Drewlo Holdings Inc. supports Fugitive Slave Chapel project with $50,000 donation

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LONDON, ON (May 24, 2022) - The fundraising campaign to relocate and restore London’s Fugitive Slave Chapel at Fanshawe Pioneer Village (FPV) received a generous contribution from Drewlo Holdings Inc. today.

President, Allan Drewlo and Jerry Drennan, Chief Operating Officer of Drewlo Holdings Inc. visited the Village to present a cheque for $50,000 to Steering Committee Member Carl Cadogan, and Fanshawe Pioneer Village Executive Director, Dawn Miskelly.

“As a local business that has been a part of the community of London for over 60 years, we’re proud to help support the restoration and preservation of the historic Fugitive Slave Chapel. A Chapel that we hope will educate Londoners on our city’s Black history for years to come.” – Allan Drewlo, President of Drewlo Holdings Inc.

“The fundraising campaign to support the relocation and restoration of the Fugitive Slave Chapel at the Village is gaining momentum. We are very pleased to share that thanks to this corporate donation from Drewlo Holdings, the project is two-thirds of the way towards our $300,000 fundraising goal.” - Dawn Miskelly, Executive Director.

“The restoration of the Fugitive Slave Chapel provides an opportunity to showcase an important and integral aspect of London’s Black history. It will be a powerful way to add to our history as told at the Village,” commented Steering Committee member Christina Lord, “We are grateful for Drewlo Holdings’ community investment to help ensure this building and its story are preserved.”

Drewlo Holdings Inc. is a family-owned business that has been developing, constructing and managing apartment buildings for 60 years.

Members of the community wishing to donate can visit: The Chapel Project — London Community Foundation (lcf.on.ca)

Business, corporate and community organizations wishing to make a contribution are encouraged to contact Dawn Miskelly, Executive Director of Fanshawe Pioneer Village to learn more.

- 30 -

For more information contact:

Dawn Miskelly, Executive Director
London & Middlesex Heritage Museum - Fanshawe Pioneer Village director@fanshawepioneervillage.ca
519.457.1296 (x812)