- If payment cannot be made on any of the agreed dates, the payee must inform High Yoga Ltd 48 hours before the payment date in question to arrange an extension if deemed appropriate.
- Failure to meet the terms of the agreement will allow High Yoga Ltd to cancel the payee's place on the course without offering a refund for payments already made.
- High Yoga School reserves the right to report unpaid payment(s) to the credit bureau.

- The tuition must be paid in full before receiving the High Yoga School Certificate.

Refunds

There are no refunds. In the event that extenuating circumstances arise which prevent you from completing the program, the tuition may be transferred to a future program. This will be assessed case by case and is up to the discretion of High Yoga School's lead teachers.

Attendance Policy

To obtain a certificate from High Yoga School, you must complete all course hours and written assignments/homework. We do understand that sometimes unforeseeable circumstances occur. If you miss a small portion of the training, you can schedule a private session with a lead teacher to make up the missed hours.

Make-Up Sessions & Missed Course Work

If you anticipate arriving late to a training session or have to miss a session, it's imperative that you contact one of the lead teachers via the course WhatsApp Group (or e-mail highyogaschool@gmail.com) as soon as possible.

For any missed training hours, you will need to organize a make-up session to review the missed material. The maximum number of private make-up sessions is two. In extenuating circumstances, lead teachers can make an exception and allow for additional private-make up sessions. These private sessions are not included in the YTT cost and would require additional payment. The private rate is £70 per hour, and payment would be made directly to the lead teacher.

If a student cannot complete all the requirements by the graduation date, we will continue to work with them as appropriate and assist them in completing the program. Please note depending on the kind of time and training required for the completion of the program, additional fees may apply.

Please note that Yoga Alliance is a separate organisation from High Yoga School. To be a continued member and maintain your registration status with them, you must pay their yearly fees.

Final Exams

If the trainee is unsuccessful in completing their written exam, they can retake it on a later agreed-upon date and time. If the trainee is unsuccessful in completing their final teaching exam, there will be an admin fee of £200. The student can take as much time as they need to revise for the final teaching exam and schedule a make-up time that suits them and the lead teachers when ready. High Yoga can only issue the certificate once the trainee completes all homework and essays and passes all exams.
