

The
Edward Gorey House

2023
All Ages
Envelope Art
Contest

The Gorey Catwalk is about to commence. You are the fashion designer and your envelope the runway down which your spectacularly attired characters will strut. The Edward Gorey House is now accepting original envelope artwork from artists of all ages for our 2023 Envelope Art Contest using this year's theme of Gorey Catwalk. We have fashion in mind but we understand we're dealing with artists—we anticipate surprises—so surprise us. Gorey was a master of combining eras, cultures and styles into very distinctive wardrobe. This is your opportunity to fashion some Gorey fashion.

Below is an application you may enclose in your art entry. You do not have to use this form, but you must include the below info with your entry if you hope to hear from us.

Remember to keep all the usual body parts that require covering covered—sorry.

There is no entry fee and no big prizes, but the winning entries, runners up, and all our personal favorites are displayed in the Gorey House for a long time (as well as on our website and Facebook page). Winners will be notified and results will start to be posted starting Monday, Oct 30th 2023.

Mail your entries by Monday, Oct 16th to:
