Position Responsibilities:

- Lead project management and collaborate across teams to ensure compliance with our brand guidelines and appropriate messaging is used for a range of stakeholder audiences.
- Collaborate across departments to maintain style guides and organizational voice/messaging protocols to promote consistency in communications and content around the theory of change (grassroots capacity building, power) about peer funders.
- Develop and manage content production and milestones that support strategic communications, milestones, deadlines, and regular cycles of content needs.
- Manage the approval process for posting to our website and other digital properties as they are launched, including managing our email list segmentation and acting as an internal consultant to boost our engagement metrics.
- Manage the production and development of critical external-facing multimedia, multi-channel content that reflects and supports the organizational mission.
- Ensure content adheres to organizational communications policies (including style guides, message house and brand guidelines).
- Build skills to provide guidance and recommend guidelines to ensure c3/c4 compliance in communications activities.
- Provide the VP of Strategic Partnerships with insights and recommendations that help identify ROI/KPIs tied to the growth and efficacy of our Strategic Communications work, as well as propose ROIs/KPIs specific to this role.
- Travel to offsite meetings and other Equity Fund events.
- Other duties as assigned.
Education:
Bachelor’s degree preferred. Any equivalent combination of training, education, and experience demonstrating the ability to perform the position’s essential functions.

Experience and Skills:

- A minimum of 5-6 years of content creation experience to market programmatic work ideally with at least 2-3 years of that experience engaging investors, donors, foundations of other potential funders.
- Experience working for a funding intermediary and in both 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) fundraising is preferred, although not required.
- Demonstrated experience building systems to support content libraries and calendars and developing style guides and brand voice messaging. Experience working with external strategy firms to do brand audits, manage branding exercises and steward implementation of updated brand and message compliance guidelines.
- Demonstrated track record of writing and editing ability with close attention to detail, message house and style guides compliance.
- Demonstrated fluency and attunement to advancing equity in culture, operations, content production, and a commitment to employing an anti-racist/anti-oppression lens that centers grantees.
- Commitment to and experience in successfully fostering a working environment that supports the well-being of staff and recognizes that valued and supported staff are better able to serve others.
- Fluency in oral and written English required. Competency in additional languages is preferred.
- Ability to travel domestically 10-15% annually.
