

The Center for Educational Effectiveness

Erich Bolz, M.Ed.
V.P., Research and District Engagement
erich@effectiveness.org • (425) 947-5239

Experience

Educational career spans over 25-year in public education as a remedial reading teacher, pre-K-12 principal, central office administrator (small, large, and Educational Service District levels), Adjunct Professor at Heritage University and 2013 recipient of the Violet Lumley Rau Alumni Outstanding Alumnus Award. Board Member at Communities In Schools of Benton-Franklin, WA and Partners for Early Learning serving Tri-Cities, WA.

Leading educational transformation:

- Implementing building and district MTSS Systems.
- Informing and executing strategic planning.
- Facilitating process improvement discussions using Compression Planning methodology.
- Authoring and publishing on systemic change in education.
- Writing effective grant proposals.
- Directing Special Education at a regional level for an educational service district.
- TEDx, keynote and conference breakout speaking at a local and national level on MTSS, education, literacy, the importance of early learning, educator care, and community building.

- Most recent education experience as Assistant Superintendent of 19,000 student school district overseeing 16 elementary principals and the district's executive team for teaching and learning services including curriculum and instruction.

Education:

BA, Central Washington University, Teaching Certificate, Washington State University, Master's Education Administration and P-12 Principal Certificate, Heritage University, Superintendent Certificate, Washington State University

NEED MORE INFORMATION?

425.283.0384
info@effectiveness.org
www.effectiveness.org