

“Trump, if elected or somehow installed by a lawless Supreme Court, will indeed be king”

In the United States we were taught the Supreme Court is the final arbiter of the law. Where are we now? The Roberts Court ruled former President Trump has immunity for his conduct as President. Judge Sotomayor wrote in dissent, “The relationship between the President and the people he serves has shifted irrevocably. In every use of official power, the President is now a king above the law.” Judge Brown Jackson called it a “five-alarm fire that threatens to consume democratic self-governance.”

All our Senators and Congress people swore to uphold and protect the Constitution from all enemies foreign and domestic. The Supreme Court is that enemy. The Senate needs to immediately drop the filibuster and add, at minimum, 4 new Justices to the Supreme Court. The House needs to get behind Congresswoman Ocasio-Cortez’s call to impeach all six Judges that voted to turn our country into a Monarchy.

Trump, if elected or somehow installed by a lawless Supreme Court, will indeed be King. The Court has no basis or precedent for the “immunity ruling”. Installing Trump as Monarch, that will be easy for SCOTUS. When the conservative majority installed George Bush, with a wink and a nod, they said it should not be considered a precedent, but for King Trump, sure.
