Marrying industrial toughness with refined details, the Steel bed from Lago is a versatile piece with a headboard that comes in different sizes and finishes for a personalized look. lago.it

The recently released Wave marble sink marks the first collaboration between Antoniolupi and husband-and-wife Doriana and Massimiliano Fuksas of the architecture studio Fuksas. The light and sculptural freestanding sink, made from Carrara marble, evokes a thin, bent sheet of paper. antoniolupi.it

Designed by Daniel Orozco Estudio, the Original furniture and accessories is a celebration of materiality. Made by Mexican artisans, each lamp, stool, table, and art object exudes a sense of elegance grounded by hands-on craftsmanship. danielorozcoestudio.com

Formed in 2020 by two creative sisters, Studio Ayumiya made its formal debut at this year's International Contemporary Furniture Fair + WantedDesign Manhattan. The Artifact lamp, which the duo presented along with a set of rugs, is a sand-cast, hand-poured, sculptural sconce. The air bubbles, lumps, and stretch marks in the glass were preserved as a metaphor for strength amidst struggles. ayumiya.com

The Pipelines console, designed by Amsterdam-based creative collective BCXSY for Mogg, is the epitome of industrial elegance. mogg.it

New from architect Alessandro Di Prisco for Mogg, the Talk chair comprises three components, each originating from the same shape. The upholstered, geometric piece brings interesting lines to interior settings. mogg.it
