Is This All He's Got?

Former President Trump has said that Vice President Harris isn't really black, because she celebrates her Eastern Indian heritage; that she's a Marxist, Socialist, and Communist because she advocates for low- and middle-income families and small businesses; that she's a lunatic, nasty, and dumb, because she has the audacity to challenge his dangerous lies; that she's not fit for the presidency, because she has an authentic laugh that isn't weird; that she's a liar, because she didn't list her student job at McDonald's on her professional resume.

More nasty and dumb insults are sure to come as Trump becomes increasingly desperate and deranged. This is all he has!

What VP Harris has are serious plans for helping new parents, small businesses, and improving the immigration process and securing the border. My vote goes to Kamala Harris.
