

CONNECTION COUNTS

(Now more than ever)

Everyone needs a place to connect.

Retreat Farm is a free public common and gathering place where everyone can build deep and lasting connections to the land, to our shared history, and to the community we inhabit.

Membership is FREE.

Join the extraordinary community growing at Retreat Farm by visiting retreatfarm.org.

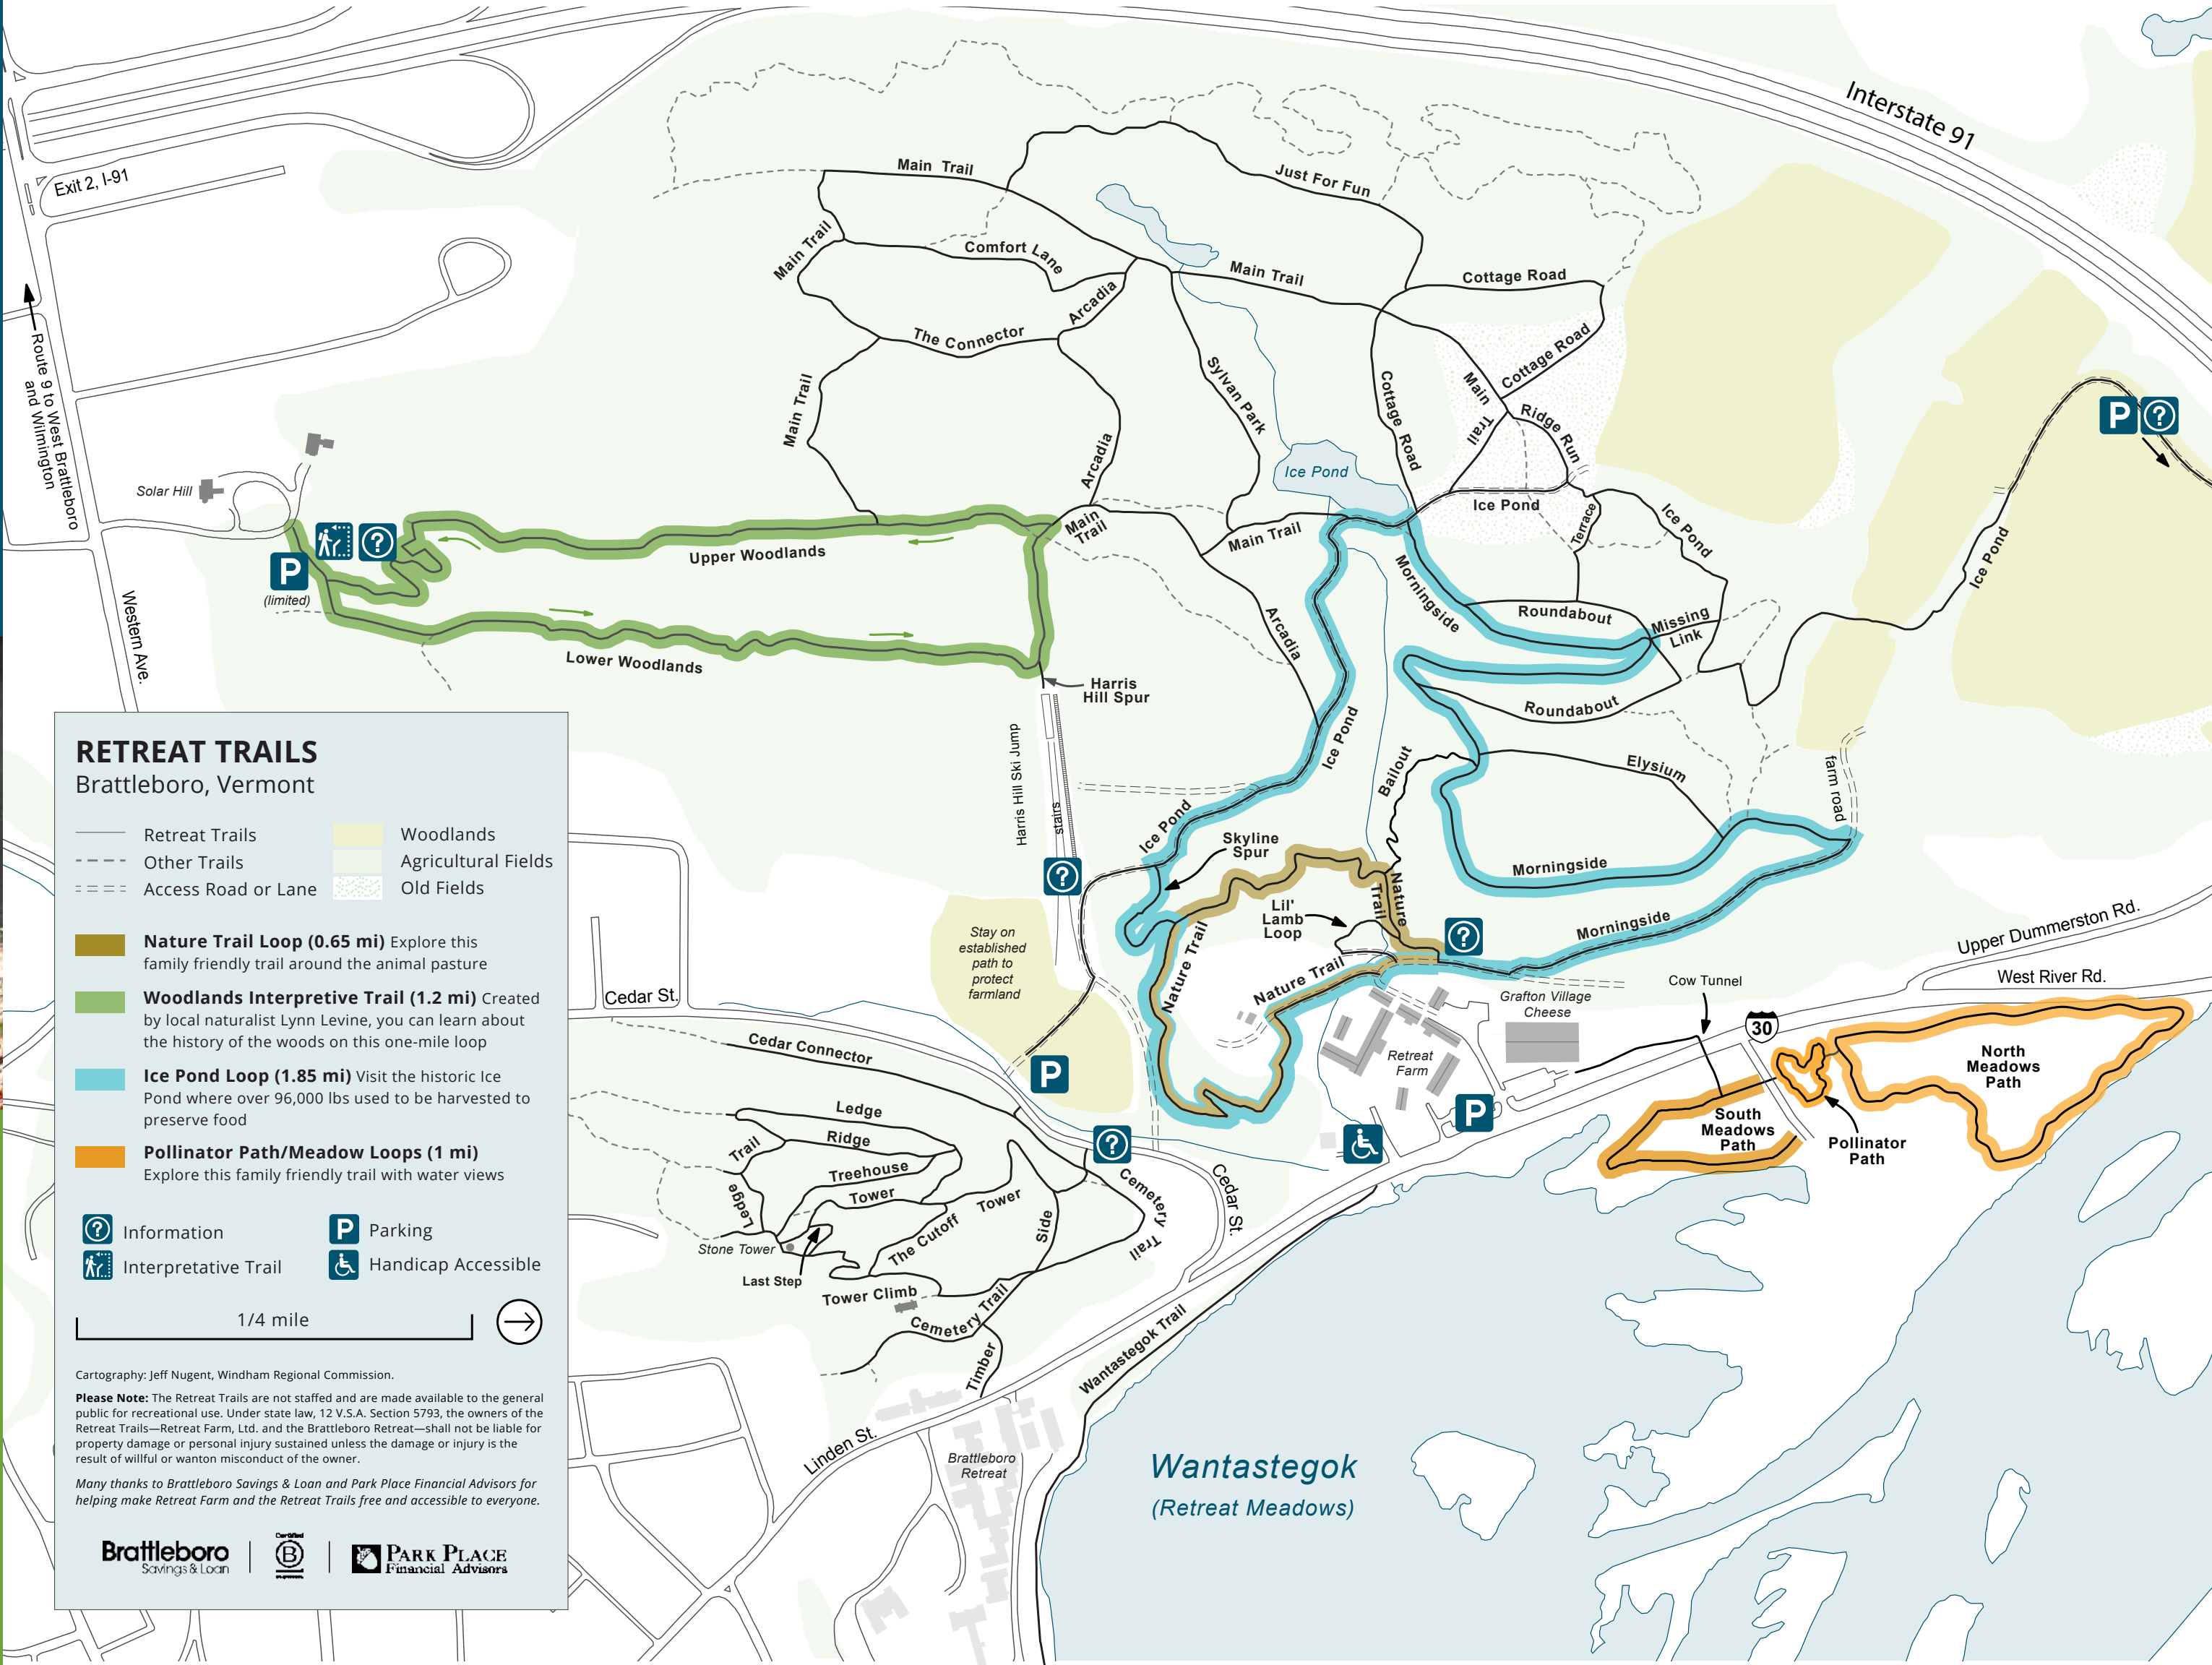

We rely on your support to keep Retreat Farm free and accessible.

Your tax-deductible donation helps Retreat Farm thrive as a community cornerstone, where everyone can find a sense of belonging.

Text BUILDCOMMUNITY to 26989 or visit retreatfarm.org to make a donation today.

Retreat Farm is an equal opportunity provider and employer.

RETREAT TRAILS
Brattleboro, Vermont

- Retreat Trails
- Other Trails
- Access Road or Lane
- Woodlands
- Agricultural Fields
- Old Fields

Nature Trail Loop (0.65 mi) Explore this family friendly trail around the animal pasture

Woodlands Interpretive Trail (1.2 mi) Created by local naturalist Lynn Levine, you can learn about the history of the woods on this one-mile loop

Ice Pond Loop (1.85 mi) Visit the historic Ice Pond where over 96,000 lbs used to be harvested to preserve food

Pollinator Path/Meadow Loops (1 mi) Explore this family friendly trail with water views

Information, Interpretative Trail, Parking, Handicap Accessible

1/4 mile

Cartography: Jeff Nugent, Windham Regional Commission.

Please Note: The Retreat Trails are not staffed and are made available to the general public for recreational use. Under state law, 12 V.S.A. Section 5793, the owners of the Retreat Trails—Retreat Farm, Ltd. and the Brattleboro Retreat—shall not be liable for property damage or personal injury sustained unless the damage or injury is the result of willful or wanton misconduct of the owner.

Many thanks to Brattleboro Savings & Loan and Park Place Financial Advisors for helping make Retreat Farm and the Retreat Trails free and accessible to everyone.

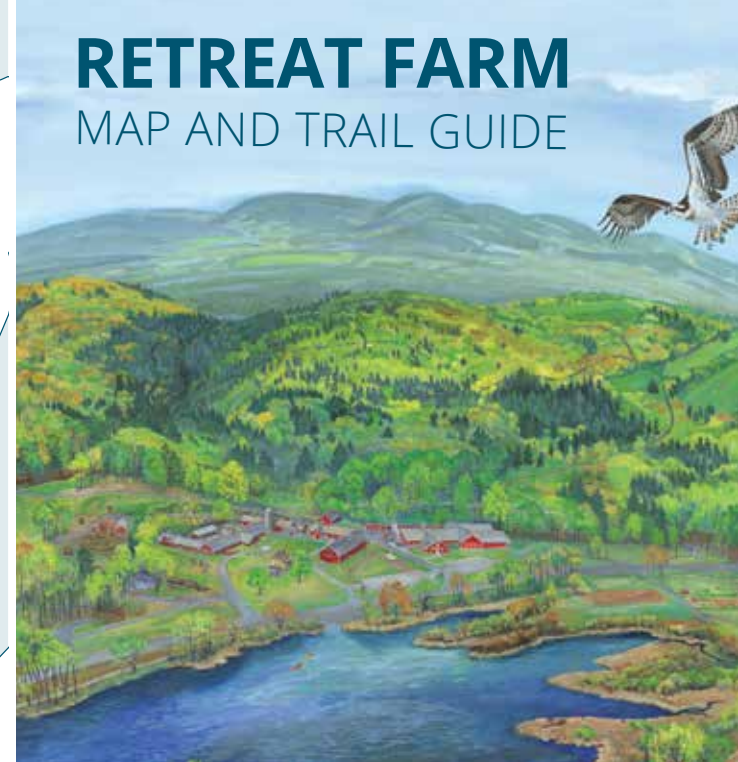

Brattleboro Savings & Loan, Park Place Financial Advisors

A COMMUNITY OF VOLUNTEERS

Retreat Farm encompasses 650 acres of forests, agricultural fields, wetlands, waters and 10+ miles of trails.

Our vast property is maintained by our small staff and the Friends of the Retreat Trails volunteer group.

To ADOPT A TRAIL or VOLUNTEER email volunteer@retreatfarm.org.

RETREAT FARM

MAP AND TRAIL GUIDE