

We are passionate about making your dream wedding come true!

Welcome...

Welcome to the beautiful Glenpark Estate. A hidden gem in the heart of County Tyrone, that sits within the Gortin Glens area of Omagh. The Estate itself comprises of 43 acres of mature woodland, a picturesque stream that meanders throughout the grounds leading to the old watermill and replica 17th century stone buildings.

Glenpark Estate offers you tranquility, elegance and old-fashioned romance.

A day to remember, in a place you'll never forget.

Celebrate

We create personalised weddings for every couple's unique style.

Celebrate the beginning of your life-long journey together, with your family and friends at the historical Glenpark Estate.

Located on the site of the former Ulster History Park near the easily accessible town of Omagh, Co. Tyrone. Our extensive mature woodland and replica 17th century stone buildings create a magical backdrop for your cherished photographs.

Our estate offers 8 luxurious bedrooms which can accommodate up to 24 guests.

You will have the opportunity to continue your celebrations into a second day in our stone walled courtyard, where you can enjoy an al fresco breakfast and/or lunch.

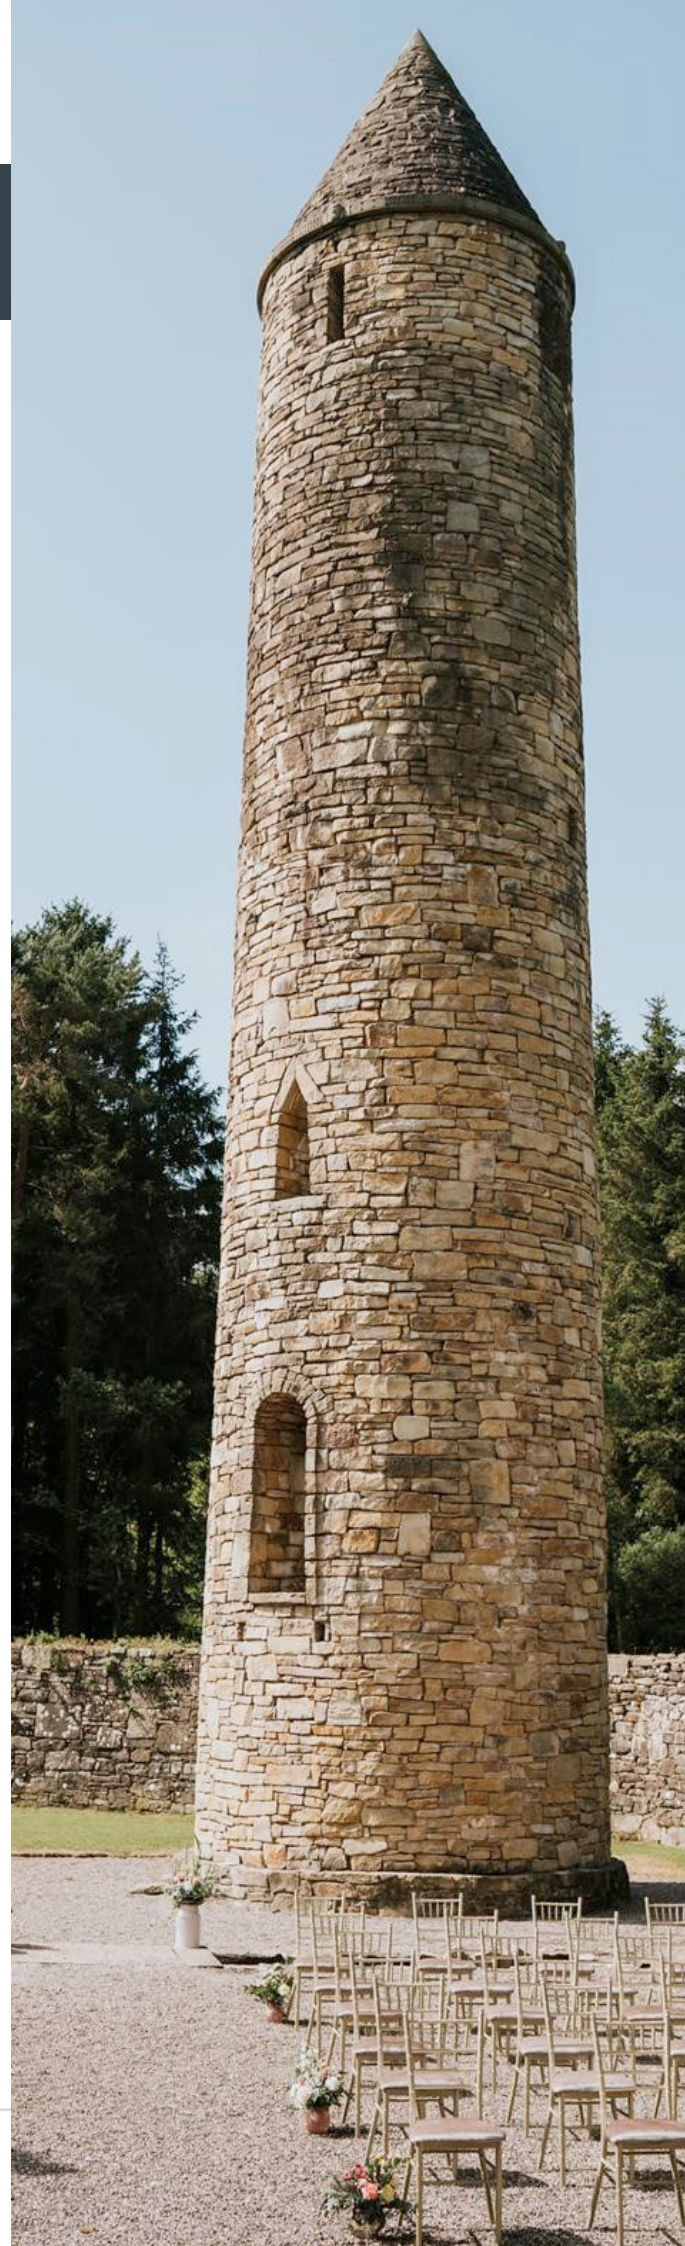

Your Ceremony

Create your own history on our exclusively private Gillies Island where our pavilion is situated and will cater for up to 200 guests.

You and your guests will be captivated by the breathtaking and unique replica 13th century historical surroundings which include an exquisitely built stone monastery, ancient round tower and wishing well.

Exchange your vows in the atmospheric stone monastery or choose a peaceful and intimate space set amongst the trees.

We offer civil ceremonies and look after you all day on your most special of days.

Your Reception

The sense of history and serenity will leave a lasting impression on you and your guests, with memories that will be cherished forever.

Following your ceremony, a drinks reception can be held within The Fawn Reception, The Plough Bar or our open aired Courtyard where you will be able to enjoy celebratory drinks and delicious canapés.

Our vintage tractor and trailer will take you and your guests on a short journey through our fabulous estate to Gillies Island where the fixed pavilion will cater for up to 200 guests.

After dinner your guest can enjoy a stroll around our beautiful grounds before dancing the night away under the soft twinkle of the fairy lights.

Frequently asked questions

We would love to visit Glenpark Estate to get a feel for the place.

Viewings of Glenpark Estate are strictly by appointment with our wedding coordinator. A simple call or email and we will be delighted to arrange a date and time that suits you.

How many guests can Glenpark Estate Accommodate?

Glenpark Estate can accommodate up to 200 dining guests in our Gillies Island Pavilion.

How long do you usually spend at your initial drink's reception?

Usually, you spend between 2 to 2 1/2 hours mingling with your guests before being invited for dinner.

What time are guests usually invited for dinner?

Times may vary due to numbers but dinner is usually between 16.30 – 17.15.

When do we have our speeches?

Generally, speeches are held before the meal. However, we will leave this decision up to you.

Is there a bar service?

Yes, we supply a full bar service for the duration of your day.

Can I bring my own wine?

Yes, you are welcome to bring your own champagne, prosecco or non alcoholic alternative for your arrival reception. This is strictly limited to ONE glass per guest. Wine is also permitted for serving during dinner only and is limited to half a bottle per guest. All bottles brought in by couples are subject to a corkage charge of £8.50 per bottle. Alternatively, we have our own in house wine list that you are welcome to choose from.

What time does the bar stay open to?

In accordance to Northern Ireland licensing laws the bar is permitted to serve alcohol until 01.00 hrs.

What time can music play to?

In accordance to Entertainments License regulations music can be played to 01.00 hrs. We respectfully ask that live music stops 23.00 and a DJ plays the remainder of the night to 01.00AM. *These hours may vary depending on time of year/days etc.

How long do I have before I am expected to confirm my booking with a deposit?

We will hold your date for one week until you make your final decision.

What deposit is required?

We require a deposit of £1000 to hold your date. This will then be deducted from your wedding venue hire cost. Deposits are non-refundable.

Do you require a Security Deposit?

Within 7 days of your wedding date we will require a pre-authorisation on your credit card of £500 which will be held in the event of any damages. This will be returned within 7 days of your wedding date subject to T&Cs.

Payment

We require full payment within 28 days prior to your wedding date and in accordance to your specific payment schedule outlined in your booking forms. Your wedding co-ordinator will be happy to discuss this further.

Do you have onsite accommodation?

Yes, we have 8 luxurious rooms that can accommodate up to 24 people and a 24 Bay Caravan Park.

Is there further accommodation close to the Glenpark Estate for guests?

Yes, please contact our wedding coordinator for a full list of nearby accommodation.

When can I come to Glenpark Estate to get set up for my wedding?

Our aim is to be as accommodating as possible on the run up to your wedding day. You are welcome to drop off items at Glenpark Estate the day before your wedding.

Can I stay at Glenpark Estate the night before, or the day after my wedding?

If we have availability you are welcome to stay the night before and day after.
