CHORUS 2

Long live the King
The Son of God is crowned with many crowns
Long live the King
Death and darkness fear Him and bow down
And lost are found
The souls of every sinner now redeemed
And I can't help but lift my hands and sing
Long live the King
Long live the King
Long live the King
Long live the King
Long live the King

CHORUS 3

Long live the King
Emmanuel ascends to take His throne
Long live the King
The train of His robe glides across the floor
Creation roars
A billion ancient stars bow down their knees
And I can't help but lift my hands and sing
Long live the King
Long live the King
Long live the King
Long live the King

VERSE 4

In the early morning hours
God's Spirit filled the grave
Breathing Life into the body
Of the Lamb who had been slain
Resurrecting like a Lion
As the stone was rolled away
Jesus Christ now glorified
Yes our Redeemer, He's alive
