New Blog Post

COVID-19 Opens New Employment Pathways for Some Musicians: *Diversification of Streams of Income a Conversation with Québec Musicians

The COVID-19 pandemic has significantly impacted Québec musicians in the industry. Canada's "I lost my gig" survey recorded the cancellation of over 25,000 gigs, amounting to a loss of 16.6 million dollars (Jeanotte, 2021). With the majority of musicians depending on live shows and 'gigging', how have some artists found creative and innovative ways to earn a living?

"I Care" : Stories for #YoungCarersActionDay

Share your story!

Are you under 30? Provide emotional or physical support for someone you love?

"I Care": Stories

Y4Y Québec has partnered with AMI-Québec, with the support of Proche

Aidance Québec, to collect stories of young carers! By sharing your caregiving experience you will inform further research to ensure support is accessible to all young carers. But what does it mean to be a caregiver? How do you know if you are a young carer yourself? Find out more & see how you can get involved.

Job Openings at MEPEC

Are you looking to have a career in the service of Québec's English-speaking minority communities? The Monteregie East Partnership for the English-Speaking Community (MEPEC) is looking for candidates to fill their Administrative Agent, Junior Community Agent (Student), and Community Animator (Student) positions. If you are interested, you can find out more here and apply!

All deadlines have been extended.

The Health And Social Services Community Leadership Bursary Program

With funding from McGill University, Connexions is proud to offer the Health and Social Services Community Leadership Bursary Program. The Bursary provides a financial incentive for students from the Outaouais region pursuing full-time studies in health and social services at a Québec government-recognized educational institution to return to or stay in their region to work and serve their communities after completing their studies.

Interested? Find out more and apply here.

Support A Mission You Believe In!

Whether by addressing issues our youth face, or strengthening their sense of belonging to the province, or providing them with the means to have their voices heard, Y4Y is committed to the vitality of its English-speaking youth, who are, after all, tomorrow's change-makers. You can support Y4Y's initiatives by donating here.
