Events Committee at MMFA Launch (October 16)

Y4Y Quebec had been a supporter of the Montreal Museum of Fine Arts' pilot project, Workshop 1520, since its inception. It was wonderful to have been invited to their launch event. It was well attended by youth from across the city who will greatly benefit from access to this space.

Tabling at Dawson College (October 18)

Alex and Kelly had a great time tabling at Dawson College with Democratic Engagement Exchange. Y4Y introduced itself to the student body, distributed surveys for the "Identifying Best Practices" Project, and started receiving student input on our Flag Project. More about this exciting project at the bottom of the newsletter.

Want to weigh in for the "Identifying Best Practices" Project? Youth aged 16-30 can answer here.

REISA's Mental Health Summit

Alex and Gabriela represented Y4Y at the October 22 Mental Health Summit at John F. Kennedy High School in Villeray. The conversation about mental health is an important one to have, and Y4Y is proud to have participated in this event. We thank the REISA Youth Network's organizers for putting on this event.

Visit to the Pontiac Region (October 24)

Hayley introduced the Pontiac region to Alex and Adrienne. Pictured above is Heritage College's Pontiac Campus. The conversations we had with teachers and students gave us a sense of the issues faced by English-speakers in the region. Y4Y wishes to continue the dialogue and provide all the help that we can with local entrepreneurship.

Y4Y Welcomes its most recent Employees!

Misé Johns

Kathleen Mulawka

Misé and Kathleen will be Y4Y's two coordinators for Project Aliana, supporting youth-led engagement initiatives in Nunavik.

Promoting the Visibility and Vitality of Quebec's English-speakers through the Creation of an Official Flag for the English-Speaking Community of Quebec (ESCQ)

Y4Y is proud to have received funding from Canadian Heritage for its project, "Promoting the Visibility and Vitality of Quebec's English-speakers through the Creation of an Official Flag for the English-Speaking Community of Quebec (ESCQ)". Y4Y is seeking English-speakers across the province to take part!

Get involved by applying to be a member of our Symbolism Committee. Members of the Committee will be paid a stipend for their efforts. Please email Symbolism.project@y4yquebec.org if you have an interest in culture, arts, representation and symbolism.
