2024 BOISE PRIDE FESTIVAL

It feels wonderful to be celebrating another milestone year in the history of Boise Pride—our 35th year! It's incredible to see how much this organization has grown, especially within the last ten years. It's a testament to this community's resiliency and how division only brings members and allies of the LGBTQIA+ community closer together.

While our community may face challenges in the pursuit of equality, each of us has a unique journey that, despite its difficulties, holds potential and hope - it does get better. Celebrating pride is a testament to our differences, and it's a reminder that our diversity is our strength. Our ongoing goal is to foster an environment where everyone feels not just accepted, but truly valued.

The organization would like to formally welcome Davis Hilton to our staff as Marketing Coordinator. They bring incredible experience to this newly created role and will do wonders as our organization continues to increase our marketing presence and develop new ideas for keeping Boise Pride visible inside and outside of Idaho.

On behalf of the entire Board of Directors, we want to express our heartfelt gratitude for your unwavering support of Boise Pride. Your support is what makes our community thrive. We hope you have a wonderful time at this year's Boise Pride Festival and are PROUD OF WHO YOU ARE!

Sincerely,

Michael L. Dale
President, Boise Pride Board of Directors

BOISE PRIDE

♡ PROUD OF WHO WE ARE ♡

BOISE PRIDE

As the executive director, I am honored to welcome you all to the 35th Anniversary of the Boise Pride Festival!

We are living in a time when our very existence is being questioned and attacked by those who seek to marginalize and silence us. In a time when our community is increasingly targeted by anti-LGBTQIA+ legislation and rhetoric, your presence here is not just a celebration – it's an act of courage, resilience, and defiance.

The rights we and the generations before us have fought so hard for are being challenged and, in some cases, stripped away. But rather than retreat, we must stand together, stronger than ever. Your participation in this festival is a powerful statement: We will not be silenced, erased, or pushed back into the shadows!

Pride has always been about more than just a parade or a party; it's about claiming and reclaiming our spaces in the community in a world that too often tells us we don't belong. It's about standing up and saying, "I am here, I am proud, and I will not be pushed aside."

As we gather here to celebrate our diversity, our love, and our identities, let us also remember the importance of showing up for ourselves, for each other, and for those who cannot be here today. This festival is a reminder of the progress we've made and the work that still lies ahead. By coming together, we reclaim our power, our spaces, and our right to exist unapologetically!

Thank you for being here, thank you for your courage and support, and thank you for your Pride!

With Pride,

Donald Williamson

Happy Pride Boise!

I am thrilled to recognize and celebrate the 35th anniversary of the Boise Pride Festival with all of you; to walk alongside our neighbors, friends, family members, and residents in unity and celebration of our vibrant LGBTQIA+ community.

This incredible milestone is a testament to our community's strength, resilience, and spirit. The Boise Pride Festival is the largest of its kind in Idaho, providing the opportunity to renew our commitment to our LGBTQIA+ community and celebrate our city's vision to be a safe and welcoming city for everyone.

As we come together to celebrate, I am both proud of the progress we've made and inspired to continue standing with our LGBTQIA+ friends, family, and neighbors every day. We value your contributions to our community, and we are dedicated to ensuring that Boise remains a place where everyone can thrive.

Together, we are creating a city that embraces diversity, fosters inclusion, and celebrates our unique identities. Thank you for making Boise the wonderful community it is. Your courage, love, and pride inspire us all. As we celebrate this special 35th year of the Boise Pride Festival, let's continue to stand together, support each other, and be proud of who we are.

Thank you to everyone visiting Boise on this very special weekend, and also to those that call Boise home. It's an honor to welcome you and a privilege to serve you.

Lauren McLean
Mayor

THE OFFICE OF THE MAYOR
CITY OF BOISE,
STATE OF IDAHO
PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS, founded in 1989, the Boise Pride Festival celebrates lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, non-binary, and queer social and self-acceptance, achievements, legal rights, and pride; and
- WHEREAS, while there has been progress in recognizing and validating LGBTQ+ individuals' human rights and equality in recent decades, members of this community in Idaho, in the United States and all over the world still face bigotry, persecution, discrimination and violence; and
- WHEREAS, the Boise Pride Festival is one of the top three Pride events in the Pacific Northwest and the largest and longest continuous Pride Festival in Idaho; and
- WHEREAS, the Boise Pride Festival strives to promote unity and celebrate the diversity of sexual orientations and gender identities, engaging the Boise community year-round; and
- WHEREAS, Boise Pride brings together members of the lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender community, their friends, allies, and supporters in celebration of the unique spirit and culture of the LGBTQ+ community; and
- WHEREAS, the City of Boise was among the first cities in Idaho to address LGBTQ+ discrimination in the State of Idaho, by enacting a non-discrimination ordinance to protect Boise residents from discrimination because of their sexual orientation and gender identity; and
- WHEREAS, the City of Boise is committed to taking immediate government and community action by collaborating with local partners, businesses, and individuals to be a national climate leader; and
- WHEREAS, we will continue to advocate for and protect Boise's LGBTQ+ community and affirm the fundamental human rights that all residents deserve— the right to live without fear of harm or violence, the right to live their lives openly and freely, and the right to love and be loved.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Lauren McLean, Mayor of Boise, do hereby proclaim September 13th through 15th, 2024, as in the City of Boise.

BOISE PRIDE WEEK

IN WITNESS, WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the City of Boise to be affixed at Boise City Hall this 6th day of September in the year two thousand and twenty-four,

MAYOR OF BOISE, IDAHO

On behalf of the Boise City Council, it is my great pleasure to welcome you all to the 35th anniversary of the Boise Pride Festival! This vibrant and joyous celebration stands as a testament to our community's commitment to inclusivity, diversity, and love.

Pride is not just a festival; it's a powerful reminder of our collective journey towards equality and acceptance. It's a time to honor the courage of those who have fought for LGBTQ+ rights, to celebrate the vibrant culture and contributions of the LGBTQ+ community, and to reaffirm our dedication to creating a city for everyone.

Boise is a city that embraces its diversity. Our strength lies in our ability to come together, respect one another, and celebrate our differences. This festival is a reflection of that spirit, bringing people from all walks of life together to celebrate love in all its forms.

As we gather to enjoy the festivities, let us also remember the importance of standing up for one another, supporting each other, and continuing the fight for acceptance. The journey towards full equality is ongoing, and it is through events like Boise Pride that we can inspire change and foster a community where everyone can live openly and authentically.

I want to extend my heartfelt gratitude to the organizers, volunteers, sponsors, and participants who have made this festival possible. Your dedication and hard work are what make this event such a success.

To all the attendees, thank you for being here and for being a part of this beautiful celebration. Enjoy the music, the performances, the parade, and the camaraderie. Let this festival be a beacon of hope, love, and unity.

Happy Pride, Boise! Together, we're building a city for everyone.

With pride and gratitude,

Colin Nash
President, Boise City Council

An advertisement for Smirnoff vodka. The background is a vibrant lime green. In the top right corner is the Smirnoff logo. The main text, "ME IS AN INGREDIENT. WE IS A FLAVOR.", is written in large, colorful, multi-colored letters. Below the text, three diverse individuals are shown: a woman in an orange top holding a drink, a woman in a green top sitting in a wheelchair, and a man in a blue and pink jacket sitting on the floor holding a drink. At the bottom, a purple banner contains the text "MIXED WITH PRIDE. INFUSED WITH LOVE." followed by the Smirnoff logo and "VODKA FOR THE PEOPLE". To the right of the banner is a bottle of Smirnoff vodka and a glass. A small box on the right says "GET YOURS TODAY".

THE ACES

In the years since The Aces released their acclaimed sophomore album, 'Under My Influence' in 2020, the band has been on a journey of self-discovery. Faced with the realities of a global pandemic, sisters Cristal and Alisa Ramirez (lead vocals/guitar and drums, respectively), Katie Henderson (lead guitar/vocals), and McKenna Petty (bass) used quarantine as a time to reflect, confronting personal mental health issues as well as processing experiences they'd had growing up together in Provo, Utah, as part of the Mormon church. When The Aces returned to the studio, their vision — and the honesty and trust between them — felt stronger than ever. To date, the group has earned over 205 million career streams; 'Under My Influence' alone garnered over 75 million (including 35 million on its lead single "Daydream"). The album appeared on numerous charts, including #53 on Billboard's Top Albums list. Further, The Aces have toured with the likes of 5 Seconds of Summer, X Ambassadors, The Vamps, and COIN, and have played at festivals all over the world, including NY Pride, Lollapalooza, Firefly, Bonnaroo, and more.

DJ ALEX CHAPMAN

@alexchapman

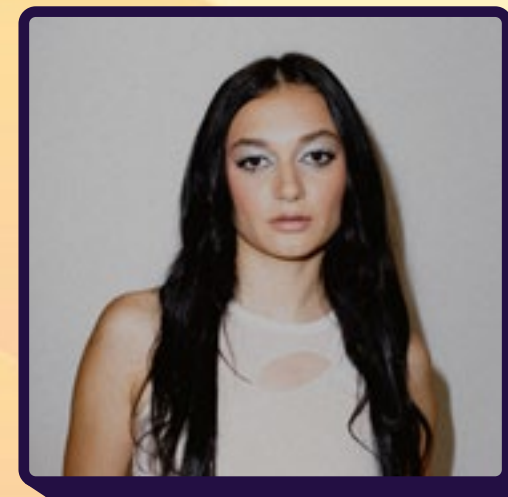

Alex Chapman is a rising dance-pop artist who first made a name for himself as a DJ, commanding dance floors at large-scale events and becoming a nightlife staple. With a passion for music and entertainment, Alex initially entered the industry as a show promoter and music journalist. However, he realized his true calling was in making music and enrolled in a music conservatory, offsetting classical guitar lessons with pop music analysis. Alex soon found his identity as the ultimate escape artist, allowing listeners to experience the freedom of losing themselves in fun. Alex is now introducing himself as a dance-pop artist and is on the frontlines of pop music experimentation. He is currently working on a bunch of new music. With his sights on being the gay Calvin Harris, Alex aims to make dance-pop music that collaboratively fuses pop and dance. Alex's life experiences as part of the LGBTQ community influence everything he does naturally, and he hopes to use his platform to help underserved communities, especially underserved communities of queer people and queer people of color.

SAPPHIRA CRISTÁL

@sapphiracristal

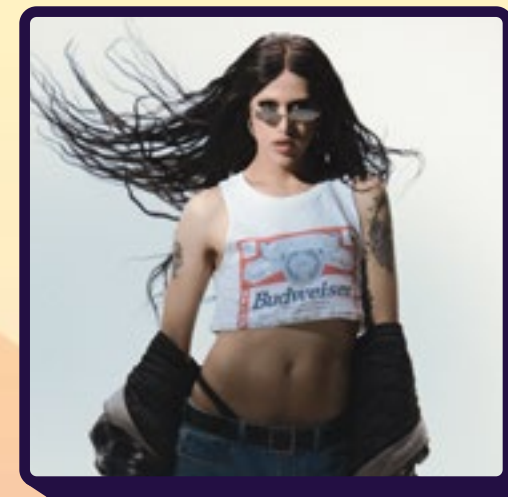

Sapphira is a classically trained opera singer, composer, and drag queen known for her theatrical lip sync style and six-octave vocal range. She holds 14 pageant crowns — including Miss'd America 2020/2021 — and has performed nationwide. Notably, she has appeared twice at the Philadelphia Fringe Festival: first in 2019 and again in 2023, when she was featured as a headlining artist. In the drag sphere, Sapphira is renowned as a charismatic host who commands the room and establishes a special, intimate connection with her audience. Whenever she can, Sapphira partners with charitable organizations to raise funds to change people's lives. Her personal credo is: "There is no better exercise for the heart than reaching down to lift someone up," and she has made it her mission to uplift, encourage, and inspire those around her.

DAYA

@daya

A Grammy Award winner before age 20, Daya virtually grew up onstage. She was a synth-pop innovator from the start, earning a double-platinum hit with "Hide Away" — her self-empowered debut single, co-written when Daya was still in high school — and teaming up with the Chainsmokers for "Don't Let Me Down," a dance anthem that sold more than 10 million copies in America alone. Then, at the height of major-label success, she threw the rulebook out the window and reclaimed her independence. Daya is her own boss these days, and her unique pop music — dreamily ethereal one minute, rhythmically kinetic the next — has never sounded brighter or bolder. Daya has spent over a decade perfecting her blend of euphoric melodies and beat-driven bounce, leading to several gold and platinum singles. Her versatility has resulted in collaborations across genres, from hip-hop and EDM to celebrated DJs. Notable tracks include "Love You More" with Felix Cartal and "Sometimes..." with Snakehips and Earthgang. With more collaborations and solo releases on the way, Daya continues her journey of self-discovery.

ADORE DELANO

@adoredelano

Adore Delano competed on "RuPaul's Drag Race" Season 6, placing in the final three, before returning for "RuPaul's Drag Race All Stars" Season 2. In 2019, New York Magazine named Adore one of America's top 10 most powerful drag queens. She is among the top 5 most followed RPDR contestants across social platforms. As a musician, Adore has released three studio albums and an EP, "Dirty Laundry," in 2021. With several songs and videos reaching tens of millions of streams across all platforms, Adore has become a titan of drag music and pop/rock. Her music has also appeared on several television programs, including "Pretty Little Liars." Her most recent tour, Party Your World, spanned 50 cities, including many sold-out dates across three continents.

DEV

@devescaliente

Dev is an American rapper, singer, and songwriter who was discovered on MySpace and began to gain exposure on radio, MTVU, and the Billboard Hot Dance Airplay chart. The Cataracs produced "Like a G6" with Far East Movement and used a verse from Dev's single "Booty Bounce" as the chorus. "Like a G6" was released and reached number one on the US Billboard Hot 100 chart. The song went on to sell over three million downloads in the US. Dev's music videos have generated over 100 million views on YouTube and over 50 million views for the "In the Dark" video alone. Dev, a much-in-demand collaborator, has been a guest vocalist on tracks for 50 Cent, Travis Barker, Flo Rida, Ludacris, Snoop Dogg, Demi Lovato, and David Guetta. 2024 finds DEV back in the studio, getting ready to release a new EP.

2024 BOISE PRIDE FESTIVAL HEADLINERS

CARLIE HANSON

@carliehanson

With each emotional, introspective song she shares with the world, Carlie Hanson reveals more of the out-of-placeness that has dominated her headspace over the last few years. That all-consuming foggy feeling hangs heavy over the 23-year-old singer/songwriter's sophomore album Wisconsin, a profoundly personal collection of songs detailing the homesickness that has plagued her since moving to Los Angeles from the home state that gives the record its title. LaCrosse, Wisconsin, is where Hanson fell in love with music. She recorded herself singing in her car, and to her astonishment, it went viral. Producers took interest, and she recorded some demos, like "Only One," which Taylor Swift included on her list of favorite songs in 2017. At 17, Hanson moved to Los Angeles. Despite early success with self-released EPs and her acclaimed debut album, "ToughBoy," she felt out of place. Changing your career trajectory is a process, and Hanson documents much of it in Wisconsin. There are, however, glimmers of hope. The title track, for example, is about recalibrating how she feels about moving across the country. As Hanson becomes more confident in her artistry, she brings a little piece of the Midwest to Los Angeles, song by song.

MORGXN

@morgxnofficial

Morgxn was born and raised in Nashville, Tennessee. He moved to New York City after college to pursue a career in theater. Morgxn was an understudy in the original Broadway cast of "Spring Awakening" before relocating to Los Angeles to write and record his own music. He identifies as queer and came out at the age of 19. Morgxn's music career took off in 2016 with his debut single, "Love You With the Lights On." He contributed vocals on two Tiësto tracks in 2015: "Fighting For" and "Change Your World." In 2020, Morgxn released his first single, "Wonder," as an independent artist. He has opened for artists like Skylar Grey, Great Good Fine Ok, Phoebe Ryan, X Ambassadors, and Dreamers. Morgxn identifies as non-binary and uses they/he/xe pronouns. His music combines electronic atmospherics with a sensual R&B-influenced delivery, creating a unique sound that has resonated with fans worldwide.

CRYSTAL WATERS

@crystalwaters

Billboard Magazine named Pioneer and Dance Music Legend Crystal Waters one of the most successful Dance Music Artists in the history of the Billboard Dance Music Chart. With over 100 million streams on Spotify and 2.12 million followers on Shazam Crystal Waters continues to engage her enormous fan base. She boasts 13 #1 Billboard Dance Chart hits and 11 top ten songs. Crystal is best known for 1991's "Gypsy Woman (She's Homeless)," 1994's "100% Pure Love" and the #1 European hit "Destination Calabria" with Alex Guaradino. Her accolades include 6 ASCAP Songwriter Awards, three American Music Award nominations, an MTV Video Music Award nod, and four Billboard Music Awards. Her latest release, "Party People" with DJ Spen and remix by Michael Grey, is garnering major support from BBC Radio One, Nexus Radio, and many more. Crystal Waters' Podcast "I Am House Radio" features new vocal House Music, with over 2.5 million monthly listeners and fans from all around the world. Crystal's radio show can now be heard on SiriusXM Channel 141 Saturday and Sunday nights at 8 PM.

2024 BOISE LOCAL TALENT

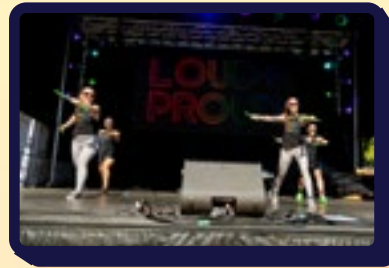

JOSHUA EMARA
 @joshuaemaramusic

Joshua Emara is a 20-year-old self-taught singer, songwriter and producer. In 2017, he gained local notoriety in downtown Boise for performing his violin dance act at the Farmers Market. He has now blended his love for violin, dancing, and singing into his own original music. He posts content covering other artists' songs in unique ways. Joshua did a 40s-inspired acapella cover of "Bad Guy" by Billie Eilish, which garnered significant attention. He has since continued with that content while working on his own original projects, which will soon culminate in an original album.

RED LIGHT CHALLENGE
 @redlightchallenge

Red Light Challenge is a high-energy, harmony-filled pop-rock duo made up of Sean and Kyle Luster, two brothers who were born and raised in Hawaii, but have been based in Boise, Idaho since 2015. The band has performed over 600 concerts around the U.S. at music venues and festivals, including Treefort Music Fest, and the House of Blues in Anaheim. Red Light Challenge has built up a catalog of songs with catchy melodies, tight harmonies, and personal lyrics that also have the power to make people dance, and they can't wait to share some good vibes with their music!

TREASURE VALLEY POUND POSSE
 @treasurevalleypoundposse

As a community, we believe that we have the ability to inspire a nation, to turn the fitness world on its head, and to truly find alternative ways to ROCK. We aspire to change minds before bodies and use beat and alternative movement to launch people to new heights of self worth, happiness and human connection...aka release their INNER ROCKSTARS.

FUSE DANCE COLLABORATION
 @fusedanceID

FUSE are a Boise-based dance company of local artists from different walks of life who come together to share their love of dance with the community. They are an adult dance company who specialize in contemporary and jazz styles. They will be performing two upbeat and entertaining jazz and jazz/funk routines.

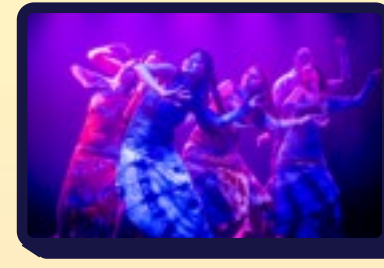

SUDAA' NAR FIRE TRIBE
 @sudaanarfiretribe

Sudaa' Nar Fire Tribe is a Boise, ID based fire and LED performance troupe. The group started in Las Vegas, NV under the direction of Noora, and now based in Boise, a new group has formed with amazing talent and new ideas to knock your socks off! They are a diverse and inclusive group that has shared the stage with drag artists and belly dancers across the valley. They pride themselves on their unique style of blending fire and flow with dance to create a beautiful and powerful movement in space.

MUNGO
 @mungowona

Mungo is a true artistic chameleon whose creativity knows no bounds. With a passion for dance, a talent for art and design, and a knack for making music, Mungo is a versatile artist who defies categorization. He is a true polymath, and he proudly describes himself as protean, constantly shape-shifting his creative expression to explore new horizons. Growing up listening to the likes of Oliver Mtakudzi, Nina Simone, and Bob Marley, Mungo taps into a unique sound and, in the words of a fan, a "Heart-Chakra-opening" positive vibe that is universally enjoyed by audiences. Mungo's music embraces R&B, afrobeat, and a soulful vulnerability, turning upside down his own truths to uncover feelings we all share. He is finalizing his second album, "Where I Wanna Be."

STARBELLY DANCE
 @starbellydanceschool

The Starbelly Dancers are nationally recognized belly dance artists from Boise, Idaho, under the artistic direction of Cecilia Rinn. Specializing in traditional, modern, fusion, and theatrical raks sharki (or belly dance,) they enjoy entertaining at family-friendly celebrations, festivals, and main stage events across the nation. Collectively, the Starbelly Dancers have been granted awards from The Alexa Rose Foundation, Boise City Department of Arts and History, The Idaho Arts Commission, and the National Endowment for the Arts. Starbelly Dancers will be joined by the Starbelly Student Troupe, a diverse ensemble of top students from the Starbelly School of Dance.
