

Telly Evans Memorial Scholarship 2023-2024

The Redside Foundation is proud to announce the 9th annual Telly Evans Memorial Scholarship for Idaho Guides attending the University of Idaho.

To be eligible for this scholarship, you must:

- Hold a current Idaho Outfitters and Guides Licensing Board (IOGLB) Guide License.
- Be enrolled full-time (Fall 2022 through Spring 2023) as a University of Idaho student (defined as 12 or more credits for undergraduates, nine or more credits for graduate students, and ten credits for law students).

To apply, please send the following in PFD format via email to director@redsidefoundation.org:

- A letter of recommendation from your outfitter. The letter must state that you (the applicant) were employed during the 2023 season and includes your date of birth for the University of Idaho identification purposes.
- A scanned copy of your current IOGLB license.

The Telly Evans Memorial Scholarship is a $1000 award for the 2023-2024 academic year. The University of Idaho, General Scholarship Committee, will select the recipient. Academic records and financial needs will be considered. Student Financial Aid Services will notify the student recipient in November 2023. The scholarship will be awarded in two $500 disbursements, one each in the Fall of 2023 and Spring 2024 semesters.

Who was Telly Evans?

The Redside Foundation was founded in 2010 in loving memory of long-time Idaho River Guide Telly Evans. Telly was a dedicated Middle Fork of the Salmon guide, a legendary interpreter of the wilderness, and a compassionate friend to all.

The Redside Foundation strives to foster his spirit by supporting the health and strength of Idaho's Guiding Community. With the support of generous donors and foundations, the Redside Foundation connects Idaho's Guides with mental, emotional, and physical health services, financial advice, professional development grants, academic scholarships, and community building.
