Mission Statement: What is your congregation’s or organization’s Mission Statement?

The Mission of Union Church is to provide a home where all are welcome to worship God,
to learn and grow as Christians, and to share our love, friendship, and support with all those whose lives we touch.
NARRATIVE QUESTIONS

(For each narrative question, please limit your responses to no more than 1500 characters including spaces and punctuation.)

1. What is the congregation’s or organization’s vision for ministry? Additionally, describe how this vision is lived out.

Union Church of Pocantico Hills is a Protestant, nondenominational church in the reformed tradition with a history dating to 1880. People of all denominations and backgrounds are invited to become part of the religious experience at Union Church. Founded in an ecumenical spirit, the church offers a unique environment for Christian worship. A small, warm and enthusiastic congregation, an outstanding music program, a significant endowment, and a physical setting encompassing world famous windows provide the Pastor with an extraordinary pulpit.

Union Church is committed to serving the current congregation, finding new ways to engage the next generation and aspires to become pro-actively involved in the greater community at large. To accomplish these goals, the church seeks a dynamic minister who shares our vision to provide the leadership, inspiration, and continuity that will position our church to fulfill its mission throughout this century and beyond.

The present sanctuary, built in 1921, was designed by architect Ludwig W. Eisinger as the cornerstone for the planned community of Pocantico Hills that John D. Rockefeller Jr. developed below the family estate, Kykuit, and is listed in the National Register of Historic Places. Henri Matisse designed its Rose Window, one of his final creations; the nave windows are one of three series of stained-glass windows in the United States designed by Marc Chagall. The Gluck pipe organ was dedicated in 2006 in memory of Laurance S. Rockefeller and has been played by such musicians as Paul Jacobs and Gordon Turk.

The Church and its windows attract visitors from around the world. Docent-led tours are given by Historic Hudson Valley, which owns and maintains the buildings and grounds through special arrangement with the Rockefeller family and church leadership. 2. How do you feel called to reach out to address the emerging needs of your community or constituency?

In recent history, Union Church flourished for 27 years under the leadership and spiritual guidance of its recent minister (a Princeton seminary graduate and Presbyterian-ordained minister and recruited through the Hudson River Presbytery), who retired on June 30, 2019. In September 2019, after an extensive interim search in conjunction with the Presbytery, Union Church engaged an experienced Presbyterian minister (a graduate of Princeton and Union Theological Seminaries) entering interim service after many years at the helm of a large suburban congregation. Within six months of his arrival, the pandemic forced closure of live services (and delayed the Pastoral nominating process) but social media was quickly embraced to provide streaming services weekly via Zoom, Facebook and YouTube. Live services were reinstated September 2021 and live streaming will continue indefinitely to better serve the community.

The church is fortunate to be stable financially due to its pastoral endowment and the unique relationship with Historic Hudson Valley, a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit organization which owns the church building and covers major maintenance costs. Union Church retains direct ownership of a 4 bedroom, 2.5 bath manse adjacent to the church property. The church’s primary function is that of a living church and we are concerned that attendance/membership has declined gradually over the last 6-10 years from attrition, especially among families with school-age children. While this attrition is partly due to the cyclical nature of membership, strategic growth thru stable revitalization is an essential priority for Union Church to ensure that it remains a vibrant place of worship for generations to come.

Our objective is to engage a minister with administrative experience, spiritual maturity, and an eye on the future to lead inspiring worship services and support strategic growth.

3. How will this position help you to reach your vision and mission goals?

The church’s recent Mission Review (available at http://ucph.org/wp-content/uploads/2021/06/UCPH-Mission-Report-FINAL.pdf) indicated that our congregation’s top priorities are (1) to attract families with children and youth, (2) to develop a comprehensive strategy to reach new people and (3) to provide opportunities for Christian service, education and spiritual formation at every age and stage of life. Most churches also rank these three priorities highly. Union Church differed from most other churches, however, in also prioritizing relatively highly two other objectives: (4) to expand outreach ministries that provide direct services to those living on the margins of society; and (5) to work as for social and institutional change so that society might better reflect the values of the kingdom of God. Taken together, these goals present an ambitious agenda for our relatively small and aging congregation. We will need to rally our collective energy, vision and resources and to challenge our comfort and satisfaction with familiar ways of doing things.

The committee believes that the selection of the right minister is essential for the church to achieve its goals. The pastor of this congregation is the glue that binds us together, the preacher and teacher who inspires us, the leader and entrepreneur who challenges us to step beyond our comfort zones and to develop new outlets for our Christian witness. While he or she can expect enthusiastic support from church leadership and the congregation at large, these aspirations cannot be achieved without the expertise, dedication and enthusiasm of the person essential to our future, the next pastor of Union Church.

4. Provide a description of the characteristics needed by the person who is open to being called to this congregation and/or organization.

We seek a spiritually mature, compassionate and dynamic leader with demonstrated achievement in preaching and worship leadership in a church setting. The successful candidate will be a self-motivated task manager with organizational agility and the financial expertise required to oversee the business side of the church including coordination with Historic Hudson Valley, owner of the church properties. He or she should be comfortable helping us to augment our financial stewardship in order to build the financial foundations of the church. Union Church’s pastor is an important steward of continuity, providing guidance, education, inspiration, and supervision in the daily life of the church. At the same time, we hope for a pastor who has a heart for mission, a willingness to engage with the life of our community beyond the church, and an entrepreneurial spirit.

Strategy and vision are essential for the church to achieve its outreach goals as are talents needed to communicate across various platforms and social media. Our pastor will be sought as an advisor both to church leadership and to congregants needing spiritual direction and comfort. Flexibility and collaboration will be most valuable in achieving success in this position. We cannot overstate the value of interpersonal engagement in an environment increasingly marked by text messages, Zoom meetings and distractions from human interaction.

5. For what specific tasks, assignments, and programs areas will this person have responsibility?

1. Preaching, Teaching and Worship Leadership. Conduct Sunday Worship Service in coordination with the Organist/Choir Director. Revised 3/2016

Management of the fair is not a duty of the Pastor although it is expected that the Pastor will assist church leadership in determining the direction of these fund-raising efforts.

8. Outreach and Benevolences. The Benevolences Committee sponsors periodic fund drives to support organizations including Princeton Theological Seminary Scholarship Fund, Heifer International, Make-A-Wish Foundation, Church World Services, Food Bank for Westchester and My Sister’s Place. Toys are collected at Christmas time for the Grandparent’s Coalition. The John D. Rockefeller, Jr. Scholarship Fund awards scholarships to congregants who have demonstrated service to the church and community. The church desires leadership from the Pastor as it seeks to expand benevolent giving and community outreach.

9. Stewardship. Coordinate with Board of Trustees the annual campaign for pledges from the congregation for member’s individual financial support. Initiate capital and planned giving campaigns from time to time.
