Additional support from the Black Communities Investment Initiative of the St. Louis Community Foundation, Enterprise Holdings Foundation, and the St. Louis Regional Racial Healing and Justice Fund.
Dear Friend of The Black Rep,

Sometimes the most powerful barriers are the ones unseen. How we encounter and respond to them is the inspiring undercurrent of this new and exciting Season 46.

Join us as we look at Arthur Miller’s American classic through an African American lens, present new work by Loy Webb and Dominique Morisseau and celebrate the genius of Eubie Blake.

PAUL LAURENCE DUNBAR (1872-1906)

WE WEAR THE MASK

We wear the mask that grins and lies,
It hides our cheeks and shades our eyes,—
This debt we pay to human guile;
With torn and bleeding hearts we smile,
And mouth with myriad subtleties.

Why should the world be over-wise,
In counting all our tears and sighs?
Nay, let them only see us, while
We wear the mask.

We smile, but, O great Christ, our cries
To thee from tortured souls arise.
We sing, but oh the clay is vile
Beneath our feet, and long the mile;
But let the world dream otherwise,
We wear the mask!

by Pearl Cleage
Grades: K-5th

Before joining her friends for a #genius performance at their talent show, Janet must choose between the show or sitting in for climate change. Can she be the change she wants to see? by Naima Carter Russell & Eugene H. Russell IV
Grades Pre K - 4

A mail delivery mixup somehow leads to one of his turnips growing bigger than any he’s ever seen! How will he even get it out of the ground? What will he do with it when he does?
