Sara + Alicia

menudas piezas

Catalogue of disobedient toys, which promote infinite play as it leaves open all imaginable possibilities of play and... the imagination has no limits!

Menudas piezas is a project which is originated from the creative, personal and professional collaboration between Sara San Gregorio y Alicia Gutiérrez (us).

We collaborated to produce and distribute a line of creative toys, so that it begins to materialize here. This catalogue aims to show the shared pedagogical view translated into playful objects.

Our intention is to upgrade these materials to the category of artistic pieces while at the same time moving them to the side lines of the game, designing them as 'loose parts' to be the toys you want them to be.

It is a catalogue always open to new pieces and new experiences that expand new ways to play together.

disobedient toys

Menudas Piezas is not an educational toy catalogue, they don't come with instructions, and if there are, you don't have to follow them.

You can play with the pieces, combine and interpret them as you wish.

We are happiest when we see you playing with them in a way we never even imagined.

glorious play

We want our pieces to form part of a more wonderful world, that's why we work with materials carefully selected by their origin, their production and their beauty.

We collaborate with local businesses where people we admire and trust work. We have launched this project as a team, to add talent, wisdom and strength.

"the best way to play consist of inventing an object and make it"

Ali

the art of the play

The pieces of this catalogue are artistic objects that can have a place, and which they have had, in galleries, museums and trade shows; but it's essence is revealed when they are touched, experimented with and played with.

Contemporary creation is the closest thing to playing we grown-ups do, that's why our pieces have a little bit of this too.

“we make sure that play has a place”

Sara

Before being part of this catalog, we have built and will continue to build with these pieces -and with others-, places for the play to happen in an extraordinary and beautiful way.

We have spent many hours playing with the true experts and, all that experience, we put “into play” to design customized cultural, recreational and educational projects.

Normally, we start from the design of a small object to be able to develop a large project around it, but we also work knowing that from large projects there are always objects and experiences that can continue to happen independently.

This catalog collects in the shape of objects each and every one of the previous experiences and, in addition, it is intended to be the trigger for thousands of new experiences and ideas.

“we design immersive environments with our pieces so that play happens in a natural way”

MENUDAS PIEZAS

endless play

Free play is our inspiration to continue designing.

All of the pieces are added to a catalogue –always opened- where we combine those already included with those that are being developed.

The playing possibilities tend to be infinite in an exponential way as, to the equation, you go adding all the ideas that emerge as you play with them.

This catalogue was published in Dec 2020.

HELLO!

Play with the sun

Our first collection together

We brought out our first collection of pieces for sale on the 20th of June 2020, the summer solstice of an unusual year in which we had spent all the springtime confined at home unable to play on the street.

We wanted to expand the playing experience to the open air, experiment with the light of the sun with its angles and with ours to create, draw, construct and interpret other possible universes.

Each of our pieces make up an open collection of playful objects which put the child at the centre of his or her experience and ensures that this moment is creative, memorable and beautiful.

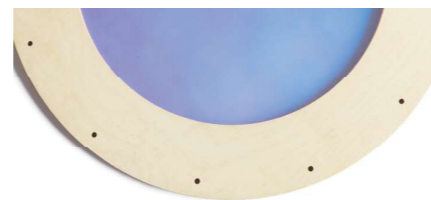

The way we work is based on three principles: the artistic investigation, the active pedagogy and the sustainable production and distribution.

Colours

Create little universes colouring the light and also the shadows.

10 Miradas

Discover yourself through play and refine your vision.

Constructions

Big pieces to construct imagine and inhabit.

24 Mix & Match

Multiply the play by adding ideas.
