Barbara Chambers Memorial County Coordinator of the Year

This award is given in memory of Barbara Chambers and the energy and inspiration she brought to bluebird conservation. A county coordinator’s job is to collect the data for the county and pass it on to VBS. This award is given to a county coordinator who goes the extra mile to organize, inspire and further bluebird conservation in their county.

Nominee: ________________________________________________________________

County Coordinator for ______________________________________________________ County

I am nominating this person for this award because ________________________________

___________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________

(If additional space is needed, continue on back.)

My name: __________________________________________________________________

Email address: ___________________________  Phone number: ______________________

Email a copy of the completed form NLT September 1, 2024, to Pam Narney, pnamney@gmail.com.