

Muhlbauer
U.S. SENATE

“WE’VE GOT TO SPREAD THE TRUTH AND NOT BE SHY ABOUT IT.”

- DAVE MUHLBAUER, LITTLE VILLAGE, 5/27/21

MEET DAVE MUHLBAUER

Dave Muhlbauer is a farmer in Western Iowa who raises hogs and cattle, corn, beans, and alfalfa, and he’s running for U.S. Senate. As a fifth-generation farmer he knows the importance of community. After all, without the help of community, countless harvests would have been lost. Dave is in this race for working families - through thick and thin. He wants to do everything he can to make Iowa a better place to live, work, and raise a family.

Dave comes from a long line of farmers and public servants. His Grandpa Louie was a farmer, a County Supervisor and a State Rep - so was his dad. Dave served as a Crawford County Supervisor, and Regional President of Iowa State Association of Counties (ISAC). He lives in Manning, Iowa with his wife, Linda, and their three kids Chas, Ava, and Roslyn. So when he says we need to invest in our communities and create opportunity for our kids, he means it ... because it’s personal.

THE IOWA U.S. SENATE RACE

For decades Iowa was represented by a bipartisan delegation in the U.S. Senate. Senators Harkin and Grassley were well known for their ability to work across the aisle with one another in an effort to build a better Iowa – unfortunately those days are gone.

Chuck Grassley has been in federal office for over 40 years, but what good is seniority if you're not going to use to benefit your constituents? If we hope to fix the issues we currently have with healthcare; including mental health, farming, education, immigration, and infrastructure then we must move to a new generation of leadership – Dave is that leader.

HOW DAVE MUHLBAUER CAN WIN

For the past four decades Muhlbauers have been winning elections in the deepest red parts of Iowa. Dave, his father, and his grandfather have all been able to win, time after time, because of their willingness to sit down and hear people out, no matter their background, political affiliation or perspective. Dave will continue to reach across party lines to:

- Create a healthcare system that allows everyone access to care without the risk of facing bankruptcy - that includes mental health services.
- Create competitive markets for farmers so that family farmers can not only stay on their land but also keep profits on the farm.
- Redefine how federal dollars are used to directly benefit children, teachers, and support staff in our schools.
- Continue his work improving our roads, bridges, schools and other infrastructure projects that will make our state safer and more capable of building an economy for the future.
- Cut through the rhetoric and give hard working immigrants the means to live and work with dignity and with legal documentation.
