because God is at my right hand I shall not fall.
9 My heart, therefore, is glad, and my spirit rejoices; *
   my body also shall rest in hope.
10 For you will not abandon me to the grave, *
    nor let your holy one see the Pit.
11 You will show me the path of life; *
    in your presence there is fullness of joy,
    and in your right hand are pleasures for evermore.

17 Exaudi, Domine

1 Hear my plea of innocence, O LORD;
   give heed to my cry; *
   listen to my prayer, which does not come from lying lips.
2 Let my vindication come forth from your presence; *
   let your eyes be fixed on justice.

3 Weigh my heart, summon me by night; *
   melt me down; you will find no impurity in me.

4 I give no offense with my mouth as others do; *
   I have heeded the words of your lips.

5 My footsteps hold fast to the ways of your law; *
   in your paths my feet shall not stumble.

6 I call upon you, O God, for you will answer me; *
   incline your ear to me and hear my words.

7 Show me your marvelous loving-kindness, *
   O Savior of those who take refuge at your right hand
   from those who rise up against them.

8 Keep me as the apple of your eye; *
   hide me under the shadow of your wings,

9 From the wicked who assault me, *
   from my deadly enemies who surround me.

10 They have closed their heart to pity, *
    and their mouth speaks proud things.

11 They press me hard,
    now they surround me, *
    watching how they may cast me to the ground,

12 Like a lion, greedy for its prey, *
    and like a young lion lurking in secret places.

13 Arise, O LORD; confront them and bring them down; *
    deliver me from the wicked by your sword.

14 Deliver me, O LORD, by your hand *
    from those whose portion in life is this world; 15 Whose bellies you fill with your treasure, *
   who are well supplied with children
   and leave their wealth to their little ones.

16 But at my vindication I shall see your face; *
   when I awake, I shall be satisfied, beholding
   your likeness.

Third Day: Evening Prayer

18

Part I  Diligam te, Domine.

1 I love you, O LORD my strength, *
   O LORD my stronghold, my crag, and my haven.

2 My God, my rock in whom I put my trust, *
   my shield, the horn of my salvation, and my refuge;
   you are worthy of praise.

3 I will call upon the LORD, *
   and so shall I be saved from my enemies.

4 The breakers of death rolled over me, *
   and the torrents of oblivion made me afraid.

5 The cords of hell entangled me, *
   and the snares of death were set for me.

6 I called upon the LORD in my distress *
   and cried out to my God for help.

7 The Lord heard my voice from heaven; *
   God heard the cry of my anguish.
8 The earth reeled and rocked; *
the roots of the mountains shook;
they reeled because of God’s anger.

9 Smoke rose from the Lord’s nostrils
and a consuming fire from God’s mouth; *
hot burning coals blazed forth.

10 The Lord parted the heavens and came down *
God’s feet rode upon a storm cloud.

11 The Lord mounted on cherubim and flew; *
God swooped on the wings of the wind.

12 The Lord was wrapped in darkness; *
God made dark waters and thick clouds a pavilion.

13 From the brightness of the Lord, through the clouds, *
burst hailstones and coals of fire.

14 The LORD thundered out of heaven; *
the Most High’s voice spoke.

15 The Lord loosed arrows and scattered them; *
God hurled thunderbolts and routed them.

16 The beds of the seas were uncovered,
and the foundations of the world laid bare, *
at your battle cry, O LORD,
at the blast of the breath of your nostrils.

17 The Lord reached down from on high and grasped me; *
and drew me out of great waters.

18 God delivered me from my strong enemies
and from those who hated me; *
for they were too mighty for me.

19 They confronted me in the day of my disaster; *
but the LORD was my support.
20 The Lord brought me out into an open place; *
  God rescued me and delighted in me.

Psalm 18: Part II  * Et retribuet mihi

21 The LORD rewarded me because of my righteous dealing; *
  because my hands were clean God rewarded me;

22 For I have kept the ways of the LORD *
  and have not offended against my God;

23 For the Lord’s judgments are before my eyes, *
  and God’s decrees I have not put away from me;

24 For I have been blameless before the Lord *
  and have kept myself from iniquity;

25 Therefore the LORD rewarded me according to my * righteous dealing, *
  because of the cleanness of my hands.

26 With the faithful you show yourself faithful, O God; *
  with the forthright you show yourself forthright.

27 With the pure you show yourself pure, *
  but with the crooked you are wily.

28 You will save a lowly people, *
  but you will humble the haughty eyes.

29 You, O LORD, are my lamp; *
  my God, you make my darkness bright.

30 With you I will break down an enclosure; *
  with the help of my God I will scale any wall.

31 God’s ways are perfect;
  the words of the LORD are tried in the fire; *
  and a shield to all who trust in God.
32 For who is God, but the LORD? *
who is the Rock, except our God?
33 It is God who girds me about with strength * and makes my way secure.
34 The Lord makes me sure-footed like a deer *
and lets me stand firm on the heights.
35 God trains my hands for battle *
and my arms for bending even a bow of bronze.
36 You have given me your shield of victory; *
your right hand also sustains me;
your loving care makes me great.
37 You lengthen my stride beneath me, *
and my ankles do not give way.
38 I pursue my enemies and overtake them; *
I will not turn back till I have destroyed them.
39 I strike them down, and they cannot rise; *
they fall defeated at my feet.
40 You have girded me with strength for the battle; *
you have cast down my adversaries beneath me;
you have put my enemies to flight.
41 I destroy those who hate me;
they cry out, but there is none to help them; *
they cry to the LORD, but God does not answer.
42 I beat them small like dust before the wind; *
I trample them like mud in the streets.
43 You deliver me from the strife of the peoples; *
you put me at the head of the nations.
44 A people I have not known shall serve me;
no sooner shall they hear than they shall obey me; *
strangers will cringe before me.
The foreign peoples will lose heart; *
they shall come trembling out of their strongholds.

The LORD lives! Blessed is my Rock! *
Exalted is the God of my salvation!

This is the God who gave me victory *
and cast down the peoples beneath me.

You rescued me from the fury of my enemies;
you exalted me above those who rose against me; *
you saved me from my deadly foe.

Therefore will I extol you among the nations, O LORD, *
and sing praises to your Name.

The Lord multiplies the victories of our king; *
and shows loving-kindness to the anointed one,
to David and his descendants for ever.

Cæli enarrant

The heavens declare the glory of God, *
and the firmament shows the Lord’s handiwork.

One day tells its tale to another, *
and one night imparts knowledge to another.

Although they have no words or language, *
and their voices are not heard,

Their sound has gone out into all lands, *
and their message to the ends of the world.

In the deep has the Lord set a pavilion for the sun; *
it comes forth like a bride out of her chamber;
it rejoices like a champion to run its course.
6 It goes forth from the uttermost edge of the heavens and runs about to the end of it again; *
nothing is hidden from its burning heat.

7 The law of the LORD is perfect and revives the soul; *
the testimony of the LORD is sure and gives wisdom to the innocent.

8 The statutes of the LORD are just and rejoice the heart; *
the commandment of the LORD is clear and gives light to the eyes.

9 The fear of the LORD is clean and endures for ever; *
the judgments of the LORD are true and righteous altogether.

10 More to be desired are they than gold, more than much fine gold, * sweeter far than honey, than honey in the comb.

11 By them also is your servant enlightened, *
and in keeping them there is great reward.

12 Who can tell how often I offend? * cleanse me from my secret faults.

13 Above all, keep your servant from presumptuous sins; let them not get dominion over me; *
then shall I be whole and sound, and innocent of a great offense.

14 Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in your sight, *
O LORD, my strength and my redeemer.
1 May the LORD answer you in the day of trouble, *
The Name of the God of Jacob defend you;
2 Send you help from the holy place *
   and strengthen you out of Zion;
3 Remember all your offerings *
   and accept your burnt sacrifice;
4 Grant you your heart’s desire *
   and prosper all your plans.
5 We will shout for joy at your victory
   and triumph in the Name of our God; *
   may the LORD grant all your requests.
6 Now I know that the LORD gives victory to the anointed one; *
   God will answer out of holy heaven,
   with victorious strength.
7 Some put their trust in chariots and some in horses, *
   but we will call upon the Name of the LORD our God.
8 They collapse and fall down, *
   but we will arise and stand upright.
9 O LORD, give victory to the king *
   and answer us when we call.

21 Domine, in virtute tua

1 The king rejoices in your strength, O LORD; *
   and greatly exults in your victory!
2 You have given the king his heart’s desire; *
   you have not denied the king’s request.
3 For you meet the king with blessings of prosperity, *
   and set a crown of fine gold upon his head.

4 The king asked you for life, and you gave it: *
   length of days, for ever and ever.

5 The honor is great, because of your victory; *
   splendor and majesty have you bestowed upon the king.

6 For you will give everlasting felicity *
   and will make the king glad with the joy of your presence.

7 For the king trusts in the LORD; *
   because of the loving-kindness of the Most High, the king
   will not fall.

8 Your hand will lay hold upon all your enemies; *
   your right hand will seize all those who hate you.

9 You will make them like a fiery furnace *
   at the time of your appearing, O LORD;

10 You will swallow them up in your wrath, *
   and fire shall consume them.

11 You will destroy their offspring from the land *
   and their descendants from among the peoples of the earth.

12 Though they intend evil against you and devise wicked schemes, *
   yet they shall not prevail.

13 For you will put them to flight *
   and aim your arrows at them.

14 Be exalted, O LORD, in your might; *
   we will sing and praise your power.
Fourth Day: Evening Prayer

22 Deus, Deus meus

1 My God, my God, why have you forsaken me? *
   and are so far from my cry
   and from the words of my distress?

2 O my God, I cry in the daytime, but you do not answer; *
   by night as well, but I find no rest.

3 Yet you are the Holy One, *
   enthroned upon the praises of Israel.

4 Our forebears put their trust in you; *
   they trusted, and you delivered them.

5 They cried out to you and were delivered; *
   they trusted in you and were not put to shame.

6 But as for me, I am a worm and no human, *
   scorned by all and despised by the people.

7 All who see me laugh me to scorn; *
   they curl their lips and wag their heads,

8 “Trust in the L ORD; let God deliver you; *
   let God rescue you, if the Lord delights in you.”

9 Yet you, O Lord, are the one who took me out of the womb, *
   and kept me safe upon my mother’s breast.

10 I have been entrusted to you ever since I was born; *
    you were my God when I was still in my mother’s womb.

11 Be not far from me, for trouble is near, *
    and there is none to help.
12 Many young bulls encircle me; *
   strong bulls of Bashan surround me.

13 They open wide their jaws at me, *
   like a ravening and a roaring lion.

14 I am poured out like water;
   all my bones are out of joint; *
   my heart within my breast is melting wax.

15 My mouth is dried out like a pot-sherd;
   my tongue sticks to the roof of my mouth; *
   and you have laid me in the dust of the grave.

16 Packs of dogs close me in,
   and gangs of evildoers circle around me; *
   they pierce my hands and my feet;
   I can count all my bones.

17 They stare and gloat over me; *
   they divide my garments among them;
   they cast lots for my clothing.

18 Be not far away, O LORD; *
   you are my strength; hasten to help me.

19 Save me from the sword, *
   my life from the power of the dog.

20 Save me from the lion’s mouth, *
   my wretched body from the horns of wild bulls.

21 I will declare your Name to my people; *
   in the midst of the congregation I will praise you.

22 Praise the LORD, you that fear God; *
   stand in awe, O offspring of Israel;
   all you of Jacob’s line, give glory.
23 For the Lord does not despise nor abhor the poor in their poverty; God does not from them; *
   but when they cry God hears them.
24 My praise is of the Lord in the great assembly; *
   I will perform my vows in the presence of those who worship God.
25 The poor shall eat and be satisfied, and those who seek the LORD shall give praise: *
   "May your heart live for ever!"
26 All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn to the LORD, *
   and all the families of the nations shall bow down.
27 For kingship belongs to the LORD; *
   who rules over the nations.
28 To God alone all who sleep in the earth bow down in worship; *
   all who go down to the dust fall before the Lord.
29 My soul shall live for God;
   my descendants shall serve the Lord; *
   they shall be known as the LORD’S for ever.
30 They shall come and make known to a people yet unborn *
   the saving deeds that God has done.

23 Dominus regit me

1 The LORD is my shepherd; *
   I shall not be in want.
2 God makes me lie down in green pastures *
   and leads me beside still waters.
3 You revive my soul *
   and guide me along right pathways for your Name’s sake.

4 Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
   I shall fear no evil; *
   for you are with me;
   your rod and your staff, they comfort me.

5 You spread a table before me in the presence of those who trouble me; *
   you have anointed my head with oil,
   and my cup is running over.

6 Surely your goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days
   of my life, *
   and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

Fifth Day: Morning Prayer

24  Domini est terra

1 The earth is the LORD’s and all that is in it, *
   the world and all who dwell therein.

2 For it is God who founded it upon the seas *
   and made it firm upon the rivers of the deep.

3 “Who can ascend the hill of the LORD? *
   and who can stand in the holy place?”

4 “Those who have clean hands and a pure heart, *
   who have not pledged themselves to falsehood,
   nor sworn by what is a fraud.

5 They shall receive a blessing from the Lord *
   and a just reward from the God of their salvation.”

6 Such is the generation of those who seek the Lord, *
   of those who seek your face, O God of Jacob.
7 Lift up your heads, O gates;
   lift them high, O everlasting doors; *
   and the King of glory shall come in.

8 “Who is this King of glory?” *
   “The LORD, strong and mighty,
   the LORD, mighty in battle.”

9 Lift up your heads, O gates;
   lift them high, O everlasting doors; *
   and the King of glory shall come in.

10 “Who is this King of glory?” *
    “The LORD of hosts
    is the King of glory.”

25 \textit{Ad te, Domine, levavi}

1 To you, O LORD, I lift up my soul;
   my God, I put my trust in you; *
   let me not be humiliated,
   nor let my enemies triumph over me.

2 Let none who look to you be put to shame; *
   let the treacherous be disappointed in their schemes.

3 Show me your ways, O LORD,*
   and teach me your paths.

4 Lead me in your truth and teach me, *
   for you are the God of my salvation;
   in you have I trusted all the day long.

5 Remember, O LORD, your compassion and love, *
   for they are from everlasting.
6 Remember not the sins of my youth and my transgressions; *
   remember me according to your love
   and for the sake of your goodness, O LORD.

7 Gracious and upright is the LORD; *
   who teaches sinners in the right way.

8 The Lord guides the humble in doing right *
   and teaches truth to the lowly.

9 All the paths of the LORD are love and faithfulness *
   to those who keep the covenant and testimonies.

10 For your Name’s sake, O LORD, *
    forgive my sin, for it is great.

11 Who are they who fear the LORD? *
    God will teach them the way that they should choose.

12 They shall dwell in prosperity, *
    and their offspring shall inherit the land.

13 The LORD is a friend to those who stand in awe *
    and will show them the covenant.

14 My eyes are ever looking to the LORD, *
    who shall pluck my feet out of the net.

15 Turn to me and have pity on me, *
    for I am left alone and in misery.

16 The sorrows of my heart have increased; *
    bring me out of my troubles.

17 Look upon my adversity and misery *
    and forgive me all my sin.

18 Look upon my enemies, for they are many, *
    and they bear a violent hatred against me.
19 Protect my life and deliver me; *
    let me not be put to shame, for I have trusted in you.

20 Let integrity and uprightness preserve me, *
    for my hope has been in you.

21 Deliver Israel, O God, *
    out of all their troubles.

26  Judica me, Domine

1 Give judgment for me, O LORD,
    for I have lived with integrity; *
    I have trusted in the Lord and have not faltered.

2 Test me, O LORD, and try me; *
    examine my heart and my mind.

3 For your love is before my eyes; *
    I have walked faithfully with you.

4 I have not sat with the worthless, *
    nor do I consort with the deceitful.

5 I have hated the company of evildoers; *
    I will not sit down with the wicked.

6 I will wash my hands in innocence, O LORD, *
    that I may go in procession round your altar,

7 Singing aloud a song of thanksgiving *
    and recounting all your wonderful deeds.

8 LORD, I love the house in which you dwell *
    and the place where your glory abides.

9 Do not sweep me away with sinners, *
    nor my life with those who thirst for blood, 10 Whose hands are full of evil plots, *
   and their right hand full of bribes.

11 As for me, I will live with integrity; *
   redeem me, O LORD, and have pity on me.

12 My foot stands on level ground; *
   in the full assembly I will bless the LORD.

Fifth Day: Evening Prayer

27 Dominus illuminatio

1 The LORD is my light and my salvation;
   whom then shall I fear? *
      the LORD is the strength of my life;
         of whom then shall I be afraid?

2 When evildoers came upon me to eat up my flesh, *
   it was they, my foes and my adversaries, who stumbled and fell.

3 Though an army should encamp against me, *
   yet my heart shall not be afraid;

4 And though war should rise up against me, *
   yet will I put my trust in God.

5 One thing have I asked of the LORD;
   one thing I seek; *
      that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days
         of my life;

6 To behold the fair beauty of the LORD *
   and to seek God in the temple.
7 For in the day of trouble the Lord shall keep me safe; *
   God shall hide me in the secrecy of the temple
   and set me high upon a rock.

8 Even now the Lord lifts up my head *
   above my enemies round about me.

9 Therefore I will offer in God’s dwelling an oblation with sounds of great gladness; *
   I will sing and make music to the LORD.

10 Hearken to my voice, O LORD, when I call; *
    have mercy on me and answer me.

11 You speak in my heart and say, “Seek my face.” *
    Your face, LORD, will I seek.

12 Hide not your face from me, *
    nor turn away your servant in displeasure.

13 You have been my helper;
    cast me not away, *
    do not forsake me, O God of my salvation.

14 Though my father and my mother forsake me, *
    the LORD will sustain me.

15 Show me your way, O LORD; *
    lead me on a level path, because of my enemies.

16 Deliver me not into the hand of my adversaries, *
    for false witnesses have risen up against me,
    and also those who speak malice.

17 What if I had not believed that I should see the goodness of the LORD *
    in the land of the living!
18 O tarry and await the LORD’s pleasure;
be strong, and God shall comfort your heart; *
wait patiently for the LORD.

28 Ad te, Domine

1 O LORD, I call to you;
my Rock, do not be deaf to my cry; *
lest, if you do not hear me,
I become like those who go down to the Pit.

2 Hear the voice of my prayer when I cry out to you, *
when I lift up my hands to your holy of holies.

3 Do not snatch me away with the wicked or with the evildoers, *
who speak peaceably with their neighbors,
while strife is in their hearts.

4 Repay them according to their deeds, *
and according to the wickedness of their actions.

5 According to the work of their hands repay them, *
and give them their just deserts.

6 They have no understanding of the LORD’S doings; *
therefore God will break them down and not build them up.

7 Blessed is the LORD! *
who has heard the voice of my prayer.

8 The LORD is my strength and my shield; *
my heart trusts in God, and I have been helped;

9 Therefore my heart dances for joy, *
and in my song will I praise the Lord.
10 The L ORD is the people’s strength, *
a safe refuge for the anointed one.

11 Save your people and bless your inheritance; *
shepherd them and carry them for ever.

29 Afferte Domino

1 Ascribe to the LORD, you gods, *
ascribe to the LORD glory and strength.

2 Ascribe to the LORD the glory that is due; *
worship the L ORD in the beauty of holiness.

3 The voice of the LORD is upon the waters;
the God of glory thunders; *
the LORD is upon the mighty waters.

4 The voice of the LORD is a powerful voice; *
the voice of the LORD is a voice of splendor.

5 The voice of the LORD breaks the cedar trees; *
the LORD breaks the cedars of Lebanon;

6 The voice of the Lord makes Lebanon skip like a calf, *
and Mount Hermon like a young wild ox.

7 The voice of the LORD splits the flames of fire;
the voice of the LORD shakes the wilderness; *
the LORD shakes the wilderness of Kadesh.

8 The voice of the LORD makes the oak trees writhe *
and strips the forests bare.

9 And in the temple of the L ORD *
all are crying, “Glory!”

10 The L ORD sits enthroned above the flood; *
the LORD sits enthroned as King for evermore.
11 The LORD shall give strength to Israel; *
   the LORD shall give Israel the blessing of peace.

_Sixth Day: Morning Prayer_

30 _Exaltabo te, Domine_

1 I will exalt you, O LORD, because you have lifted me up *
   and have not let my enemies triumph over me.

2 O LORD my God, I cried out to you, *
   and you restored me to health.

3 You brought me up, O LORD, from the dead; *
   you restored my life as I was going down to the grave.

4 Sing to the LORD, you servants; *
   give thanks for the remembrance of God’s holiness.

5 For the Lord’s wrath endures but the twinkling of an eye, *
   God’s favor for a lifetime.

6 Weeping may spend the night, *
   but joy comes in the morning.

7 While I felt secure, I said,
   “I shall never be disturbed. *
   You, LORD, with your favor, made me as strong as the mountains.”

8 Then you hid your face, *
   and I was filled with fear.

9 I cried to you, O LORD; *
   I pleaded with the Lord, saying,

10 “What profit is there in my blood, if I go down to the Pit? *
   will the dust praise you or declare your faithfulness?
Hear, O LORD, and have mercy upon me; *
O LORD, be my helper.”

You have turned my wailing into dancing; *
you have put off my sack-cloth and clothed me with joy.

Therefore my heart sings to you without ceasing; *
O LORD my God, I will give you thanks for ever.

In you, O LORD, have I taken refuge; *
let me never be put to shame; *
deliver me in your righteousness.

Incline your ear to me; *
make haste to deliver me.

Be my strong rock, a castle to keep me safe,
for you are my crag and my stronghold; *
for the sake of your Name, lead me and guide me.

Take me out of the net that they have secretly set for me, *
for you are my tower of strength.

Into your hands I commend my spirit, *
for you have redeemed me,
O LORD, O God of truth.

I hate those who cling to worthless idols, *
and I put my trust in the LORD.

I will rejoice and be glad because of your mercy; *
for you have seen my affliction;
you know my distress.
8 You have not shut me up in the power of the enemy; * you have set my feet in an open place.

9 Have mercy on me, O LORD, for I am in trouble; * my eye is consumed with sorrow, and also my throat and my belly.

10 For my life is wasted with grief, and my years with sighing; * my strength fails me because of affliction, and my bones are consumed.

11 I have become a reproach to all my enemies and even to my neighbors, a dismay to those of my acquaintance; * when they see me in the street they avoid me.

12 I am forgotten like a dead man, out of mind; * I am as useless as a broken pot.

13 For I have heard the whispering of the crowd; fear is all around; * they put their heads together against me; they plot to take my life.

14 But as for me, I have trusted in you, O LORD. * I have said, “You are my God.

15 My times are in your hand; * rescue me from the hand of my enemies, and from those who persecute me.

16 Make your face to shine upon your servant, * and in your loving-kindness save me.”

17 LORD, let me not be ashamed for having called upon you; * rather, let the wicked be put to shame; let them be silent in the grave.
18 Let the lying lips be silenced which speak against the righteous, *
   haughtily, disdainfully, and with contempt.

19 How great is your goodness, O LORD!
   which you have laid up for those who fear you; *
   which you have done in the sight of all
   for those who put their trust in you.

20 You hide them in the covert of your presence from those who slander them; *
   you keep them in your shelter from the strife of tongues.

21 Blessed be the LORD! *
   who has shown me the wonders of love in a besieged city.

22 Yet I said in my alarm,
   “I have been cut off from the sight of your eyes.” *
   Nevertheless, you heard the sound of my entreaty
   when I cried out to you.

23 Love the LORD, all you who worship God; *
   the LORD protects the faithful,
   but repays to the full those who act haughtily.

24 Be strong and let your heart take courage, *
   all you who wait for the LORD.

Sixth Day: Evening Prayer

32 Beati quorum

1 Happy are they whose transgressions are forgiven, *
   and whose sin is put away!
2 Happy are they to whom the LORD imputes no guilt, *
   and in whose spirit there is no guile!

3 While I held my tongue, my bones withered away, *
   because of my groaning all day long.

4 For your hand was heavy upon me day and night; *
   my moisture was dried up as in the heat of summer.

5 Then I acknowledged my sin to you, *
   and did not conceal my guilt.

6 I said, “I will confess my transgressions to the LORD.” *
   Then you forgave me the guilt of my sin.

7 Therefore all the faithful will make their prayers to you in time of trouble; *
   when the great waters overflow, they shall not reach them.

8 You are my hiding-place;
   you preserve me from trouble; *
   you surround me with shouts of deliverance.

9 “I will instruct you and teach you in the way that you should go; *
   I will guide you with my eye.

10 Do not be like horse or mule, which have no understanding; *
    who must be fitted with bit and bridle,
    or else they will not stay near you.”

11 Great are the tribulations of the wicked; *
    but mercy embraces those who trust in the LORD.

12 Be glad, you righteous, and rejoice in the LORD; *
    shout for joy, all who are true of heart.
1 Rejoice in the LORD, you righteous; *
   it is good for the just to sing praises.

2 Praise the LORD with the harp; *
   play upon the psaltery and lyre.

3 Sing for the Lord a new song; *
   sound a fanfare with all your skill upon the trumpet.

4 For the word of the LORD is right, *
   and all God’s works are sure.

5 God loves righteousness and justice; *
   the loving-kindness of the LORD fills the whole earth.

6 By the word of the LORD were the heavens made, *
   as were all the heavenly hosts.

7 The Lord gathers up the waters of the ocean as in a water-skin * and stores up the depths of the sea.

8 Let all the earth fear the LORD; *
   let all who dwell in the world stand in awe.

9 For the Lord spoke, and it came to pass; *
   God commanded, and it stood fast.

10 The LORD brings the will of the nations to naught; *
   and thwarts the designs of the peoples.

11 But the LORD’S will stands fast for ever, *
   and the designs of God’s heart from age to age.

12 Happy is the nation whose God is the LORD! *
   happy the people chosen to belong to the Lord!
13 The LORD looks down from heaven, *
    and beholds all the people in the world.

14 God turns a gaze from the throne*
    on all who dwell on the earth.

15 The Lord fashions all the hearts of them *
    and understands all their works.

16 There is no king that can be saved by a mighty army; *
    strong people are not delivered by great strength.

17 The horse is a vain hope for deliverance; *
    for all its strength it cannot save.

18 Behold, the eye of the LORD is upon those who fear God, *
    on those who wait upon God’s love,

19 To pluck their lives from death, *
    and to feed them in time of famine.

20 Our soul waits for the LORD; *
    who is our help and our shield.

21 Indeed, our heart rejoices in the Lord, *
    for in the holy Name we put our trust.

22 Let your loving-kindness, O LORD, be upon us, *
    as we have put our trust in you.

34  Benedicam Dominum

1 I will bless the LORD at all times; *
    whose praise shall ever be in my mouth.

2 I will glory in the LORD; *
    let the humble hear and rejoice.

3 Proclaim with me the greatness of the LORD; *
    let us exalt the Name together.
4 I sought the LORD, who answered me *
   and delivered me out of all my terror.
5 Look upon the Lord and be radiant, *
   and let not your faces be ashamed.
6 I called in my affliction and the LORD heard me *
   and saved me from all my troubles.
7 The angel of the LORD encompasses those who fear God, *
   who will deliver them.
8 Taste and see that the LORD is good; *
   happy are they who trust in God!
9 Fear the LORD, you saints, *
   for those who fear God lack nothing.
10 The young lions lack and suffer hunger, *
   but those who seek the LORD lack nothing that is good.
11 Come, children, and listen to me; *
   I will teach you the fear of the LORD.
12 Who among you loves life *
   and desires long life to enjoy prosperity?
13 Keep your tongue from evil-speaking * and your lips from lying words.
14 Turn from evil and do good; *
   seek peace and pursue it.
15 The eyes of the LORD are upon the righteous, *
   God’s ears are open to their cry.
16 The face of the LORD is against those who do evil, *
   to root out the remembrance of them from the earth.
17 The righteous cry, and the LORD hears them *
   and delivers them from all their troubles.
18 The LORD is near to the brokenhearted *
   and will save those whose spirits are crushed.
19 Many are the troubles of the righteous, *
   but the LORD will deliver them.
20 God will keep safe all their bones; *
   not one of them shall be broken.
21 Evil shall slay the wicked, *
   and those who hate the righteous will be punished.
22 The LORD ransoms our lives, *
   and none will be punished who trust in God.

Seventh Day: Morning Prayer

35 Judica, Domine

1 Fight those who fight me, O LORD; *
   attack those who are attacking me.
2 Take up shield and armor *
   and rise up to help me.
3 Draw the sword and bar the way against those * who pursue me; *
   say to my soul, “I am your salvation.”
4 Let those who seek after my life be shamed and humbled; *
   let those who plot my ruin fall back and be dismayed.
5 Let them be like chaff before the wind, *
   and let the angel of the LORD drive them away.
6 Let their way be dark and slippery, *
   and let the angel of the LORD pursue them.

7 For they have secretly spread a net for me without a cause; *
   without a cause they have dug a pit to take me alive.

8 Let ruin come upon them unawares; *
   let them be caught in the net they hid;
   let them fall into the pit they dug.

9 Then I will be joyful in the LORD; *
   I will glory in God’s victory.

10 My very bones will say, “LORD, who is like you? *
   You deliver the poor from those who are too strong for them,
   the poor and needy from those who rob them.”

11 Malicious witnesses rise up against me; *
   they charge me with matters I know nothing about.

12 They pay me evil in exchange for good; *
   my soul is full of despair.

13 But when they were sick I dressed in sack-cloth *
   and humbled myself by fasting;

14 I prayed with my whole heart,
   as one would for a friend or a family member; *
   I behaved like one who mourns for their mother,
   bowed down and grieving.

15 But when I stumbled, they were glad and gathered together;
   they gathered against me; *
   strangers whom I did not know tore me to pieces and would not stop.

16 They put me to the test and mocked me; *
   they gnashed at me with their teeth.
17 O Lord, how long will you look on? *
   rescue me from the roaring beasts,
   and my life from the young lions.

18 I will give you thanks in the great congregation; *
   I will praise you in the mighty throng.

19 Do not let my treacherous foes rejoice over me, *
   nor let those who hate me without a cause
   wink at each other.

20 For they do not plan for peace, *
   but invent deceitful schemes against the quiet in the land.

21 They opened their mouths at me and said, *
   “Aha! we saw it with our own eyes.”

22 You saw it, O LORD; do not be silent; *
   O Lord, be not far from me.

23 Awake, arise, to my cause! *
   to my defense, my God and my Lord!

24 Give me justice, O LORD my God,
   according to your righteousness; *
   do not let them triumph over me.

25 Do not let them say in their hearts,
   “Aha! just what we want!” *
   Do not let them say, “We have the victory.”

26 Let all who rejoice at my ruin be ashamed and disgraced; *
   let those who boast against me be clothed with dismay and shame.

27 Let those who favor my cause sing out with joy and be glad; *
   let them say always, “Great is the LORD,
   who desires our prosperity.”
28 And my tongue shall be talking of your righteousness *
   and of your praise all the day long.

36  Dixit injustus

1 There is a voice of rebellion deep in the heart of the wicked; *
    there is no fear of God.

2 They flatter themselves in their own eyes *
    that their hateful sin will not be found out.

3 The words of their mouth are wicked and deceitful; *
    they have left off acting wisely and doing good.

4 They think up wickedness upon their bed
   and have set themselves in no good way; *
    they do not abhor that which is evil.

5 Your love, O LORD, reaches to the heavens, *
    and your faithfulness to the clouds.

6 Your righteousness is like the strong mountains,
   your justice like the great deep; *
    you save both people and beast, O LORD.

7 How priceless is your love, O God! *
   your people take refuge under the shadow of your wings.

8 They feast upon the abundance of your house; *
    you give them drink from the river of your delights.

9 For with you is the well of life, *
    and in your light we see light.

10 Continue your loving-kindness to those who know you, *
    and your favor to those who are true of heart.
11 Let not the foot of the proud come near me, *
   nor the hand of the wicked push me aside.
12 See how they are fallen, those who work wickedness! *
   they are cast down and shall not be able to rise.

Seventh Day: Evening Prayer

37

Part I  Noli amnulari

1 Do not fret yourself because of evildoers; *
   do not be jealous of those who do wrong.
2 For they shall soon wither like the grass, *
   and like the green grass fade away.
3 Put your trust in the L ORD and do good; *
   dwell in the land and feed on its riches.
4 Take delight in the L ORD, *
   who shall give you your heart’s desire.
5 Trust in the Lord and commit your way, *
   and God will bring it to pass.
6 The Lord will make your righteousness as clear as the light * and your just dealing as the noonday.
7 Be still before the L ORD *
   and wait patiently for God.
8 Do not fret yourself over the one who prospers, *
   the one who succeeds in evil schemes.
9 Refrain from anger, leave rage alone; *
   do not fret yourself; it leads only to evil.
10 For evildoers shall be cut off, *
    but those who wait upon the L ORD shall possess the land.
11 In a little while the wicked shall be no more; *
    you shall search out their place, but they will not be there.
12 But the lowly shall possess the land; *
    they will delight in abundance of peace.
13 The wicked plot against the righteous *
    and gnash at them with their teeth.
14 The Lord laughs at the wicked, *
    because God sees that their day will come.
15 The wicked draw their sword and bend their bow to strike down the poor and needy, *
    to slaughter those who are upright in their ways.
16 Their sword shall go through their own heart, *
    and their bow shall be broken.
17 The little that the righteous has *
    is better than great riches of the wicked.
18 For the power of the wicked shall be broken, *
    but the LORD upholds the righteous.

Psalm 37: Part II  Novit Dominus

19 The L ORD cares for the lives of the godly, *
    and their inheritance shall last for ever.
20 They shall not be ashamed in bad times, *
    and in days of famine they shall have enough.
21 As for the wicked, they shall perish, * and the enemies of the L ORD, like the glory of
    the meadows, shall vanish;
    they shall vanish like smoke.
22 The wicked borrow and do not repay, *
    but the righteous are generous in giving.
23 Those who are blessed by God shall possess the land, *
    but those who are cursed by the Lord shall be destroyed.
24 Our steps are directed by the LORD; *
    who strengthens those in whose way God delights.
25 If they stumble, they shall not fall headlong, *
    for the LORD holds them by the hand.
26 I have been young and now I am old, *
    but never have I seen the righteous forsaken,
    or their children begging bread.
27 The righteous are always generous in their lending, *
    and their children shall be a blessing.
28 Turn from evil, and do good, *
    and dwell in the land for ever.
29 For the LORD loves justice; *
    and does not forsake any faithful ones.
30 They shall be kept safe for ever, *
    but the offspring of the wicked shall be destroyed.
31 The righteous shall possess the land *
    and dwell in it for ever.
32 The mouth of the righteous utters wisdom, *
    and their tongue speaks what is right.
33 The law of their God is in their heart, *
    and their footsteps shall not falter.
34 The wicked spy on the righteous *
    and seek occasion to kill them.
35 The LORD will not abandon them to their hand, *
    nor let them be found guilty when brought to trial.
36 Wait upon the LORD and keep God’s way; *
    who will raise you up to possess the land,
    and when the wicked are cut off, you will see it.
37 I have seen the wicked in their arrogance, *
    flourishing like a tree in full leaf.
38 I went by, and behold, they were not there; *
    I searched for them, but they could not be found.
39 Mark those who are honest;
    observe the upright; *
    for there is a future for the peaceable.
40 Transgressors shall be destroyed, one and all; *
    the future of the wicked is cut off.
41 But the deliverance of the righteous comes from the LORD; *
    God is their stronghold in time of trouble.
42 The LORD will help them and rescue them; *
    God will rescue them from the wicked and deliver them,
    because they seek God’s refuge.

_Eighth Day: Morning Prayer_

38  _Domine, ne in furore_

1 O LORD, do not rebuke me in your anger; *
    do not punish me in your wrath.
2 For your arrows have already pierced me, *
    and your hand presses hard upon me.
3 There is no health in my flesh,
because of your indignation; *
there is no soundness in my body, because of my sin.

4 For my iniquities overwhelm me; *
like a heavy burden they are too much for me to bear.

5 My wounds stink and fester *
by reason of my foolishness.

6 I am utterly bowed down and prostrate; *
I go about in mourning all the day long.

7 My loins are filled with searing pain; *
there is no health in my body.

8 I am utterly numb and crushed; *
I wail, because of the groaning of my heart.

9 O Lord, you know all my desires, *
and my sighing is not hidden from you.

10 My heart is pounding, my strength has failed me, *
and the brightness of my eyes is gone from me.

11 My friends and companions draw back from my affliction; *
my neighbors stand afar off.

12 Those who seek after my life lay snares for me; *
those who strive to hurt me speak of my ruin
and plot treachery all the day long.

13 But I am like the deaf who do not hear, *
like those who are mute and do not open their mouth.

14 I have become like one who does not hear *
and from whose mouth comes no defense.

15 For in you, O LORD, have I fixed my hope; *
you will answer me, O Lord my God.
16 For I said, “Do not let them rejoice at my expense, *
   those who gloat over me when my foot slips.”

17 Truly, I am on the verge of falling, *
   and my pain is always with me.

18 I will confess my iniquity *
   and be sorry for my sin.

19 Those who are my enemies without cause are mighty, *
   and many in number are those who wrongfully hate me.

20 Those who repay evil for good slander me, *
   because I follow the course that is right.

21 O LORD, do not forsake me; *
   be not far from me, O my God.

22 Make haste to help me, *
   O Lord of my salvation.

39 Dixi, Custodiam

1 I said, “I will keep watch upon my ways, *
   so that I do not offend with my tongue.

2 I will put a muzzle on my mouth *
   while the wicked are in my presence.”

3 So I held my tongue and said nothing; *
   I refrained from rash words;
   but my pain became unbearable.

4 My heart was hot within me;
   while I pondered, the fire burst into flame; *
   I spoke out with my tongue:
5 LORD, let me know my end and the number of my days, *
so that I may know how short my life is.

6 You have given me a mere handful of days,
and my lifetime is as nothing in your sight; *
truly, even those who stand erect are but a puff of wind.

7 We walk about like a shadow,
and in vain we are in turmoil; *
we heap up riches and cannot tell who will gather them.

8 And now, what is my hope? *
O Lord, my hope is in you.

9 Deliver me from all my transgressions *
and do not make me the taunt of the fool.

10 I fell silent and did not open my mouth, *
for surely it was you that did it.

11 Take your affliction from me; *
I am worn down by the blows of your hand.

12 With rebukes for sin you punish us;
like a moth you eat away all that is dear to us; *
truly, everyone is but a puff of wind.

13 Hear my prayer, O LORD,
and give ear to my cry; *
hold not your peace at my tears.

14 For I am but a sojourner with you, *
a wayfarer, as all my forebears were.

15 Turn your gaze from me, that I may be glad again, *
before I go my way and am no more.
I waited patiently upon the LORD; *
Who stooped to me and heard my cry.

The Lord lifted me out of the desolate pit, out of the mire and clay; *
and set my feet upon a high cliff and made my footing sure.

The Lord put a new song in my mouth,
a song of praise to our God; *
many shall see, and stand in awe,
and put their trust in the LORD.

Happy are they who trust in the LORD! *
they do not resort to evil spirits or turn to false gods.

Great things are they that you have done, O LORD my God!
how great your wonders and your plans for us! *
there is none who can be compared with you.

Oh, that I could make them known and tell them! *
but they are more than I can count.

In sacrifice and offering you take no pleasure *
(you have given me ears to hear you);

Burnt-offering and sin-offering you have not required, *
and so I said, “Behold, I come.

In the roll of the book it is written concerning me: *
‘I love to do your will, O my God;
your law is deep in my heart.’”

I proclaimed righteousness in the great congregation; *
behold, I did not restrain my lips;
and that, O LORD, you know.

Your righteousness have I not hidden in my heart;
I have spoken of your faithfulness and your deliverance; *
I have not concealed your love and faithfulness from the great congregation.
12 You are the LORD;
do not withhold your compassion from me; *
let your love and your faithfulness keep me safe for ever,

13 For innumerable troubles have crowded upon me;
my sins have overtaken me, and I cannot see; *
they are more in number than the hairs of my head,
and my heart fails me.

14 Be pleased, O LORD, to deliver me; *
O LORD, make haste to help me.

15 Let them be ashamed and altogether dismayed who seek after my life to destroy it; *
let them draw back and be disgraced
who take pleasure in my misfortune.

16 Let those who say “Aha!” and gloat over me be confounded, *
because they are ashamed.

17 Let all who seek you rejoice in you and be glad; *
let those who love your salvation continually say, “Great is the LORD!”

18 Though I am poor and afflicted, *
the Lord will have regard for me.

19 You are my helper and my deliverer; *
do not tarry, O my God.

Eighth Day: Evening Prayer

41 Beatus qui intelligit

1 Happy are they who consider the poor and needy! *
the LORD will deliver them in the time of trouble.
2 The LORD preserves them and keeps them alive, so that they may be happy in the land; * God does not hand them over to the will of their enemies.

3 The LORD sustains them on their sickbed * and ministers to them in their illness.

4 I said, “LORD, be merciful to me; * heal me, for I have sinned against you.”

5 My enemies are saying wicked things about me: * they wonder when I will die and my name perish.

6 Even if they come to see me, they speak empty words; * their heart collects false rumors; they go outside and spread them.

7 All my enemies whisper together about me * and devise evil against me.

8 “A deadly thing,” they say, “has fastened on me; * I have taken to my bed and will never get up again.”

9 Even my best friend, whom I trusted, who broke bread with me, * has lifted up a heel and turned against me.

10 But you, O LORD, be merciful to me and raise me up, * and I shall repay them.

11 By this I know you are pleased with me, * that my enemy does not triumph over me.

12 In my integrity you hold me fast, * and shall set me before your face for ever.

13 Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, * from age to age. Amen. Amen.
Book Two

42 Quemadmodum

1. As the deer longs for the water-brooks, *
   so longs my soul for you, O God.

2. My soul is athirst for God, athirst for the living God; *
   when shall I come to appear before the presence of God?

3. My tears have been my food day and night, *
   while all day long they say to me,
   “Where now is your God?”

4. I pour out my soul when I think on these things: *
   how I went with the multitude and led them into the house of God,

5. With the voice of praise and thanksgiving, *
   among those who keep holy-day.

6. Why are you so full of heaviness, O my soul? *
   and why are you so disquieted within me?

7. Put your trust in God; *
   to whom I will give thanks,
   who is the help of my countenance, and my God.

8. My soul is heavy within me; *
   therefore I will remember you from the land of Jordan,
   and from the peak of Mizar among the heights of Hermon.

9. One deep calls to another in the noise of your cataracts; *
   all your rapids and floods have gone over me.

10. The LORD grants loving-kindness in the daytime; *
    in the night season the Lord’s song is with me,
    a prayer to the God of my life.
11 I will say to the God of my strength, “Why have you forgotten me? *
      and why do I go so heavily while the enemy
      oppresses me?”

12 While my bones are being broken, *
      my enemies mock me to my face;

13 All day long they mock me *
      and say to me, “Where now is your God?”

14 Why are you so full of heaviness, O my soul? *
      and why are you so disquieted within me?

15 Put your trust in God; *
      for I will yet give thanks to the Lord,
      who is the help of my countenance, and my God.

43 Judica me, Deus

1 Give judgment for me, O God,
   and defend my cause against an ungodly people; *
      deliver me from the deceitful and the wicked.

2 For you are the God of my strength;
   why have you put me from you? *
      and why do I go so heavily while the enemy
      oppresses me?

3 Send out your light and your truth, that they may lead me, *
   and bring me to your holy hill
   and to your dwelling;

4 That I may go to the altar of God,
   to the God of my joy and gladness; *
      and on the harp I will give thanks to you, O God my God.
5 Why are you so full of heaviness, O my soul? * and why are you so disquieted within me?
6 Put your trust in God; * for I will yet give thanks to the Lord, who is the help of my countenance, and my God.

Ninth Day: Morning Prayer

44 Deus, auribus

1 We have heard with our ears, O God, our forebears have told us, * the deeds you did in their days, in the days of old.
2 How with your hand you drove the peoples out and planted our forebears in the land; * how you destroyed nations and made your people flourish.
3 For they did not take the land by their sword, nor did their arm win the victory for them; * but your right hand, your arm, and the light of your countenance, because you favored them.
4 You are my King and my God; * you command victories for Jacob.
5 Through you we pushed back our adversaries; * through your Name we trampled on those who rose up against us.
6 For I do not rely on my bow, * and my sword does not give me the victory.
7 Surely, you gave us victory over our adversaries * and put those who hate us to shame.
8 Every day we gloried in God, *
    and we will praise your Name for ever.
9 Nevertheless, you have rejected and humbled us *
    and do not go forth with our armies.
10 You have made us fall back before our adversary, *
    and our enemies have plundered us.
11 You have made us like sheep to be eaten *
    and have scattered us among the nations.
12 You are selling your people for a trifle *
    and are making no profit on the sale of them.
13 You have made us the scorn of our neighbors, *
    a mockery and derision to those around us.
14 You have made us a byword among the nations, *
    a laughing-stock among the peoples.
15 My humiliation is daily before me, *
    and shame has covered my face;
16 Because of the taunts of the mockers and blasphemers, *
    because of the enemy and avenger.
17 All this has come upon us; *
    yet we have not forgotten you,
    nor have we betrayed your covenant.
18 Our heart never turned back, *
    nor did our footsteps stray from your path;
19 Though you thrust us down into a place of misery, *
    and covered us over with deep darkness.
20 If we have forgotten the Name of our God, *
    or stretched out our hands to some strange god, 21 Will not God find it out? *
    for the Lord knows the secrets of the heart.
22 Indeed, for your sake we are killed all the day long; * we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.

23 Awake, O Lord! why are you sleeping? * Arise! do not reject us for ever.

24 Why have you hidden your face * and forgotten our affliction and oppression?

25 We sink down into the dust; * our body cleaves to the ground.

26 Rise up, and help us, * and save us, for the sake of your steadfast love.

45 Eructavit cor meum

1 My heart is stirring with a noble song; let me recite what I have fashioned for the king; * my tongue shall be the pen of a skilled writer.

2 You are the fairest among people; * grace flows from your lips, because God has blessed you for ever.

3 Strap your sword upon your thigh, O mighty warrior, * in your pride and in your majesty.

4 Ride out and conquer in the cause of truth * and for the sake of justice.

5 Your right hand will show you marvelous things; * your arrows are very sharp, O mighty warrior.

6 The peoples are falling at your feet, * and the king’s enemies are losing heart.
Your throne, O God, endures for ever and ever, *
a scepter of righteousness is the scepter of your kingdom;
you love righteousness and hate iniquity.

Therefore God, your God, has anointed you * with the oil of gladness above your companions.

All your garments are fragrant with myrrh, aloes, and cassia, *
and the music of strings from ivory palaces makes you glad.

Kings’ daughters stand among the ladies of the court; *
on your right hand is the queen,
adorned with the gold of Ophir.

“Hear, O daughter; consider and listen closely; *
forget your people and your father’s house.

The king will have pleasure in your beauty; *
he is your master; therefore do the king honor.

The people of Tyre are here with a gift; *
the rich among the people seek your favor.”

All glorious is the princess as she enters; *
her gown is cloth-of-gold.

In embroidered apparel she is brought to the king; *
after her the bridesmaids follow in procession.

With joy and gladness they are brought, *
and enter into the palace of the king.

“In place of ancestors, O king, you shall have children; *
you shall make them rulers over all the earth.

I will make your name to be remembered
from one generation to another; *
therefore nations will praise you for ever and ever.”
1 God is our refuge and strength, *
   a very present help in trouble.

2 Therefore we will not fear, though the earth be moved, *
   and though the mountains be toppled into the depths of the sea;

3 Though its waters rage and foam, *
   and though the mountains tremble at its tumult.

4 The LORD of hosts is with us; *
   the God of Jacob is our stronghold.

5 There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God, *
   the holy habitation of the Most High.

6 God is in the midst of her;
   she shall not be overthrown; *
   God shall help her at the break of day.

7 The nations make much ado, and the kingdoms are shaken; *
   God has spoken, and the earth shall melt away.

8 The LORD of hosts is with us; *
   the God of Jacob is our stronghold.

9 Come now and look upon the works of the LORD, *
   what awesome things God has done on earth.

10 It is the Lord who makes war to cease in all the world; *
   who breaks the bow, and shatters the spear,
   and burns the shields with fire.
11 “Be still, then, and know that I am God; *
   I will be exalted among the nations;
   I will be exalted in the earth.”

12 The LORD of hosts is with us; *
    the God of Jacob is our stronghold.

Ninth Day: Evening Prayer

47 Omnes gentes, plaudite

1 Clap your hands, all you peoples; *
   shout to God with a cry of joy.

2 For the LORD Most High is to be feared; *
   God is the great King over all the earth.

3 The Lord subdues the peoples under us, *
   and the nations under our feet.

4 God chooses our inheritance for us, *
   the pride of beloved Jacob.

5 God has gone up with a shout, *
   the LORD with the sound of the ram’s-horn.

6 Sing praises to God, sing praises; *
   sing praises to our King, sing praises.

7 For God is King of all the earth; *
   sing praises with all your skill.

8 God reigns over the nations; *
   God sits upon the holy throne.

9 The nobles of the peoples have gathered together * with the people of the God of Abraham.

10 The rulers of the earth belong to God, *
    who is highly exalted.
Great is the LORD, and highly to be praised; *
in the city of our God is the holy hill.

Beautiful and lofty, the joy of all the earth, is the hill of Zion, *
the very center of the world and the city of the great King.

God is in her citadels; *
the Lord is known to be her sure refuge.

Behold, the kings of the earth assembled *
and marched forward together.

They looked and were astounded; *
they retreated and fled in terror.

Trembling seized them there; *
they writhed like a woman in childbirth,
like ships of the sea when the east wind shatters them.

As we have heard, so have we seen,
in the city of the LORD of hosts, in the city of our God; *
God has established her for ever.

We have waited in silence on your loving-kindness, O God, *
in the midst of your temple.

Your praise, like your Name, O God, reaches to
the world’s end; *
your right hand is full of justice.

Let Mount Zion be glad
and the cities of Judah rejoice, *
because of your judgments.

Make the circuit of Zion;
walk round about her; *
count the number of her towers.
Consider well her bulwarks;
examine her strongholds; *
that you may tell those who come after.

This God is our God for ever and ever; *
who shall be our guide for evermore.

Hear this, all you peoples;
hearken, all you who dwell in the world, *
you of high degree and low, rich and poor together.

My mouth shall speak of wisdom, *
and my heart shall meditate on understanding.

I will incline my ear to a proverb *
and set forth my riddle upon the harp.

Why should I be afraid in evil days, *
when the wickedness of those at my heels surrounds me,

The wickedness of those who put their trust in their goods, *
and boast of their great riches?

We can never ransom ourselves, *
or deliver to God the price of our life;

For the ransom of our life is so great, *
that we should never have enough to pay it,

In order to live for ever and ever, *
and never see the grave.

For we see that the wise die also;
like the dull and stupid they perish *
and leave their wealth to those who come after them.
10 Their graves shall be their homes for ever,
    their dwelling places from generation to generation, *
    though they call the lands after their own names.

11 Even though honored, they cannot live for ever; *
    they are like the beasts that perish.

12 Such is the way of those who foolishly trust in themselves, *
    and the end of those who delight in their own words.

13 Like a flock of sheep they are destined to die;
   Death is their shepherd; *
   they go down straightway to the grave.

14 Their form shall waste away, *
    and the land of the dead shall be their home.

15 But God will ransom my life; *
    the Lord will snatch me from the grasp of death.

16 Do not be envious when some become rich, *
    or when the grandeur of their house increases;

17 For they will carry nothing away at their death, *
    nor will their grandeur follow them.

18 Though they thought highly of themselves while they lived, *
    and were praised for their success,

19 They shall join the company of their forebears, *
    who will never see the light again.

20 Those who are honored, but have no understanding, *
    are like the beasts that perish.
1 The LORD, the God of gods, has spoken; *
The Lord has called the earth from the rising of the sun to its setting.

2 Out of Zion, perfect in its beauty, *
God is revealed in glory.

3 Our God will come and will not keep silence; *
before God there is a consuming flame, and round about a raging storm.

4 The Lord calls the heavens and the earth from above *
to witness the judgment of all people.

5 “Gather before me my loyal followers, * those who have made a covenant with me and sealed it with sacrifice.”

6 Let the heavens declare the rightness of the Lord’s cause; *
for God alone is judge.

7 Hear, O my people, and I will speak:
“O Israel, I will bear witness against you; *
for I am God, your God.

8 I do not accuse you because of your sacrifices; *
your offerings are always before me.

9 I will take no bull-calf from your stalls, *
nor goats out of your pens;

10 For all the beasts of the forest are mine, *
the herds in their thousands upon the hills.
11 I know every bird in the sky, *
and the creatures of the fields are in my sight.

12 If I were hungry, I would not tell you, *
for the whole world is mine and all that is in it.

13 Do you think I eat the flesh of bulls, *
or drink the blood of goats?

14 Offer to God a sacrifice of thanksgiving *
and make good your vows to the Most High.

15 Call upon me in the day of trouble; *
I will deliver you, and you shall honor me.”

16 But to the wicked God says: *
“Why do you recite my statutes,
and take my covenant upon your lips;

17 Since you refuse discipline, *
and toss my words behind your back?

18 When you see a thief, you make them your friend, *
and you cast in your lot with adulterers.

19 You have loosed your lips for evil, *
and harnessed your tongue to a lie.

20 You are always speaking evil of your family *
and slandering your own mother’s children.

21 These things you have done, and I kept still, *
and you thought that I am like you.”

22 I have made my accusation; *
I have put my case in order before your eyes.

23 Consider this well, you who forget God, *
lest I rend you and there be none to deliver you.
24 Whoever offers me the sacrifice of thanksgiving
honors me; *
but to those who keep in my way will I show
the salvation of God.”

51 Miserere mei, Deus

1 Have mercy on me, O God, according to your loving-kindness; *
in your great compassion blot out my offenses.

2 Wash me through and through from my wickedness *
and cleanse me from my sin.

3 For I know my transgressions, *
and my sin is ever before me.

4 Against you only have I sinned *
and done what is evil in your sight.

5 And so you are justified when you speak *
and upright in your judgment.

6 Indeed, I have been wicked from my birth, *
a sinner from my mother’s womb.

7 For behold, you look for truth deep within me, *
and will make me understand wisdom secretly.

8 Purge me from my sin, and I shall be pure; *
wash me, and I shall be clean indeed.

9 Make me hear of joy and gladness, *
that the body you have broken may rejoice.

10 Hide your face from my sins *
and blot out all my iniquities.
11 Create in me a clean heart, O God, *
and renew a right spirit within me.

12 Cast me not away from your presence *
and take not your holy Spirit from me.

13 Give me the joy of your saving help again *
and sustain me with your bountiful Spirit.

14 I shall teach your ways to the wicked, *
and sinners shall return to you.

15 Deliver me from death, O God, *
and my tongue shall sing of your righteousness,
O God of my salvation.

16 Open my lips, O Lord, *
and my mouth shall proclaim your praise.

17 Had you desired it, I would have offered sacrifice, *
but you take no delight in burnt-offerings.

18 The sacrifice of God is a troubled spirit; *
a broken and contrite heart, O God, you will not despise.

19 Be favorable and gracious to Zion, *
and rebuild the walls of Jerusalem.

20 Then you will be pleased with the appointed sacrifices,
with burnt-offerings and oblations; *
then shall they offer young bullocks upon your altar.

52 Quid gloriaris?

1 You tyrant, why do you boast of wickedness *
against the godly all day long?
2 You plot ruin;
your tongue is like a sharpened razor, *
   O worker of deception.
3 You love evil more than good *
   and lying more than speaking the truth.
4 You love all words that hurt, *
   O you deceitful tongue.
5 Oh, that God would demolish you utterly, *
   topple you, and snatch you from your dwelling,
   and root you out of the land of the living!
6 The righteous shall see and tremble, *
   and they shall laugh at him, saying,
7 “This is the one who did not take God for a refuge, *
   but trusted in great wealth and relied upon wickedness.”
8 But I am like a green olive tree in the house of God; *
   I trust in the mercy of God for ever and ever.
9 I will give you thanks for what you have done *
   and declare the goodness of your Name in the presence of the godly.

Tenth Day: Evening Prayer

53 Dixit insipiens

1 The fool has said, “There is no God.” *
   All are corrupt and commit abominable acts;
   there is none who does any good.
2 God looks down from heaven upon us all, *
to see if there is any who is wise,
if there is one who seeks after God.

3 Every one has proved faithless;
all alike have turned bad; *
there is none who does good; no, not one.

4 Have they no knowledge, those evildoers *
who eat up my people like bread and do not call upon God?

5 See how greatly they tremble,
such trembling as never was; *
for God has scattered the bones of the enemy;
they are put to shame, because God has rejected them.

6 Oh, that Israel’s deliverance would come out of Zion! *
when God restores the fortunes of Israel,
Jacob will rejoice and Israel be glad.

54 Deus, in nomine

1 Save me, O God, by your Name; *
in your might, defend my cause.

2 Hear my prayer, O God; *
give ear to the words of my mouth.

3 For the arrogant have risen up against me,
and the ruthless have sought my life; *
those who have no regard for God.

4 Behold, God is my helper; *
it is the Lord who sustains my life.

5 Render evil to those who spy on me; *
in your faithfulness, destroy them.
6 I will offer you a freewill sacrifice *
    and praise your Name, O LORD, for it is good.
7 For you have rescued me from every trouble, *
    and my eye has seen the ruin of my foes.

55 Exaudi, Deus

1 Hear my prayer, O God; *
    do not hide yourself from my petition.
2 Listen to me and answer me; *
    I have no peace, because of my cares.
3 I am shaken by the noise of the enemy *
    and by the pressure of the wicked;
4 For they have cast an evil spell upon me *
    and are set against me in fury.
5 My heart quakes within me, *
    and the terrors of death have fallen upon me.
6 Fear and trembling have come over me, *
    and horror overwhelms me.
7 And I said, “Oh, that I had wings like a dove! *
    I would fly away and be at rest.
8 I would flee to a far-off place *
    and make my lodging in the wilderness.
9 I would hasten to escape * from the stormy wind and tempest.” 10 Swallow them up, O Lord;
    confound their speech; *
    for I have seen violence and strife in the city.
11 Day and night the watchmen make their rounds
    upon her walls, *
    but trouble and misery are in the midst of her.

12 There is corruption at her heart; *
    her streets are never free of oppression and deceit.

13 For had it been an adversary who taunted me,
    then I could have borne it; *
    or had it been an enemy who spoke against me,
    then I could have hidden.

14 But it was you, someone after my own heart, *
    my companion, my own familiar friend.

15 We took sweet counsel together, *
    and walked with the throng in the house of God.

16 Let death come upon them suddenly;
    let them go down alive into the grave; *
    for wickedness is in their dwellings, in their very midst.

17 But I will call upon God, *
    and the LORD will deliver me.

18 In the evening, in the morning, and at noonday,
    I will complain and lament, *
    and God will hear my voice.

19 The Lord will bring me safely back from the battle waged against me; *
    for there are many who fight me.

20 God, who is enthroned of old, will hear me and bring them down; *
    they never change; they do not fear God.

21 My companion stretched forth a hand against our comrade; *
    and has broken the covenant.
22 Speech is softer than butter, *
   but war is inside.
23 Words are smoother than oil, *
   but they are drawn swords.
24 Cast your burden upon the LORD,
   who will sustain you; *
   and will never let the righteous stumble.
25 For you will bring the bloodthirsty and deceitful *
   down to the pit of destruction, O God.
26 They shall not live out half their days, *
   but I will put my trust in you.

Eleventh Day: Morning Prayer

56 Miserere mei, Deus

1 Have mercy on me, O God,
   for my enemies are hounding me; *
   all day long they assault and oppress me.
2 They hound me all the day long; *
   truly there are many who fight against me, O Most High.
3 Whenever I am afraid, *
   I will put my trust in you.
4 In God, whose word I praise,
   In God I trust and will not be afraid, *
   for what can flesh do to me?
5 All day long they damage my cause; *
   their only thought is to do me evil.
6 They band together; they lie in wait; *
   they spy upon my footsteps;
because they seek my life.

7 Shall they escape despite their wickedness? *
   O God, in your anger, cast down the peoples.

8 You have noted my lamentation;
put my tears into your bottle; *
   are they not recorded in your book?

9 Whenever I call upon you, my enemies will be put to flight; *
   this I know, for God is on my side.

10 In God the LORD, whose word I praise,
in God I trust and will not be afraid, *
   for what can mortals do to me?

11 I am bound by the vow I made to you, O God; *
   I will present to you thank-offerings;

12 For you have rescued my soul from death and my feet
   from stumbling, *
   that I may walk before you in the light of the living.

57 Miserere mei, Deus

1 Be merciful to me, O God, be merciful,
for I have taken refuge in you; *
   in the shadow of your wings will I take refuge
   until this time of trouble has gone by.

2 I will call upon the Most High God, *
   the God who maintains my cause.

3 The Lord will send from heaven and save me;
The Lord will confound those who trample upon me; *
   God will send forth love and faithfulness.
4 I lie in the midst of lions that devour the people; *
   their teeth are spears and arrows,
   their tongue a sharp sword.

5 They have laid a net for my feet,
   and I am bowed low; *
   they have dug a pit before me,
   but have fallen into it themselves.

6 Exalt yourself above the heavens, O God, *
   and your glory over all the earth.

7 My heart is firmly fixed, O God, my heart is fixed; *
   I will sing and make melody.

8 Wake up, my spirit;
   awake, lute and harp; *
   I myself will waken the dawn.

9 I will confess you among the peoples, O LORD; *
   I will sing praise to you among the nations.

10 For your loving-kindness is greater than the heavens, *
    and your faithfulness reaches to the clouds.

11 Exalt yourself above the heavens, O God, *
    and your glory over all the earth.

58 Si vere utique

1 Do you indeed decree righteousness, you rulers? *
   do you judge the peoples with equity?

2 No; you devise evil in your hearts, *
   and your hands deal out violence in the land.

3 The wicked are perverse from the womb; *
   liars go astray from their birth.
4 They are as venomous as a serpent, *
    they are like the deaf adder which stops its ears,
5 Which does not heed the voice of the charmer, *
    no matter how skillful the charming.
6 O God, break their teeth in their mouths; *
    pull the fangs of the young lions, O LORD.
7 Let them vanish like water that runs off; *
    let them wither like trodden grass.
8 Let them be like the snail that melts away, *
    like a stillborn child that never sees the sun.
9 Before they bear fruit, let them be cut down like a brier; *
    like thorns and thistles let them be swept away.
10 The righteous will be glad when they see the vengeance; *
    they will bathe their feet in the blood of the wicked.
11 And they will say,
    “Surely, there is a reward for the righteous; *
    surely, there is a God who rules in the earth.”

Eleventh Day: Evening Prayer

59 Eripe me de inimicis

1 Rescue me from my enemies, O God; *
    protect me from those who rise up against me.
2 Rescue me from evildoers *
    and save me from those who thirst for my blood.
3 See how they lie in wait for my life,
    how the mighty gather together against me; *
    not for any offense or fault of mine, O LORD.
4 Not because of any guilt of mine *
    they run and prepare themselves for battle.
5 Rouse yourself, come to my side, and see; *
   for you, LORD God of hosts, are Israel’s God.
6 Awake, and punish all the ungodly; *
    show no mercy to those who are faithless and evil.
7 They go to and fro in the evening; *
    they snarl like dogs and run about the city.
8 Behold, they boast with their mouths,
    and taunts are on their lips; *
   “For who.” they say, “will hear us?”
9 But you, O LORD, you laugh at them; *
   you laugh all the ungodly to scorn.
10 My eyes are fixed on you, O my Strength; *
    for you, O God, are my stronghold.
11 My merciful God comes to meet me; *
    God will let me look in triumph on my enemies.
12 Slay them, O God, lest my people forget; *
    send them reeling by your might
    and put them down, O Lord our shield.
13 For the sins of their mouths, for the words of their lips,
    for the cursing and lies that they utter, *
   let them be caught in their pride.
14 Make an end of them in your wrath; *
    make an end of them, and they shall be no more.
15 Let everyone know that God rules in Jacob, *
    and to the ends of the earth.
16 They go to and fro in the evening; *
    they snarl like dogs and run about the city.
17 They forage for food, *
    and if they are not filled, they howl.

18 For my part, I will sing of your strength; *
    I will celebrate your love in the morning;

19 For you have become my stronghold, *
    a refuge in the day of my trouble.

20 To you, O my Strength, will I sing; *
    for you, O God, are my stronghold and my merciful God.

60 Deus, repulisti nos

1 O God, you have cast us off and broken us; *
    you have been angry;
    oh, take us back to you again.

2 You have shaken the earth and split it open; *
    repair the cracks in it, for it totters.

3 You have made your people know hardship; *
    you have given us wine that makes us stagger.

4 You have set up a banner for those who fear you, *
    to be a refuge from the power of the bow.

5 Save us by your right hand and answer us, *
    that those who are dear to you may be delivered.

6 God spoke from the holy place and said: *
    “I will exult and parcel out Shechem;
    I will divide the valley of Succoth.

7 Gilead is mine and Manasseh is mine; *
    Ephraim is my helmet and Judah my scepter.
8 Moab is my wash-basin,
on Edom I throw down my sandal to claim it, *
and over Philistia will I shout in triumph.”

9 Who will lead me into the strong city? *
who will bring me into Edom?

10 Have you not cast us off, O God? *
you no longer go out, O God, with our armies.

11 Grant us your help against the enemy, *
for human help is worthless.

12 With God we will do valiant deeds, *
and the Lord shall tread our enemies under foot.

61 Exaudi, Deus

1 Hear my cry, O God, *
and listen to my prayer.

2 I call upon you from the ends of the earth
with heaviness in my heart; *
set me upon the rock that is higher than I.

3 For you have been my refuge, *
a strong tower against the enemy.

4 I will dwell in your house for ever; *
I will take refuge under the cover of your wings.

5 For you, O God, have heard my vows; *
you have granted me the heritage of those who fear your Name.

6 Add length of days to the king’s life; *
let his years extend over many generations.
7  Let the king sit enthroned before God for ever; *
    bid love and faithfulness watch over him.
8  So will I always sing the praise of your Name, *
    and day by day I will fulfill my vows.

Twelfth Day: Morning Prayer

62  Nonne Deo?

1  For God alone my soul in silence waits; *
    from God comes my salvation.
2  The Lord alone is my rock and my salvation, *
    my stronghold, so that I shall not be greatly shaken.
3  How long will you assail me to crush me,
    all of you together, *
    as if you were a leaning fence, a toppling wall?
4  They seek only to bring me down from my place of honor; *
    lies are their chief delight.
5  They bless with their lips, *
    but in their hearts they curse.
6  For God alone my soul in silence waits; *
    truly, my hope is in the Lord.
7  God alone is my rock and my salvation, *
    my stronghold, so that I shall not be shaken.
8  In God is my safety and my honor; *
    God is my strong rock and my refuge.
9  Put your trust in the Lord always, O people, *
    pour out your hearts, for God is our refuge.
10 Those of high degree are but a fleeting breath, *
even those of low estate cannot be trusted.

11 On the scales they are lighter than a breath, *
all of them together.

12 Put no trust in extortion;
in robbery take no empty pride; *
though wealth increase, set not your heart upon it.

13 God has spoken once, twice have I heard it, *
that power belongs to God.

14 Steadfast love is yours, O Lord, *
for you repay everyone according to their deeds.

63 Deus, Deus meus

1 O God, you are my God; eagerly I seek you; *
my soul thirsts for you, my flesh faints for you,
as in a barren and dry land where there is no water.

2 Therefore I have gazed upon you in your holy place, *
that I might behold your power and your glory.

3 For your loving-kindness is better than life itself; *
my lips shall give you praise.

4 So will I bless you as long as I live *
and lift up my hands in your Name.

5 My soul is content, as with marrow and fatness, *
and my mouth praises you with joyful lips,

6 When I remember you upon my bed, *
and meditate on you in the night watches.

7 For you have been my helper, *
and under the shadow of your wings I will rejoice.
8 My soul clings to you; *
your right hand holds me fast.

9 May those who seek my life to destroy it * go down into the depths of the earth;

10 Let them fall upon the edge of the sword, *
and let them be food for jackals.

11 But the king will rejoice in God;
all those who swear by the king will be glad; *
for the mouth of those who speak lies shall be stopped.

64 Exaudi, Deus

1 Hear my voice, O God, when I complain; *
protect my life from fear of the enemy.

2 Hide me from the conspiracy of the wicked, *
from the mob of evildoers.

3 They sharpen their tongue like a sword, *
and aim their bitter words like arrows,

4 That they may shoot down the blameless from ambush; *
they shoot without warning and are not afraid.

5 They hold fast to their evil course; *
they plan how they may hide their snares.

6 They say, “Who will see us?
who will find out our crimes? *
we have thought out a perfect plot.”

7 The human mind and heart are a mystery; *
but God will loose an arrow at them,
and suddenly they will be wounded.
The Lord will make them trip over their tongues, * and all who see them will shake their heads.
Everyone will stand in awe and declare God’s deeds; * they will recognize God’s works.
The righteous will rejoice in the LORD and put their trust in God, * and all who are true of heart will glory.

Twelfth Day: Evening Prayer

65  Te deum hymnus

You are to be praised, O God, in Zion; * to you shall vows be performed in Jerusalem.
To you that hear prayer shall all flesh come, * because of their transgressions.
Our sins are stronger than we are, * but you will blot them out.
Happy are they whom you choose and draw to your courts to dwell there! * they will be satisfied by the beauty of your house, by the holiness of your temple.
Awesome things will you show us in your righteousness, O God of our salvation, * O Hope of all the ends of the earth and of the seas that are far away.
You make fast the mountains by your power; * they are girded about with might.
You still the roaring of the seas, * the roaring of their waves, and the clamor of the peoples.
Those who dwell at the ends of the earth will tremble at your marvelous signs; * you make the dawn and the dusk to sing for joy.

You visit the earth and water it abundantly; you make it very plenteous; * the river of God is full of water.

You prepare the grain, * for so you provide for the earth.

You drench the furrows and smooth out the ridges; * with heavy rain you soften the ground and bless its increase.

You crown the year with your goodness, * and your paths overflow with plenty.

May the fields of the wilderness be rich for grazing, * and the hills be clothed with joy.

May the meadows cover themselves with flocks, and the valleys cloak themselves with grain; * let them shout for joy and sing.

Be joyful in God, all you lands; * sing the glory of God’s Name; sing the glory of the Lord’s praise.

Say to God, “How awesome are your deeds! * because of your great strength your enemies cringe before you.

All the earth bows down before you, * sings to you, sings out your Name.”
Come now and see the works of God, * how wonderful the Lord is toward all people.

God turned the sea into dry land, so that they went through the water on foot, * and there we rejoiced in the Lord.

In might God rules for ever; and keeps watch over the nations; * let no rebel rise up against the Lord.

Bless our God, you peoples; * let the voice of praise be heard;

Who holds our souls in life, * and will not allow our feet to slip.

For you, O God, have proved us; * you have tried us just as silver is tried.

You brought us into the snare; * you laid heavy burdens upon our backs.

You let enemies ride over our heads; we went through fire and water; * but you brought us out into a place of refreshment.

I will enter your house with burnt-offerings and will pay you my vows, * which I promised with my lips and spoke with my mouth when I was in trouble.

I will offer you sacrifices of fat beasts with the smoke of rams; * I will give you oxen and goats.

Come and listen, all you who fear God, * and I will tell you what the Lord has done for me.
15 I called out to God with my mouth, *
    the Lord’s praise was on my tongue.
16 If I had found evil in my heart, *
    the Lord would not have heard me;
17 But in truth God has heard me; *
    and has attended to the voice of my prayer.
18 Blessed be God, who has not rejected my prayer, *
    nor withheld love from me.

67 Deus misereatur

1 May God be merciful to us and bless us, *
    show us the light of holiness and come to us.
2 Let your ways be known upon earth, *
    your saving health among all nations.
3 Let the peoples praise you, O God; *
    let all the peoples praise you.
4 Let the nations be glad and sing for joy, *
    for you judge the peoples with equity
    and guide all the nations upon earth.
5 Let the peoples praise you, O God; *
    let all the peoples praise you.
6 The earth has brought forth her increase; *
    may God, our own God, give us a blessing.
7 May God give us a blessing, *
    and may all the ends of the earth stand in awe.
68 Exsurgat Deus

1 Let God arise, and all enemies be scattered; *
   let those who hate the Lord flee.

2 Let them vanish like smoke when the wind drives it away; *
   as the wax melts at the fire, so let the wicked perish at the presence of God.

3 But let the righteous be glad and rejoice before God; *
   let them also be merry and joyful.

4 Sing to God, sing praises to the holy Name;
   exalt the One who rides upon the heavens; *
   YAHWEH is God’s Name, rejoice in it!

5 Care giver of orphans, defender of widows, *
   God in the holy habitation!

6 God gives the solitary a home and brings forth prisoners into freedom; *
   but the rebels shall live in dry places.

7 O God, when you went forth before your people, *
   when you marched through the wilderness,

8 The earth shook, and the skies poured down rain,
   at the presence of God, the God of Sinai, *
   at the presence of God, the God of Israel.

9 You sent a gracious rain, O God, upon your inheritance; *
   you refreshed the land when it was weary.

10 Your people found their home in it; *
   in your goodness, O God, you have made provision for the poor.
11 The Lord gave the word; *
great was the company of women who bore the tidings:

12 “Kings with their armies are fleeing away; *
the women at home are dividing the spoils.”

13 Though you lingered among the sheepfolds, *
you shall be like a dove whose wings are covered with silver,
whose feathers are like green gold.

14 When the Almighty scattered kings, *
it was like snow falling in Zalmon.

15 O mighty mountain, O hill of Bashan! *
O rugged mountain, O hill of Bashan!

16 Why do you look with envy, O rugged mountain,
at the hill which God chose for a resting place? *
truly, the LORD will dwell there for ever.

17 The chariots of God are twenty thousand,
even thousands of thousands; *
the Lord comes in holiness from Sinai.

18 You have gone up on high and led captivity captive;
you have received gifts even from your enemies, *
that the LORD God might dwell among them.

19 Blessed be the Lord day by day, *
the God of our salvation, who bears our burdens.

20 The Lord is our God, the God of our salvation; *
God is the LORD, by whom we escape death.

21 God shall crush the heads of our enemies, *
and the hairy scalp of those who go on still in their wickedness.
22 The Lord has said, “I will bring them back from Bashan; *
   I will bring them back from the depths of the sea;
23 That your foot may be dipped in blood, *
   the tongues of your dogs in the blood of your enemies.”

24 They see your procession, O God, *
   your procession into the sanctuary, my God and my King.
25 The singers go before, musicians follow after, *
   in the midst of maidens playing upon the hand-drums.
26 Bless God in the congregation; *
   bless the LORD, you that are of the fountain of Israel.
27 There is Benjamin, least of the tribes, at the head;
   the princes of Judah in a company; *
   and the princes of Zebulon and Naphtali.
28 Send forth your strength, O God; *
   establish, O God, what you have wrought for us.
29 Kings shall bring gifts to you, *
   for your temple’s sake at Jerusalem.
30 Rebuke the wild beast of the reeds, *
   and the peoples, a herd of wild bulls with its calves.
31 Trample down those who lust after silver; *
   scatter the peoples that delight in war.
32 Let tribute be brought out of Egypt; *
   let Ethiopia stretch out her hands to God.
33 Sing to God, O kingdoms of the earth; *
   sing praises to the Lord, 34 Who rides in the heavens, the ancient heavens; *
   and sends forth a voice, a mighty voice.
35 Ascribe power to God; *
    whose majesty is over Israel;
    whose strength is in the skies.
36 How wonderful is God in the holy places! *
    the God of Israel giving strength and power to the people!
    Blessed be God!

Thirteenth Day: Evening Prayer

69 Salvum me fac=

1 Save me, O God, *
    for the waters have risen up to my neck.
2 I am sinking in deep mire, *
    and there is no firm ground for my feet.
3 I have come into deep waters, *
    and the torrent washes over me.
4 I have grown weary with my crying;
    my throat is inflamed; *
    my eyes have failed from looking for my God.
5 Those who hate me without a cause are more than the hairs of my head;
    my lying foes who would destroy me are mighty. *
    Must I then give back what I never stole?
6 O God, you know my foolishness, *
    and my faults are not hidden from you.
7 Let not those who hope in you be put to shame through me,
    Lord GOD of hosts; *
    let not those who seek you be disgraced because of me,
    O God of Israel.
Surely, for your sake have I suffered reproach, *
and shame has covered my face.

I have become a stranger to my own kindred, *
an alien to my mother’s children.

Zeal for your house has eaten me up; *
the scorn of those who scorn you has fallen upon me.

I humbled myself with fasting, *
but that was turned to my reproach.

I put on sack-cloth also, *
and became a byword among them.

Those who sit at the gate murmur against me, *
and the drunkards make songs about me.

But as for me, this is my prayer to you, *
at the time you have set, O LORD:

“In your great mercy, O God, *
answer me with your unfailing help.

Save me from the mire; do not let me sink; *
let me be rescued from those who hate me
and out of the deep waters.

Let not the torrent of waters wash over me,
neither let the deep swallow me up; *
do not let the Pit shut its mouth upon me.

Answer me, O LORD, for your love is kind; *
in your great compassion, turn to me.”

“Hide not your face from your servant; *
be swift and answer me, for I am in distress.

Draw near to me and redeem me; *
because of my enemies deliver me.
21 You know my reproach, my shame, and my dishonor; *
   my adversaries are all in your sight.’’

22 Reproach has broken my heart, and it cannot be healed; *
   I looked for sympathy, but there was none,
   for comforters, but I could find no one.

23 They gave me gall to eat, *
   and when I was thirsty, they gave me vinegar to drink.

24 Let the table before them be a trap *
   and their sacred feasts a snare.

25 Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see, *
   and give them continual trembling in their loins.

26 Pour out your indignation upon them, *
   and let the fierceness of your anger overtake them.

27 Let their camp be desolate, *
   and let there be none to dwell in their tents.

28 For they persecute the one whom you have stricken *
   and add to the pain of those whom you have pierced.

29 Lay to their charge guilt upon guilt, *
   and let them not receive your vindication.

30 Let them be wiped out of the book of the living * and not be written among the righteous.

31 As for me, I am afflicted and in pain; *
   your help, O God, will lift me up on high.

32 I will praise the Name of God in song; *
   I will proclaim God’s greatness with thanksgiving.

33 This will please the LORD more than an offering of oxen, *
   more than bullocks with horns and hoofs.
34 The afflicted shall see and be glad; * you who seek God, your heart shall live.
35 For the LORD listens to the needy, * and prisoners God does not despise.
36 Let the heavens and the earth send praise, * the seas and all that moves in them;
37 For God will save Zion and rebuild the cities of Judah; * they shall live there and have it in possession.
38 The children of God’s servants will inherit it, * and those who love the Name of the Lord will dwell therein.

70 Deus, in adjutorium

1 Be pleased, O God, to deliver me; * O LORD, make haste to help me.
2 Let those who seek my life be ashamed and altogether dismayed; * let those who take pleasure in my misfortune draw back and be disgraced.
3 Let those who say to me “Aha!” and gloat over me turn back, * because they are ashamed.
4 Let all who seek you rejoice and be glad in you; * let those who love your salvation say for ever, “Great is the LORD!”
5 But as for me, I am poor and needy; * come to me speedily, O God.
6 You are my helper and my deliverer; * O LORD, do not tarry.
Fourteenth Day: Morning Prayer

71  In te, Domine, speravi

1  In you, O LORD, have I taken refuge; *
   let me never be ashamed.

2  In your righteousness, deliver me and set me free; *
   incline your ear to me and save me.

3  Be my strong rock, a castle to keep me safe; *
   you are my crag and my stronghold.

4  Deliver me, my God, from the hand of the wicked, *
   from the clutches of the evildoer and the oppressor.

5  For you are my hope, O LORD God, *
   my confidence since I was young.

6  I have been sustained by you ever since I was born;
   from my mother’s womb you have been my strength; *
   my praise shall be always of you.

7  I have become a portent to many; *
   but you are my refuge and my strength.

8  Let my mouth be full of your praise *
   and your glory all the day long.

9  Do not cast me off in my old age; *
   forsake me not when my strength fails.

10  For my enemies are talking against me, *
    and those who lie in wait for my life take counsel together.

11  They say that God has forsaken me;
    They seek to go after me and seize me; *
    because there is none who will save.”
12 O God, be not far from me; *
    come quickly to help me, O my God.

13 Let those who set themselves against me be put to shame and be disgraced; *
    let those who seek to do me evil be covered with scorn and reproach.

14 But I shall always wait in patience, *
    and shall praise you more and more.

15 My mouth shall recount your mighty acts and saving deeds all day long; *
    though I cannot know the number of them.

16 I will begin with the mighty works of the Lord GOD; *
    I will recall your righteousness, yours alone.

17 O God, you have taught me since I was young, *
    and to this day I tell of your wonderful works.

18 And now that I am old and gray-headed, O God, do not forsake me, * till I make known your strength to this generation and your power to all who are to come.

19 Your righteousness, O God, reaches to the heavens; *
    you have done great things;
    who is like you, O God?

20 You have showed me great troubles and adversities, *
    but you will restore my life
    and bring me up again from the deep places of the earth.

21 You strengthen me more and more; *
    you enfold and comfort me,
Therefore I will praise you upon the lyre for your faithfulness, O my God; *
I will sing to you with the harp, O Holy One of Israel.

My lips will sing with joy when I play to you, *
and so will my soul, which you have redeemed.

My tongue will proclaim your righteousness all day long, *
for they are ashamed and disgraced who sought to do me harm.

72  Deus, judicium

1  Give the King your justice, O God, *
and your righteousness to the King’s heir
2  To rule your people righteously *
and the poor with justice;
3  That the mountains may bring prosperity to the people, *
and the little hills bring righteousness.
4  To defend the needy among the people; *
and rescue the poor while crushing the oppressor.
5  To live as long as the sun and moon endure, *
from one generation to another.
6  To come down like rain upon the mown field, *
like showers that water the earth.
7  In this time shall the righteous shall flourish; *
and there shall be abundance of peace till the moon shall be no more.
8  Let the King rule from sea to sea, *
and from the River to the ends of the earth.
9 Foes shall bow down,*
and enemies lick the dust.

10 The kings of Tarshish and of the isles shall pay tribute,*
and the kings of Arabia and Saba offer gifts.

11 All kings shall bow down,*
and all the nations do service.

12 The poor who cry out in distress will be delivered,*
and the oppressed who has no helper.

13 The lowly and poor will be shown pity;*
The lives of the needy will be preserved.

14 Their lives shall be redeemed from oppression and violence,*
and dear shall their blood be.

15 Long live the King!
and may there be gold from Arabia;*
may prayer be made always,
and may blessing flow forth all the day long.

16 May there be abundance of grain on the earth,
growing thick even on the hilltops;*
may its fruit flourish like Lebanon,
and its grain like grass upon the earth.

17 May the King’s name remain for ever and be established as long as the sun endures;*
may all the nations bless themselves and call our King blessed.

18 Blessed be the Lord GOD, the God of Israel,*
who alone does wondrous deeds!

19 And blessed be God’s glorious Name for ever!*
and may all the earth be filled with glory.
Book Three

Fourteenth Day: Evening Prayer

73 Quam bonus Israel!

1 Truly, God is good to Israel, *
   to those who are pure in heart.

2 But as for me, my feet had nearly slipped; *
   I had almost tripped and fallen;

3 Because I envied the proud *
   and saw the prosperity of the wicked:

4 For they suffer no pain, *
   and their bodies are sleek and sound;

5 In the misfortunes of others they have no share; *
   they are not afflicted as others are;

6 Therefore they wear their pride like a necklace *
   and wrap their violence about them like a cloak.

7 Their iniquity comes from gross minds, *
   and their hearts overflow with wicked thoughts.

8 They scoff and speak maliciously; *
   out of their haughtiness they plan oppression.

9 They set their mouths against the heavens, *
   and their evil speech runs through the world.

10 And so the people turn to them *
    and find in them no fault.

11 They say, “How should God know? *
    is there knowledge in the Most High?”
12 So then, these are the wicked; *
   always at ease, they increase their wealth.
13 In vain have I kept my heart clean, *
   and washed my hands in innocence.
14 I have been afflicted all day long, *
   and punished every morning.
15 Had I gone on speaking this way, *
   I should have betrayed the generation of your children.
16 When I tried to understand these things, *
   it was too hard for me;
17 Until I entered the sanctuary of God *
   and discerned the end of the wicked.
18 Surely, you set them in slippery places; *
   you cast them down in ruin.
19 Oh, how suddenly do they come to destruction, *
   come to an end, and perish from terror!
20 Like a dream when one awakens, O Lord, *
   when you arise you will make their image vanish.
21 When my mind became embittered, *
   I was sorely wounded in my heart.
22 I was stupid and had no understanding; *
   I was like a brute beast in your presence.
23 Yet I am always with you; *
   you hold me by my right hand.
24 You will guide me by your counsel, *
   and afterwards receive me with glory.
25 Whom have I in heaven but you? *
   and having you I desire nothing upon earth.
26 Though my flesh and my heart should waste away, *
   God is the strength of my heart and my portion for ever.

27 Truly, those who forsake you will perish; *
   you destroy all who are unfaithful.

28 But it is good for me to be near God; *
   I have made the Lord GOD my refuge.

29 I will speak of all your works *
   in the gates of the city of Zion.

74 Ut quid, Deus?

1 O God, why have you utterly cast us off? *
   why is your wrath so hot against the sheep of your pasture?

2 Remember your congregation that you purchased long ago, *
   the tribe you redeemed to be your inheritance,
   and Mount Zion where you dwell.

3 Turn your steps toward the endless ruins; *
   the enemy has laid waste everything in your sanctuary.

4 Your adversaries roared in your holy place; *
   they set up their banners as tokens of victory.

5 They were like those coming up with axes to a grove of trees; *
   they broke down all your carved work with hatchets
   and hammers.

6 They set fire to your holy place; *
   they defiled the dwelling-place of your Name
   and razed it to the ground.

7 They said to themselves, “Let us destroy them altogether.” *
   They burned down all the meeting-places of God
   in the land.
There are no signs for us to see;
there is no prophet left; *
there is not one among us who knows how long.

How long, O God, will the adversary scoff? *
will the enemy blaspheme your Name for ever?

Why do you draw back your hand? *
why is your right hand hidden in your bosom?

Yet God is my King from ancient times, *
victorious in the midst of the earth.

You divided the sea by your might *
and shattered the heads of the dragons upon the waters;

You crushed the heads of Leviathan *
who you fed to the people of the desert for food.

You split open spring and torrent; *
you dried up ever-flowing rivers.

Yours is the day, yours also the night; *
you established the moon and the sun.

You fixed all the boundaries of the earth; *
you made both summer and winter.

Remember, O Lord, how the enemy scoffed, *
how a foolish people despised your Name.

Do not hand over the life of your dove to wild beasts; *
ever forget the lives of your poor.

Look upon your covenant; *
the dark places of the earth are haunts of violence.

Let not the oppressed turn away ashamed; *
let the poor and needy praise your Name.

Arise, O God, maintain your cause; *
remember how fools revile you all day long.
22 Forget not the clamor of your adversaries, *
the unending tumult of those who rise up against you.

Fifteenth Day: Morning Prayer

75 Confitebimus tibi

1 We give you thanks, O God, we give you thanks, * calling upon your Name and declaring all your wonderful deeds.

2 “I will appoint a time,” says God; *
“I will judge with equity.

3 Though the earth and all its inhabitants are quaking, *
I will make its pillars fast.

4 I will say to the boasters, ‘Boast no more,’ *
and to the wicked, ‘Do not toss your horns;

5 Do not toss your horns so high, *
nor speak with a proud neck.”

6 For judgment is neither from the east nor from the west, *
nor yet from the wilderness or the mountains.

7 It is God who judges; *
who puts down one and lifts up another.

8 For in the LORD’s hand there is a cup,
full of spiced and foaming wine, which is poured out, *
and all the wicked of the earth shall drink and drain the dregs.

9 But I will rejoice for ever; *
I will sing praises to the God of Jacob.

10 The Lord shall break off all the horns of the wicked; *
but the horns of the righteous shall be exalted.
