The Folk Arts Program at Arts Mid-Hudson Announces a partnership between Alianza Cultural de Kingston and Kingston Midtown Rising’s Broadway Bubble to offer Community Workshops

Alianza Cultural de Kingston, an advisory group within the Folk Arts Program of Arts Mid-Hudson, has entered into a partnership with Kingston Midtown Rising’s Broadway Bubble, a community center/laundromat to provide community workshops. The Broadway Bubble and Community Hub is located at 718 Broadway, Kingston, NY 12401.

Alianza Cultural de Kingston is hosting two events at the Broadway Bubble and Community Hub. On Sunday, September 4th join us from 11:00 am to 2:00 pm to share your ideas for programs, help to construct a community-made t-shirt rug for the Broadway Bubble and enjoy light refreshments. On Saturday September 17th, from 11:00 am to 1:00 pm join us to share Latin American folk tales.

Alianza Cultural de Kingston is the working group whose mission is to implement the findings of the Kingston Latino Cultural study through workshops and programs open to the public. If you would like a copy of the survey, please contact the Folk Arts Program at Arts Mid-Hudson.

Kingston Midtown Rising, Inc. is a neighborhood organization working together to create spaces of beauty and belonging for residents of Midtown Kingston, NY. Members advocate for educational, economic, and affordable housing opportunities for our neighbors and work to build relationships across racial, cultural, and socioeconomic boundaries.

Kingston Midtown Rising is an Asset-Based Community Development organization, which means that every person and place in our neighborhood has the potential to be a powerful and positive force for the equitable transformation of the place the community calls home. Through the cultivation of authentic relationships and community partnerships, their goal is to provide the civic, social, educational, and economic opportunities for this potential to be cultivated and realized.

The Arts Mid-Hudson Folk Arts Program researches and presents the arts and traditions that form our diverse communities’ cultural heritages. Through public educational programs, the Folk Arts Program interprets the traditions of ethnic, occupational, and religious groups in the Mid-Hudson region. The Program is open to suggestions about how to assist in celebrating your community’s heritage.

Arts Mid-Hudson is the preeminent nonprofit arts service organization serving the Mid-Hudson region. Since 1964 our initiatives have engaged and promoted the arts benefiting our artists, arts organizations, and communities. Arts Mid-Hudson provides vision and leadership to support thriving and diverse arts in the Mid-Hudson region.
